

CLASS BOOK 1932

H. P. H. S.

ISRAEL J. RICHMAN

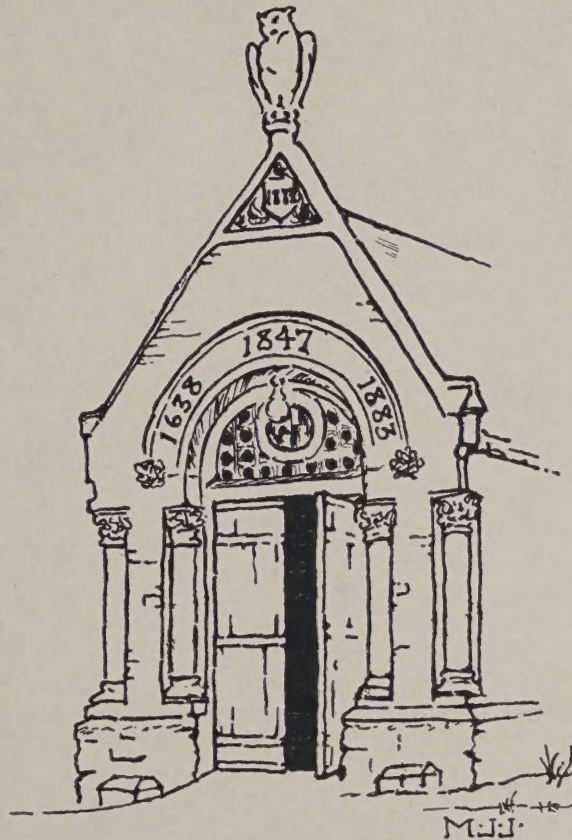

CLASS BOOK

CLASS BOOK

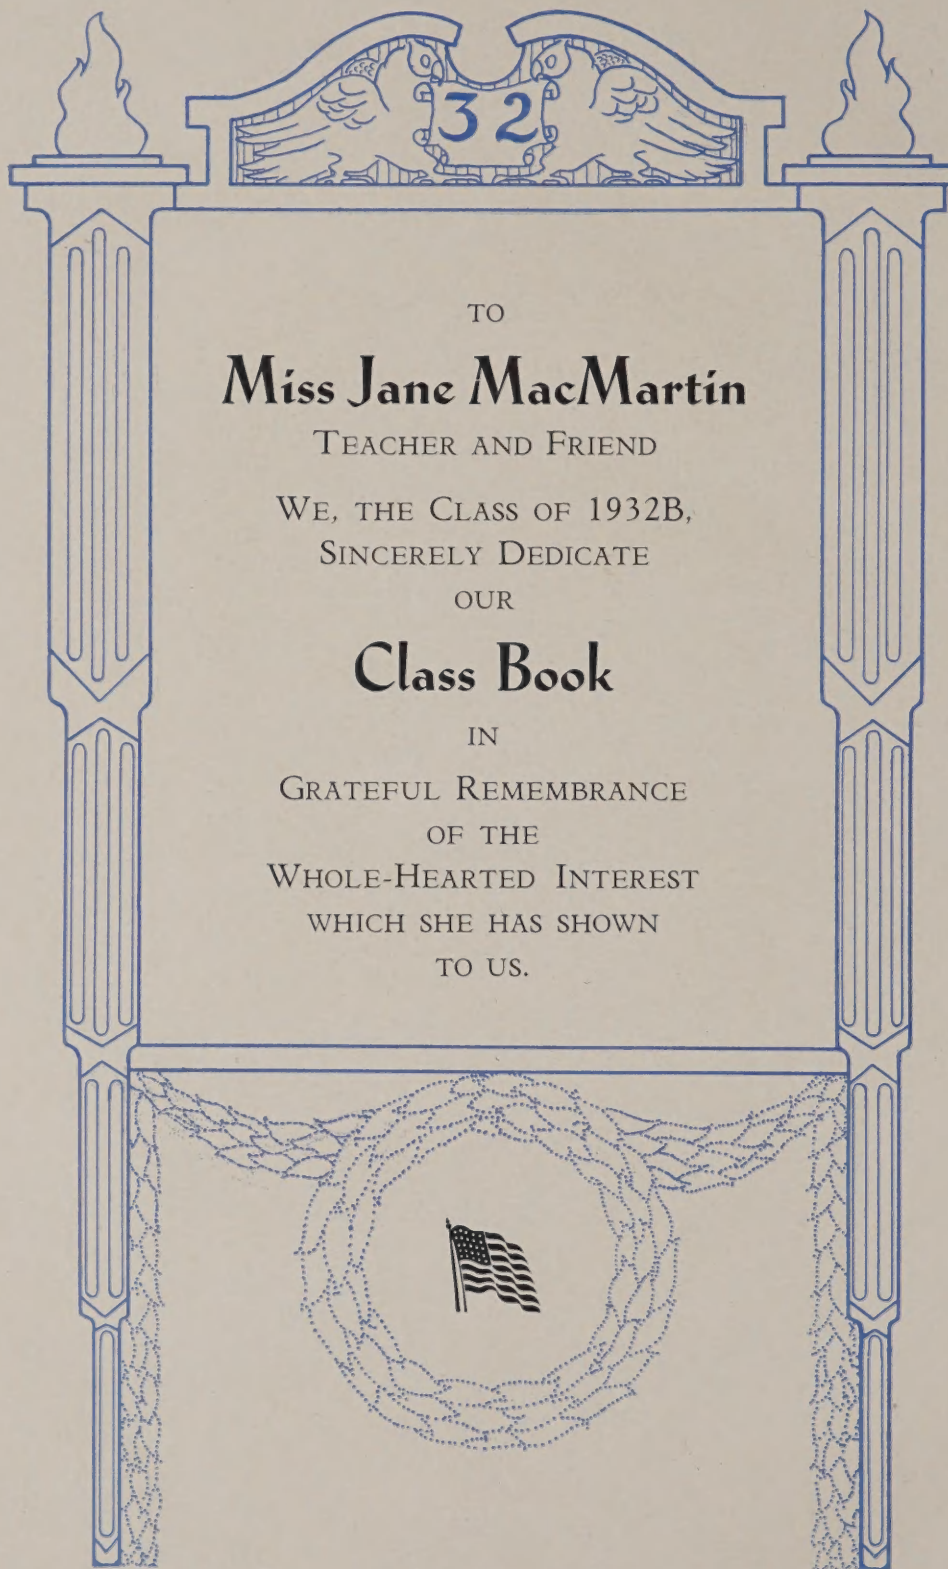

1932 B

Experiendo Scies
(You shall know by experience)

Hartford Public High School
Hartford, Connecticut

1932 B

TO Miss Jane MacMartin
TEACHER AND FRIEND

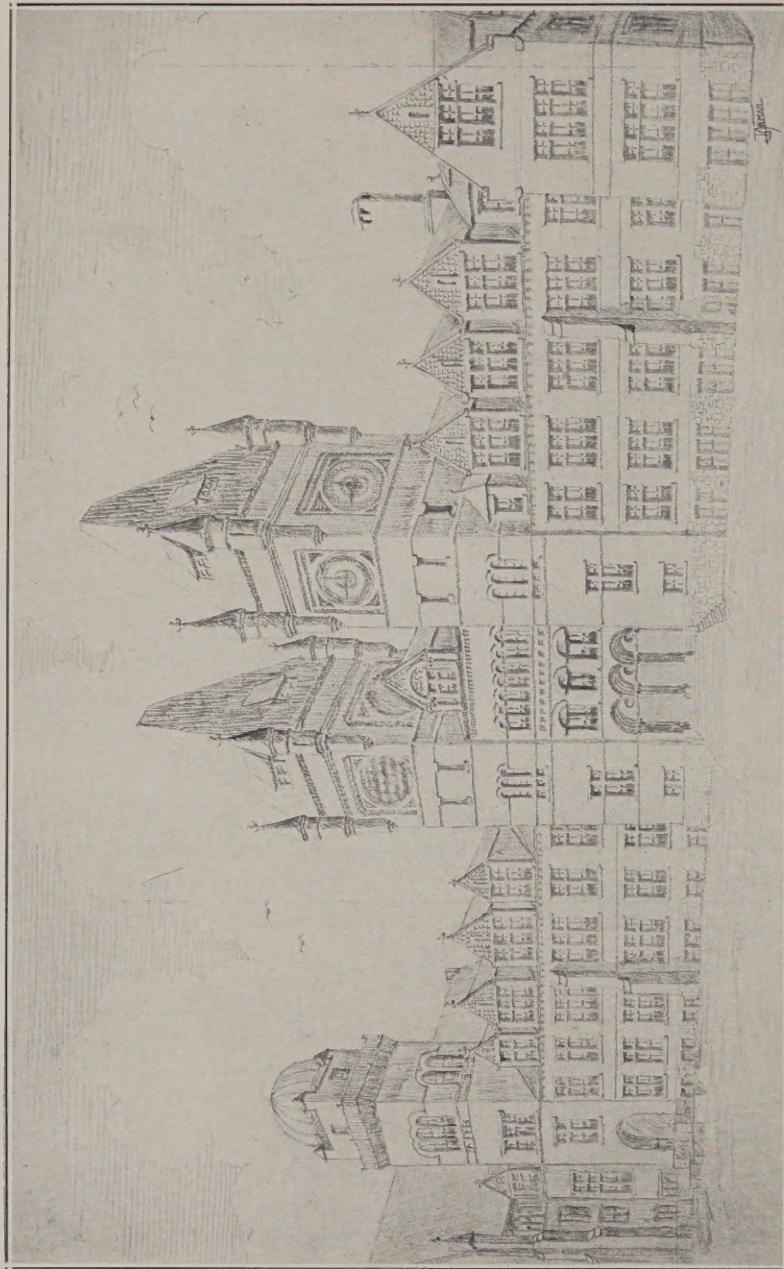

WE, THE CLASS OF 1932B,
SINCERELY DEDICATE
OUR

Class Book

IN GRATEFUL REMEMBRANCE OF THE
WHOLE-HEARTED INTEREST WHICH SHE HAS SHOWN TO US.

MISS JANE MACMARTIN

THE HOPKINS STREET BUILDING

CLASS BOOK

THE BROAD STREET BUILDING

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

HOPKINS STREET FACULTY

MR. CLEMENT C. HYDE, Principal
MISS HELEN PRITCHARD, Vice-Principal
MR. JOSEPH C. O'NEIL, Vice-Principal

Miss Hazel A. Abbott	Miss Lilian Holbrooke
Mr. Sigmund Adler	Miss Helen G. Johnson
Mr. Samuel M. Alvord	Miss Kate Linfield
Mr. Lawrence C. Amann	Miss Jane MacMartin
Miss Clara C. Angus	Miss Ruby L. Mead
Mr. Ray D. Arnold	Miss Catherine I. Moore
Miss Frances H. Bachelor	Mr. Karl P. Morba
Mr. Thomas C. Bailey	Mr. John R. Newell
Mr. Ralph L. Baldwin	Miss Mary P. O'Flaherty
Miss Harriet T. Barrett	Mr. Charles E. Perry
Miss Anna L. Bates	Miss Jennie A. Pratt
Miss Minnie D. Booth	Mr. James D. Price
Mr. Gibeon E. Bradbury	Miss Beryl Proctor
Miss Mercy A. Brann	Mr. Creel Richardson
Miss Alice Brigham	Miss Angeline M. Rogers
Mr. Alfred R. A. Brooks	Mr. Morris M. Roisman
Mr. William E. Buckley	Mr. Robert J. Rowland
Mr. Irwin A. Buell	Miss Madelene Ruggles
Miss Doris M. Coleman	Miss Helen W. Simonds
Mr. William E. Conklin	Miss Ruth L. Spaulding
Miss Blanche M. Darling	Miss Katherine Stevens
Miss Helen P. Duguid	Miss Grace V. Thompson
Miss Cordelia D. Gaylord	Mr. Arthur Vogl
Miss Elisabeth Gleason	Miss Elise von Baeckmann
Miss Agnes A. Hahn	Miss Mary C. Vulcano
Miss Alice J. Hayes	Miss Grace E. Warfield
Miss Florence C. Hicks	Miss Mary B. Whiting

ADMINISTRATIVE AND OTHER OFFICERS

Miss Grace E. Hyde	Miss Florence E. Fisher
Miss Grace E. Griffiths	Miss Rosa M. Hafey
Miss Doris E. Barnard	Miss Barbara M. Hurlburt
Miss Mabel C. Bartlett	Miss Ruth M. Kierstead
Miss Arline E. Dall	Miss Jeannette Marion

Miss Ruth E. Westerberg

CLASS BOOK

BROAD STREET FACULTY

MR. CLEMENT C. HYDE, Principal
MR. CARLETON M. ALLEN, Vice-Principal

Mr. George C. Abbe	Miss Mary C. McConnell
Mr. G. Rexford Bailey	Miss Dorothy M. McVay
Mr. Howard R. Bennett	Miss Gertrude F. Merrill
Miss Katharine C. Berry	Miss Maud Metcalf
Miss Eldora J. Birch	Miss Pauline Moyer
Mr. William E. Blake	Miss Agnes M. Myers
Miss Katherine W. Brainerd	Miss Lena Z. Newton
Mr. James A. Briggs	Miss Lillian A. Norton
Miss Grace M. Campbell	Miss Eileen I. Ostiguy
Miss M. Gertrude Conway	Miss Elizabeth P. Peck
Miss Rose M. Conway	Mr. G. Richard Perkins
Miss Hazel M. Creamer	Mr. Clark Perry
Mr. Fred C. Davis	Miss Olive Phraner
Mrs. Juanita M. Dean	Mrs. Lucy T. Pratt
Mr. William L. Dole	Mr. Frank J. Preston
Miss Marjorie B. Doty	Miss Martha J. Siiro
Miss Genevieve I. Elmer	Miss Julia H. Smith
Mr. Philip E. Foss	Miss Marjorie Smith
Miss Clarice L. Frissell	Mr. Frederic L. Tapley
Mr. Alfred C. Gammons	Miss Elsie P. Thayer
Miss Emily A. Hamilton	Miss Lydia G. Thiel
Mr. Edward S. Hawes	Miss Harriet B. Towne
Miss Ruth S. Hayden	Miss Georgine van Braam
Miss Alice T. Hickey	Miss Amelia H. Voigt
Miss Katherine L. Hills	Mr. Chester M. Walch
Miss Ruth E. Holden	Mr. Everett P. Walton
Miss Elizabeth A. Howard	Miss J. Grace Warner
Mr. George B. Kingsbury	Miss Genevieve Waters
Mr. William C. Krook	Miss Lina C. Weeks
Mr. Luther G. Lougee	Mr. Howard C. Wiley
Mr. Joseph C. Lynch	Miss Alicia S. Wolfe
Miss Mary E. MacDonald	Mr. James L. Woodworth, Jr.
Miss Katharine G. MacLean	Miss Mary E. Wrinn
Miss Jane D. Mahoney	Miss Florence G. Wyman
Miss Edith A. Matteson	Miss Catherine Wynd

Mr. Bayard D. York

1932 B

In Memoriam

ANNA H. ANDREWS

WHOSE LIFE, DEVOTED TO TEACHING, COUNSEL, AND FRIENDSHIP, WILL ALWAYS BE REVERED IN OUR MEMORIES OF HIGH SCHOOL

MISS ANNA H. ANDREWS

CLASS BOOK

Class Book 1932B

STAFF

Editor-in-Chief

Clifton P. Boutelle

Business Manager

Robert D. Entenberg

ASSOCIATES

Editorial

Kathryn M. Britt
Ann T. Mack
G. Lorraine Martineau
Martin A. Gilman
James Moir, Jr.

Business

Beatrice R. Cohen
Edith A. Holt
Julia V. Quinn
Russell G. Moore
John J. O'Leary

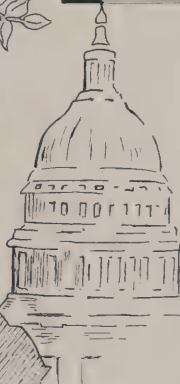

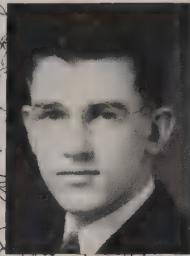

WE have derived great pleasure and satisfaction from serving the Class of 1932B because of the co-operation rendered us by the students. We hope that in future years everyone in the Class will regard this book as an everlasting memory of the happy school days we have spent at H. P. H. S.

R. D. E., Business Manager.

1932B

CLASS BOOK

Editorial Board

Business Board

T. Griffin

1932 B

OFFICERS OF THE CLASS OF NINETEEN THIRTY-TWO B

CLASS BOOK

Class of 1932 B

Class Motto

Experiendo Scies

(You shall know by experience)

Class Colors

Red, White, and Blue

Class Officers and Committees

Class Night Chairman

JOHN E. GALLIVAN

Chairman of Reception Committee

JOHN H. WELCH, JR.

Historians

JULIA V. QUINN
THOMAS I. JENSEN, JR.

Orator

RICHARD P. SMITH

Prophets

MARGARET E. BURKE
RICHARD X. GOGGIN

Treasurers

MARIE A. LEFEBVRE
VICTOR E. BONANDER

Essayist

EDITH A. HOLT

Marshals

JOHN B. BAUER
WILLARD R. MORRISON

Testators

JANE G. ALTON
THOMAS P. GEOGHEGAN

Poet

RICHARD X. GOGGIN

Song Writers

G. LORRAINE MARTINEAU
BEATRICE R. COHEN
RICHARD X. GOGGIN

Motto Committee

HARRIET L. CLINTON
MARY M. COSGROVE
JOHN E. HAYES
OLIVER C. MELLEN

Reception Committee

KATHRYN M. BRITT
ANN T. MACK
JOHN J. O'LEARY

Color Committee

BEATRICE R. COHEN
JAMES MOIR, JR.
JACOB C. HUREWITZ
LOUISE G. MONTGOMERY

1932 B

1932 B CLASS BOOK

PASQUALINA L. AIELLO

"Pat"

Something is in you that can smile at Fate.

—Edwin Markham.

Pasqualina need never worry about performing household duties since she does so well in Home Economics. However, we understand that she is something of a sport, too, since basketball runs a race with Home Economics for first place in her affections.

Henry Barnard School. Girls' League 3, 4.

JANE G. ALTON

"Jimmy"

Give me of thy fullness, Life!—Florence Coates.

"Jimmy" has one of the sunniest dispositions imaginable. Just to hear her pleasant, "hello", is enough to refresh one. Her sparkling personality and blond hair have made her very popular, especially with the boys. As a companion to her fair looks, she has the added quality of cleverness.

West Middle School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; National Honor Society 4; Class Testatrix. Never late.

Smith.

C. ELMER ANDERSON

"Al"

Mask thy wisdom with delight,
Toy with the bow, yet hit the white.

—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

"Al" is the hard working young man who often goes without his lunch in order to tend to "business". His social life is more or less "in the dark" but we know of several feminine hearts which beat a little faster when "Al" is around.

New Park Avenue School. Athletic Association 4. Never late, never absent, no demerits.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

FLORA J. ANDERSON

"Flo"

I am not up to small deceit; or any sinful games.

—Bret Harte.

We all admire Flora since she has completed her high school course in three and one-half years, a feat which is well worth much praise. We know that her future employer will find in her a very efficient and capable stenographer.

Wilson Street School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 4.

ALFONSO J. ANTOINETTI

"Al"

I began to settle, as my custom is, to take repose.

—Washington Irving.

"Al" is easy going and good natured. He is very accommodating, and is never too busy to help someone. Can it be that the customs of Leap Year are responsible for his taking dancing lessons?

Northeast School. Boys' Club 4; Boys' Commercial Club 4; Tech Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; French Club 4; School Baseball Team 2, 3, 4; School Football Team 2, 3; Class Football Team 1.

LEON E. BANCAVICH

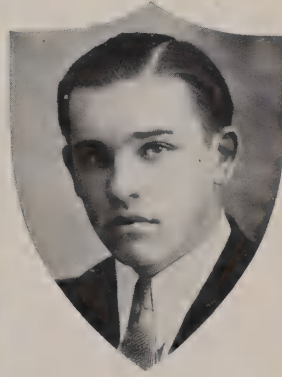

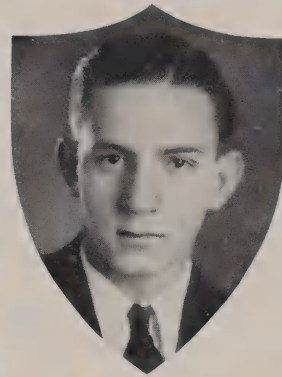

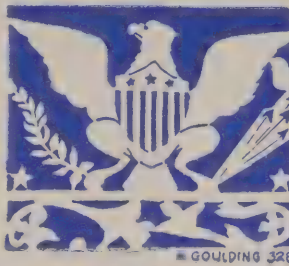

"Banky"

He lives not who can refuse me!—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

At last "Banky" has come into his own, at least during the basketball season. Not content with being a crack hoopster, he has branched out into other sports. If you see "Banky's" name in headlines as a wrestler, don't be surprised, for he can show us all a few tricks in this game.

New Britain High School. School Basketball Team 2, 3, 4; School Football Team 2, 4.

Purdue University.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

ANTOINETTE L. BARON

"Tony"

Beauty and merit now are join'd.—Francis Hopkinson.

If we all had a smile like "Tony's" what a pleasant place H. P. H. S. would be. What would happen if she should lose her mirror? Of course, we don't blame her; we are quite fascinated ourselves. This little miss is quite a fish in the water, but her forte is tripping the light fantastic on a dance floor.

Chauncey Harris School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 4. Never late, never absent.

Long Island City Hospital Training School.

SALVATORE BARBAGALLO

"Barby"

He is thoroughly persuaded of the truths of arithmetic.
—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Many is the time we have seen this aspiring young lad wandering about the halls mumbling formulas earnestly to himself. Another Einstein? He doesn't wander to school, though; he rides luxuriously in a big Hupmobile.

Henry Barnard School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 3, 4; Boys' Club 2; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club 2. Never late.

Trinity.

JOHN B. BAUER

"Jack"

He lived at peace with all mankind.—Albert G. Greene.

Yes, we have a banker in our midst, and if you don't believe it, ask anyone in Room 29. He's an accomplished clarinet player and likes nothing better than to produce discords on his instrument. But what are a few sour notes among friends?

Mount Hermon School. Boys' Club 4; Tech Club 4; Freshman Glee Club; National Honor Society 4; Assistant Stage Manager 4; School Band 4; Class Marshal.

Pratt Institute.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

DOROTHY D. BAZILIAN

"Doree"

She was a beautiful and simple and loving character.
—Mark Twain.

If you ever run across a pretty, efficient, and pleasant saleslady, take notice; it may be "Dot." However, since she is a person of indecision at present, you may find her the secretary of some big business man. We hope that whatever she does, she will have plenty of time to swim, since it is her favorite sport.

Arsenal School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3; Girls' Biology Club 4.

JOSEPH T. BAZZANO

"Buddy"

Every man is said to have his peculiar ambition.
—Abraham Lincoln.

Yes sir, believe it or not, folks, "Joe" has a sure-fire remedy for the depression (or at least he thinks he has) and he is only waiting till he has shaken the dust of H. P. H. S. from his shoes before he sets the business world back on its hind feet again.

Saint Patrick's School. Boys' Club 3; Boys' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Class Basketball Team 3; Class Track Team 2.

VIOLET M. BEAUCHEMIN

"V"

The art of conversation is the art of hearing as well as of being heard.—William Hazlitt.

If we were all as careful about saving our tinfoil as "V", none of the Homes for Crippled Children would fear of support. Perhaps if she gave it to Uncle Sam during these times he might coin some money. And we do not doubt that she'll be somebody's clever stenographer some day.

Northeast School. Girls' League 4.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

NORMAN E. BECKLEY

"Norm"

Kind words he had for all;
He knew no base design.

—Albert G. Greene.

Promptly at two o'clock every day "Norm" hies himself off to the Biology "lab." where report has it that he "feeds the skeletons". Outside of school "Norm" is interested in Y. M. C. A. work, and once he took up the strenuous sport of motorcycling.

Weaver High School. Athletic Association 1, 2; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4. Never late.

HELEN M. BERGLUND

'Tis hard to have to work.—Edmund Clarence Stedman.

Helen's infectious giggle breaks the monotony of many a long uninteresting class. She can always find something to giggle about, for no matter how dull the day, Helen is always cheerful and happy.

Lawrence Street School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4.

SARAH D. BERGMAN

"Saby"

I shall be unremitting in my labors to compensate.

—Abraham Lincoln.

Sarah is excellent in business subjects. She is a good sport and very conscientious in her studies. Her ambition is to be an accountant. She is well equipped for this position and certainly has every promise of success.

Brown School. Athena 3; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; German Club 2, 3, 4; Vesta Club 3, 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board 3, 4.

Boston University.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

DORA BLACK

Be ashamed to catch yourself idle.—Benjamin Franklin.

Dora is naturally reserved until it comes to debating about cooking and sewing, and then she talks and talks, for she excels in Home Economics. Her spare time is not wasted as she spends even the fifteen minutes before school in tatting.

Arsenal School. No demerits.

LENNART G. BLOOMQUIST

"Swede"

He never contrives ill against his neighbors.
—Benjamin Franklin.

"Swede" is a good basketball player, although he has not gone out for any of the school or class teams. He plans to be a salesman. We hope he will be safe from the wiles of women, especially if he joins the many in the traveling group.

Wilson Street School. Boys' Commercial Club 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4. Never late.

BESSIE F. BLUMENTHAL

"Betty"

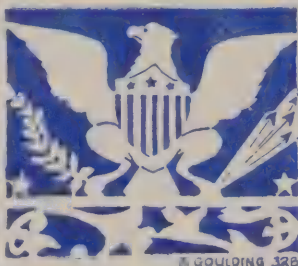

Never put off till tomorrow what you can wear tonight.
—Carolyn Wells.

Bessie keeps a scrap book. It wouldn't be at all surprising if she succeeded that feature on the radio called "Tony's Scrap Book". If she does, she can be sure of a large audience. That she is very smart everybody will agree, since her name often graces the Honor Roll.

Arsenal School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; K. B. L. S. 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3; Girls' Biology Club 3, 4.

Columbia University.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

JENNIE M. BOGDAN

"Jackie"

But we build the ladder by which we rise
From the lowly earth to the vaulted skies,
And we mount to its summit, round by round.

—J. G. Holland.

Jennie takes part in many of the club activities in school. She is also a very good scholar, and it is seldom that we fail to see her name heading the Honor Roll. The part that she took on Lower Senior Night reminds us that she is one of our best athletes.

Johnson High School, North Andover, Massachusetts. Athena 3, 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Student Council Representative 4; National Honor Society 3, 4; "Owllet" Editorial Board 4; Girls' Baseball Team 2, 3; Class Basketball Team 3; Class Track Team 2, 3, 4; received an "H" in Baseball and Basketball 2, 3; Lower Senior Night Program; Graduation Speaker.

Smith.

BEATRICE BOGIN

"Bee"

To have friends, you must be friendly.

—William E. Nickerson.

This comely young lady is a great sport, rarely missing a school game or any other school activity. She is a fun-lover, a fact of which you would be aware if you happened to sit anywhere near her in school. She has gained an unsurpassed proficiency in the art of passing notes without being seen by the teachers.

Northeast School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; German Club 3, 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; "Chronicle-Owllet" Business Board 2, 3, 4.

New Britain Normal School.

VICTOR E. BONANDER

"Bananas"

To lengthen thy life, lessen thy meals.—Benjamin Franklin.

"Vic" eats up mathematics as well as Boys' Club refreshments. When it comes to supporting worthy causes he is "Johnny-on-the-spot". Fun and seriousness combine in giving this young man a pleasing personality; and can he play the trumpet? Just ask the neighbors.

Noah Webster School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 4; Boys' Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; Chess Club 4; A Cappella Choir 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 3, 4; Freshman Glee Club; National Honor Society 4; Boys' Glee Club 3, 4. Secretary 4; Lower Senior Night Program; Class Treasurer. Never absent.

Dartmouth.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

STANLEY T. BORCZYNSKI

"Stan"

My calm was never ruffled—my smile never altered.
—Corinne Roosevelt Robinson.

"Stan" is one of those lucky fellows who isn't bothered by the girl-chasing mania. We suspect the tables are reversed. His humor has made Room 29 one of the bright and happy spots in our school career. Of course some teachers don't appreciate this humor but we do, so who cares?

Wilson Street School. Athletic Association 4. Never late.

CLIFTON P. BOUTELLE

"Cliff"

What a few can hope to rival such as you.—Philip Freneau.

"Cliff" needs no preliminary introduction. He has been outstanding in his class for his ability as Editor-in-Chief of "The Owlet" and "Class Book." Then, too, he became famous over night as an acrobatic contortionist in his wonderful display of swinging and hanging in that remarkable and memorable "Goofy Hunt."

West Middle School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 2, 3, 4, Executive Committee 3; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 3, Secretary 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 2, Executive Committee 2; H. P. H. S. Choir 3, 4; Freshman Glee Club; Boys' Glee Club 2, 3; Junior Orchestra 1; H. P. H. S. Orchestra 2; "Owlet" Editorial Board 2, 3, 4, Editor-in-Chief 4; School Swimming Team 2, 3, 4; received an "H" in Swimming 2, 3, 4; received Class Numerals in Swimming 4; Lower Senior Night Program; Assembly Monitor 3. Never late.

Carnegie Institute of Technology.

ANNA E. E. BRANDT

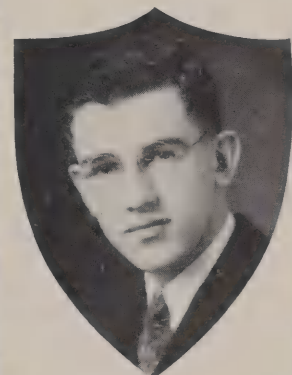

"Anner"

If you have knowledge, let others light their candles at it.
—Margaret Fuller.

Hail to Anna, one of the star basketball players on the senior team. We may add that she is a football player as well, which she proved in the prize-winning Girls' Football Game on Lower Senior Night. She may also be called a star in her studies since her name is rarely absent from the Honor Roll.

Lawrence Street School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Greek Club 2, 3; National Honor Society 4; Girls' Class Basketball Team 4; Lower Senior Night Program; Class Book Art Committee. No demerits.

College.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

ARLINE E. BRAZEL

"Billie"

If eyes were made for seeing,
Then Beauty is its only excuse for being.
—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

For a small person, "Billie" certainly is "all there"; and one doesn't have to be observant to realize that she possesses a double share of that undefinable something called "it". Though she came from Weaver less than a year ago, she knows and is known by everybody here.

Weaver High School. Athena 4; Girls' League 4; Athletic Association 4; Science Club 4, Executive Committee Member 4. No demerits.
College.

KATHRYN M. BRITT

"Kay"

A friend may well be reckoned the masterpiece of Nature.
—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Whether it's cheering lustily at a football game or tripping gracefully about a dance floor, "Kay" is equally at home. We understand that there is an attraction for her in the big city of Worcester. Of course, this doesn't mean that the local boys are not appreciated.

Northeast School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; K. B. L. S. 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4, Chairman of Executive Committee 3, Senior Member of Executive Committee 4; Biology Club 3, 4, Chairman of Executive Committee 3, Secretary 4; National Honor Society 4; Assembly Monitor 4; Class Book Editorial Board; Reception Committee. Never absent, no demerits.

Business College.

BENJAMIN BROMBERG

"Ben"

I do not wish to make any profit from it.
—George Washington.

Biff, bang! And it's another knockout for our notorious boxer, "Ben" Bromberg (or is it Dempsey)? At least this is what we expect "Ben" to do should he ever take up the good old art of "self-defense", and judging from his showing on "Athletic Nite", he would be quite a success.

Arsenal School. Boys' Commercial Club 2; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club 1, 2; School Baseball Team 2; School Basketball Team 2; School Football Team 4; Class Basketball Team 1, 2; Class Football Team 1, 2.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

HOWARD P. BROOKS

"Swede"

A genuine craftsman will not adulterate his product.

—Walter Lippmann.

"Swede" has had one chief ambition since childhood, and that is to be a draftsman. If he keeps on improving until he is a grown man, he may get a job with a mail order house designing collapsible and portable mansions.

Wilson Street School. Tech Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4. Never late.

MARGARET E. BURKE

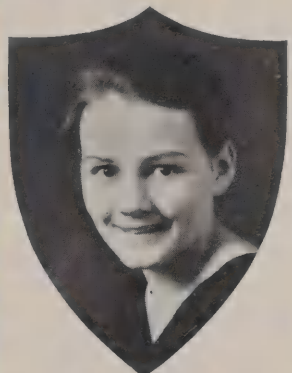

"Burkie"

Maiden! with the meek brown eyes.

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

Margaret has the most enticing dimples and large brown eyes. The next time you meet her just watch for them when she smiles. But that isn't all, for she has scholastic ability as well. During her four years here, she has been on the Honor Roll many times.

Saint Patrick's School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4, Treasurer 3; K. B. L. S. 4, Secretary 4; National Honor Society 4; Athletic Association 3, 4; French Club 4, Secretary 4; Student Council 2, 3, 4; Lower Senior Night Committee; Lower Senior Night Program; Pin and Ring Committee; Class Prophetess.

ANNE K. CACASE

"Skippy"

Happiness is not altogether a matter of luck.

—William Lyon Phelps.

Will wonders never cease? Fancy Anne's being a collector of antiques! All we can say is stranger things may have happened. We often wonder if she would ever get her art done if she didn't have that free period. We understand that Anne plans to do social work.

Northwest School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Mosaic Club 4, Secretary-Treasurer 4, Curator 4; Vesta Club 4; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board 4. Never late.

Culver-Smith Kindergarten Training School.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

JOHN J. CALLAHAN

"Cal"

A man without mirth is like a wagon without springs.
—Henry Ward Beecher.

It's up and over with John. Time and effort have brought their reward and we have a state champion in our midst. However, he has not confined his activities to climbing high in track; his Irish wit and good natured smile have lifted him high in the estimation of his friends and companions.

Saint Peter's School. Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; School Track Team 2, 3, 4; Class Football Team 1; Class Track Team 2, 3; received "H" in Track 3, 4; Lower Senior Night Program; Connecticut Inter-Scholastic Athletic Conference Pole Vault Record 3; H. P. H. S. Pole Vault Record 3. Never late, no demerits.

University of Southern California.

BERNARD R. CARDE

"Bernie"

Virtue itself alone is sufficient to make a man great, glorious and happy.—Benjamin Franklin.

"Bernie" (no relative of Ben) likes to sing in the bathtub. The song he tortures the neighbors with is "On the Road to Mandalay". He also manages to get a number of weird noises out of his trumpet. He never wears his "spats" to school much to the disappointment of his friends, but we think we know the reason why.

Lawrence Street School. Boys' Commercial Club 3, 4, Junior Member of Executive Committee 3; Athletic Association 1, 4. Never late, no demerits.

LUCIUS C. CARTER, JR.

"Luscious"

His hand was armed with skill.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

When he isn't poring over his American Democracy, Lucius is usually planning big things for the Boys' Club. He was one of the most efficient Secretary-Treasurers the club has ever had and we don't blame the fellows for electing such a fine chap to office.

Arsenal School. Boys' Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary-Treasurer 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; School Track Team 3; Class Basketball Team 1, 2, 3; Class Football Team 1, 2, Captain 1; Class Track Team 1, 2, 3; Posture Prize.

Springfield College.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

PAUL J. CASSARINO

"Katz"

Afoot and light-hearted I take to the open road.
—Walt Whitman.

The underworld seems to be calling "Marshall" Cassarino, for we hear that if the depression isn't over soon, he "will join a bootlegger's gang and boss the East Side". In the event that his liquor enterprises fail, he should be quite a success in the political field.

Brown School. Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; Junior Orchestra 1, 2; School Football Team 3; Class Basketball Team 2; Class Track Team 1, 2.

MARY P. CERMOLA

"Phyll"

True friendship is a plant of slow growth.
—George Washington.

This future secretary will find tennis a fine recreation after she has struggled all day trying to transcribe. Perhaps when she becomes as good at tennis as Helen Wills, she will no longer be dependent on pounding the keys of a typewriter.

Saint Patrick's School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 4; German Club 1, 2.

CLAIRE M. CHAPMAN

"Nancy"

I take mine ease today.—John Greenleaf Whittier.

Claire is a girl whom nothing ever seems to bother. She is a great dreamer in the French class. Ask her about some of the interesting episodes which have resulted from this habit. Her large eyes possess a bewitching power which she uses to great advantage.

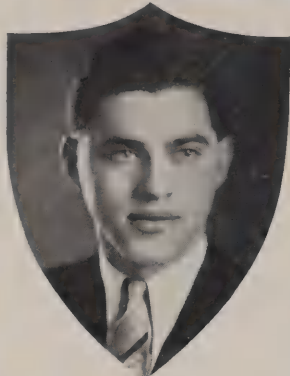

West Middle School. Athena 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Science Club 4, Secretary 4.

Saint Francis Hospital Training School.

A GOULDING 325

1932 B CLASS BOOK

HAROLD CHEFFEITZ

"Har"

Wit is a happy and striking way of expressing a thought.
—William Penn.

Harold intends to be a gymnasium instructor. Perhaps some day he will hold that position here; who knows? We feel sure that, if that happens, H. P. H. S. will never have to worry about a game with such an insignificant rival as New Britain.

Arsenal School. Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 1; Boys' Biology Club 1, 2; H. P. H. S. Choir 2; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board 2; School Football Team 2, 3; School Track Team 3, 4; Class Football Team 1, 3; Class Track Team 3, 4.

Columbia University.

LOUISE CLARKE

"Lou"

You square to reason's rigid rule.—John Greenleaf Whittier.

This girl ought not to worry about her Democracy difficulties since she is going to work in an office as someone's secretary. Although Louise says she has not traveled far, she must see many places through the medium of her books.

New Park Avenue School. Girls' League 4. Never late.

HARRIET L. CLINTON

"Harry"

I have endeavored to remember that the object of life is to make good.—Peter Cooper.

We never realized that this lovely little lady could ever become a football player. Nevertheless, it is true, for she exhibited her talents in that line on Lower Senior Night. She is also very clever in her studies, and has been on the Honor Roll a number of times.

Rocky Hill Grammar School. Athena 4, Vice-President 4, Treasurer 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Girls' Biology Club 4, Vice-President 4; National Honor Society 4; Lower Senior Night Program; Class Motto Committee.

Normal School.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

NETTIE J. CODRARO

"Ned"

Nothing that you expect ever happens.—E. W. Howe.

We expect to find Nettie teaching Home Economics some day at H. P. H. S. In her accomplishments along that line she is without a rival. Some of the stunning dresses that she wears are examples of her skill. When she smiles, she would be a good advertisement for Pepsodent.

Northeast School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Vesta Club 4, Secretary 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 4. Never late.

JOSEPH J. COFFEY

"Budd"

This is he, who, felled by foes,
Sprung harmless up, refreshed by blows.

—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

This bone crushing he-man is a mighty likeable chap. He tackles everything that comes along in a "big" way, which contributes to his outstanding football successes. It's too bad the hockey team didn't materialize, for we should have liked to see "Joe" as goalie. His favorite study is English; ask him about it sometime.

Saint Bonaventure Preparatory School. Boys' Club 2, 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3; Boys' Biology Club 3; Student Council 1; School Baseball Team 1; School Football Team 1, 2, 3, 4; received "H" in Football 2, 3, 4; Winner of White Athletic Sweater; All State Tackle 3, 4; School Track Team 3, 4; received "H" in Track 3, 4; Class Basketball Team 2; Class Track Team 1, 2; received "H" in Hockey 3; Lower Senior Night Program.

Tulane.

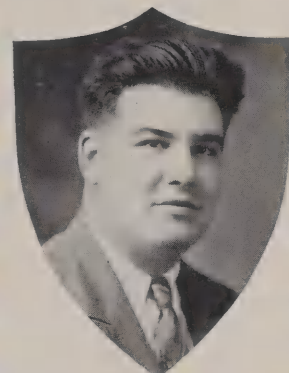

BEATRICE R. COHEN

"Bee"

Every action is measured by the depth of the sentiment from which it proceeds.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

"Bee" is one of the very valuable members of the Inter-High Orchestra since she is another of our gifted violinists. Her business-like way of handling Class Book affairs leaves little doubt concerning her future success.

West Middle School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4, President 4; K. B. L. S. 3, 4; National Honor Society 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Junior Orchestra 1, 2; H. P. H. S. Orchestra 2, 3, 4; Inter-High Orchestra 2, 3, 4; "Owlet" Editorial Board 3, 4, News Editor 3; Class Book Business Board; Class Color Committee; Class Song Writer. Never late.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

CLARA E. COHEN

An enlightened mind is not hood-winked.
—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

Hardly a day passes that one does not hear Clara sigh, "I didn't do a bit of homework last night." Strange to say, however, even with this lack of preparation she always manages to make the Honor Roll. It is evident from her low and cultured voice that she has taken elocution.

Northwest School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; K. B. L. S. 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; National Honor Society 3, 4; "Chronicle" Editorial Board 3, 4; Nellie G. Nelson English Prize 2; Graduation Speaker.

WILLIAM A. COMSTOCK

"Bill"

My business is to pay the bills and keep in a good humor.
—Nixon Waterman.

"Bill" hails from New Britain and was once a staunch supporter of the Maroon and Gold. Now he has changed his policy which, according to his own words, is for the best. "Bill's" curly blond hair and pleasant smile have gained him many friends.

New Britain High School. Athletic Association 3, 4; School Track Team 4.

MARY A. COONEY

"Sis"

Shall a girl's capricious frown
Sink my noble spirits down?
—Francis Hopkinson.

If you ever hear a hilarious laugh anywhere—even in a study class—you may be sure to find Mary not far away. This sense of humor of hers is one of the reasons why she has so many friends. We also understand that she enjoys dances very much.

Arsenal School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Mosaic Club 3, 4; Vesta Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4. Never late.

Hartford Hospital Training School.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

MARY M. COSGROVE

"Cossie"

Heigh-ho, but the years go by!—Eugene Field.

Goldie Locks has a rival in Mary. When she came here as a freshman, her red-gold curls were the envy of many. They had a habit of bobbing up and down when she talked but now they are wound in a tight knot. When in grammar school Mary competed for the city spelling championship.

Saint Patrick's School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; K. B. L. S. 4; Lower Senior Night Program; Class Motto Committee.

ROBERT E. CROFT

"Bob"

God helps them that help themselves.—Benjamin Franklin.

"Bob" seems to be naturally destructive around the school. At shopwork we know of his tendency to meddle with machinery. When he does this the machines usually refuse to run. He has disrupted many a class with his witty remarks which the teachers didn't seem to hear.

Wilson Street School. Tech Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Science Club 1, 3; Mosaic Club 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club 2. Never late, never absent.

Yale.

MARGARET E. CURTIN

"Peg"

Love has a tide!—Helen Hunt.

"Peg" ought to make a good private secretary for some busy man. She says that her hobby is ice skating, but we wonder if it isn't watching the school football games. We understand that there is a reason why she never misses a game.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 2, 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4. Never late.

Bay Path Institute.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

MARGARET K. CURTIN

"Margy"

Shall I waste my time in sorrow?—Francis Hopkinson.

Margaret's sense of humor is devastating. She finds something to laugh about in everything she sees or does, even when she's getting demerits. Her clothes are the last word in style, in fact, she is usually one step ahead of the fashions.

Saint Patrick's School. Girls' League 2, 3; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Vesta Club 3, 4. Never late.

ROSE A. CURTIN

Manners are the happy ways of doing things.

—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

The grace of this girl has been developed on the tennis court and is shown to great advantage on a dance floor. We hope she will overcome her difficulties in Shorthand since she wants to be a stenographer.

Immaculate Conception School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4. Never late.

Bay Path Institute.

D. NICHOLAS D'ABATE

"Nick"

Go then, sad youth, and shine.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Nicholas collects Indian head pennies for a hobby. We wish we knew where he keeps them, for a good hoard of pennies is not to be sneered at, especially during this time of depression. It seems that "Nick" has been very successful also in collecting demerits from some of his teachers.

New Park Avenue School.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

LAWRENCE J. DALY

"Larry"

And his will is not thwarted.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Here is our able football manager under whose efficient supervision we trounced New Britain. Then too, we like him because of his pleasing personality and cheery smile. You know, somebody asked us if the "37" on his sweater stands for the year he expects to graduate.

Arsenal School. Boys' Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Football Team 1, 2; Football Manager 4; received an "H" in Football 4.

Bentley School of Accounting and Finance.

MAURICE J. DAVIS

"Red"

God gives all things to industry.—Benjamin Franklin.

Contrary to the rule that all red-headed people have fiery temperaments, this gentleman has a calm and self-possessed nature. He is a good student, but his chief interest seems to lie in sports; in fact, he has been the very able manager of our successful track team.

Chicopee High School, Chicopee, Massachusetts. Athletic Association 3, 4; received Class Numerals in Track 2, 3; Track Manager 4. No demerits.

SALVATORE DE GREGORIO

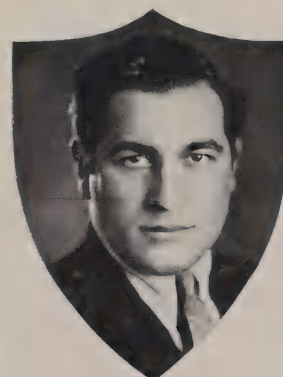

"Professor"

All true ambition and aspiration are without comparisons.

—Henry Ward Beecher.

We suppose that this boy would like to give some of his "favorite" teachers an unpleasant sensation from the electrical contrivances which afford him so much amusement. Maybe his interest in commercial studies will be an asset to him when he follows in his father's footsteps as a contractor.

Newington Home School. Never late.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

MARY G. DELVECCHIO

"Shrimp"

Go thou to thy learned task.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

If you ever want your fortune told, see Mary for she foretells the future with the aid of her magic cards. No matter what time of day or night, Mary is always willing and glad to do a favor for a friend.

New Park Avenue School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Vesta Club 3, 4; "Chronicle" Editorial Board 3, 4; Lower Senior Night Program.

SALVATORE J. DE RAGO

"Sal"

A silent, shy, peace-loving man.—John Greenleaf Whittier.

When "Sal" switched to Broad Street in our early years at H. P. H. S. some of us in Hopkins thought we had lost a good friend and we were mighty glad when he showed up in Room 30. With his cheery smile and greeting we recognize "old man sunshine" personified in "Sal."

Saint Joseph's Cathedral School. Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4. Never late.

HARRY DEROHANIAN

Live your own life.—John Hay.

Harry has deep brown eyes which are the envy of many girls in the school. He plays on the piano and on the typewriter with exactly the same rhythm. There is but one thing he does that doesn't become a senior, and that's walking home with freshmen of the opposite sex.

Lawrence Street School.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

DAVID A. DEVINE

"Dave"

With patient purpose undismayed he stood.
—Corinne Roosevelt Robinson.

"Dave" delights in knocking the "pill" around, and he has his own golf course on the State Armory grounds. We have heard him claim that he is a boxer, but we doubt it. His peach and ivory complexion is the envy of many girls.

Saint Joseph's School. Athletic Association 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4, Vice-President 4.
Georgia Technical Institute.

JEREMIAH A. DI BENEDETTO

"Jerry"

His cheeks mantle with mirth.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

"Jerry" is another one of our students who isn't over fond of the faculty. He spends his spare time in cutting out pictures and advertisements for the salesmanship class. No doubt, he finds this a diverting pastime.

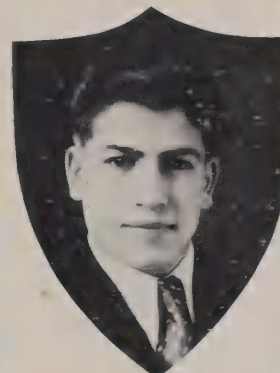

Lawrence Street School.

FRANK DIELI

He seemed no fiery partisan.—John Greenleaf Whittier.

Frank has shown the fellows in the Tech Club how he can drive a car. On the outing last fall, he almost killed half of them. Everything ended up well, though, and all Frank lost was the front bumper of his car. Let's hope he always has his luck with him.

Brown School. Tech Club 3, Member of Executive Committee 3; Athletic Association 4. Never late.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

EDMUND D. DONOVAN

"Eddie"

When Duty whispers low Thou must, The youth replies,
I can.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Give "Eddie" a pool of water and a diving board and he is right at home, for he is a diver of no mean ability. We might say, give him a book for the way he can throw them around. He shows the three years of experience he has had while working with the "Bookroom Boys."

Saint Peter's School. Boys' Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Greek Club 2, 3, 4; School Swimming Team 2, 3. Never late.

Trinity College.

HELEN F. DOOLEY

Courage and perseverance have a magical talisman.
—John Quincy Adams.

This happy-go-lucky girl is an all around good sport. She excels in skating, dances beautifully, sings well, and is a good tennis player. Helen doesn't like to have her blond hair nor her popularity with boys spoken of—but then, that goes without saying.

New Park Avenue School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4, Vice-President 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 4; Freshman Glee Club; Lower Senior Night Program; Class Book Typist. No demerits.

MICHAEL DROPIOK

"Mickey"

All grace, all good his great heart knows.
—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

"Mike" would like to be a wrestler. He will guarantee to build you from a ninety-seven-pound weakling, into a mass of muscles in ninety days, no more, no less. (This is not an advertisement.) He is a good dancer, even though his partners grow dizzy from twirling.

Richard J. Kinsella School. Athletic Association 1, 2; School Track Team 1, 2; Class Track Team 4. Never late, never absent.

Springfield College.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

NORRIS T. DRUMMOND

"Scotty"

Too busy with the crowded hour to fear to live or die.
—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

"Scotty" is our "man-about-town." At every dance he appears in full regalia ready to have a good time. Now and then we hear his name in connection with that of a certain young lady. He is always lots of fun and people delight in his company.

Chauncey Harris School. Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Football Manager 3; received an "H" in Football 3.

University of Alabama.

MARY M. DUBICKA

"Merts"

Honor lies in honest toil.—Grover Cleveland.

Mary has so many interests that we doubt if she knows what she wants to do after graduation. The sciences appeal to her so much that we shouldn't be surprised to hear that she had become an author of books dealing with scientific subjects.

Saints Cyril and Methodius School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; National Honor Society 4; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board 4; Class Book Typist 4. Never late.

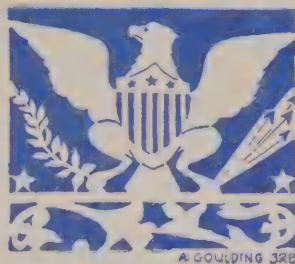

HAROLD W. DUENNEBIER

Born for success, he seemed.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Our great German student also has a propensity for studying other foolish subjects. Although timid at times, this rather studious young gentleman is often guilty of wearing bright-colored cravats. We wish he would be as lively around school as he is in his own back-yard.

New Park Avenue School. Boys' Club 4; German Club 2, 3, 4, President 4; National Honor Society 3, 4. Never late, no demerits.

Trinity College.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

JOSEPH H. DULLY

"Doo Dad"

A greater spirit bids thee forth.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

"Joe" likes to wear old clothes whenever he can. Let's hope he doesn't become an "old-clothes man" when he gets older. His books usually lie neglected in his desk. By this time, he should own a half-interest in the school.

Saint Thomas Seminary. Boys' Club 2; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 2; Boys' Biology Club 2. Holy Cross College.

LESTER L. EGAN

"Les"

Thy genius commands thee.—Timothy Dwight.

"Les" is a person of magnetic personality, evidenced by the groups of maidens who cluster about him in the corridors. In spite of his admirable performance Lower Senior Night we can't see "Les" as a "hen-pecked" husband. Can you?

Washington Street School. Hopkins Debating Club 2, 3, 4, Senior Member of Executive Committee 4; Boys' Club 2, 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; "Owlet" Editorial Board 3, 4; Lower Senior Night Program; Manager of Hockey Team 4.

Trinity College.

ROBERT D. ENTENBERG

"Bob"

He knows he is master of his own destiny.

—Ada Patterson.

There are some fellows whom you just can't hold down. "Bob" is one of these and there's no telling what he would be if he were given time. Although he is usually rushing about with his hands full of papers, he finds time enough to drop into the Hopkins Debating Club meetings and sweep them off their feet by his arguments.

Arsenal School. Hopkins Debating Club 3, 4, Member of Executive Committee 3, Vice-President 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Junior Orchestra 1, 2, 3; "Owlet" Editorial Board 2, 3, 4, Editor-in-Chief 4; Lower Senior Night Program; Class Book Business Manager. Never late.

New York University.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

EVERETT F. ERICSON

"Freddy"

Let any man speak long enough, he will get believers.

—Robert L. Stevenson.

What were you doing on the night of—? Yes, it's detective Ericson, the well-known H. P. H. S. sleuth. There is no stopping his wit and humor, though some teachers are rather unappreciative. He seems to get a lot of fun out of high school and now and then, we suppose, he "opens a book."

Bulkeley High School. Boys' Club 2; Athletic Association 1, 2; Senior Dramatic Club Stage Manager 4.
College.

MARY E. FAZIOLI

"Midge"

A living gale is better than a dead calm.—Carolyn Wells.

Mary has been a staunch supporter of all sports, especially baseball in which she won her sweater. She can throw a baseball like a "big leaguer." In order to continue with this sport, she should induce "Connie" Mack to employ her as his secretary.

Immaculate Conception School. Athena 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; Girls' Baseball Team 1, 2, 3; received an "H" in Baseball; received Sweater in Baseball 1.

HARRY FELDMAN

What triumphs shall be yours!—Alonzo B. Bragdon.

When it comes to French, Harry may not be so wonderful, but then, there are other things that are a snap for him. For instance, he seemed to be in his element taking part in the mock trial on Lower Senior Night. Incidentally, we might say that he would make a fine lawyer.

Arsenal School. Athletic Association 4; Mosaic Club 3.
Connecticut College of Pharmacy.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

MERRILL S. FICHMAN

He is no churl nor trifler.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Merrill is one of our popular musicians who can play almost anything on the saxophone. For this reason he is a great asset to the Inter-High Orchestra. He is also quite attractive because of that wavy hair and beaming smile.

Northeast School. Hopkins Debating Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Junior Orchestra 1; H. P. H. S. Orchestra 2, 3, 4; Inter-High Orchestra 2, 3, 4.

J. DONALD FLANNERY

"Don"

To be great is to be misunderstood.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

To "Don", high school has been just "one thing after another." He has told us that he likes Chemistry, but we don't believe him, although we know that he delights in fooling around in the "lab." His fondness for cider was discovered on the recent Tech Club outings.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Tech Club 2, 3, 4, Chairman of Executive Committee 3, 4; Science Club 3, 4.

CHARLOTTE H. FLICKINGER

"Charlie"

I am the Muse that smiles.—Corinne Roosevelt Robinson.

We wonder if this girl who wants to become a singing teacher will go out West again and try to train the voices of the romantic cowboys. If Charlotte's musical ability is equal to her dancing, we predict a bright future for her.

West Hartford High School. Girls' League 3, 4.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

MARY E. FOLETTE

"Chickie"

I laugh, for hope hath happy place with me.

—William Ellery Channing.

"Chic" suits her better than Mary. She possesses those qualities which make her both interesting and understanding. Some would add that she is disconcerting, but it isn't her fault if she can make a boy stutter.

Saint Patrick's School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board 4. New Britain Normal School.

JOHN E. FOLEY

"Ed"

We have met the enemy and they are ours.

—Commander Perry.

John's greatest ambition and desire was to beat New Britain. Now that it is accomplished he is at peace with the world, and justly so because he made a fine showing in that game. John has a unique way of greeting the ladies. Watch the next time you see him, and you will agree with us.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; School Football Team 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Football Team 1, 2; received "H" in Football 3, 4. Never late, no demerits. Notre Dame.

ELEANOR R. FOURNIER

"Jimmy"

All I ask: the heaven above and the road below me.

—Robert L. Stevenson.

Eleanor is different, because she adores gymnasium. Perhaps that is why she has decided to become a Director of Physical Education. During her Sophomore year, she was the star on her class team and she also won her sweater.

Saint Ann's School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Track Team 2, 3, 4; Girls' Baseball Team 2, 3, 4; received an "H" in Baseball 2; received Sweater in Baseball 2; Lower Senior Night Program.

Bay Path Institute.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

SARAH L. FREEDMAN

"Shirley"

Eager for good, not hating ill.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

A class is never dull when Sarah is in it. Her hearty laughter and humorous tales keep one in gales of merriment, especially in a certain American Democracy class. It is hard to believe the tales we hear when we observe her only as a dignified young lady.

Arsenal School. Athena 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; German Club 2, 3; Vesta Club 4; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board 4. Never late.

Bay Path Institute.

DOROTHY E. FRENCH

"Dot"

I know a maiden fair to see.

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

We should have a shoe repairer in school for some of the girls who like to lose the heels from their slippers. "Dot" is planning to be a dietician. Well, if she ever prepares the food for us we expect to grow hale and hearty.

New Park Avenue School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Vesta Club 3, 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4. Never late.

JOSEPH Y. FRIEDMAN

"Joe"

Is not every man sometimes a radical in politics?

—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Ladies and gentlemen, meet Russia's new ambassador. He's no relation to Stalin, however, even if he does shoot off firecrackers. And he's fair and square with everybody until he starts talking. Then you want to run, for his arguments are very convincing.

Northwest School. Hopkins Debating Club 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club 4.

New York University.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

ANDREW W. FURDGE

"Booster"

I have tried to do good in this world.—J. Pierpont Morgan.

"Andy" is a happy-go-lucky fellow who, although he doesn't occupy the headlines very often, has a great many friends here at Hartford High. Although he is not very active in most sports, he likes to play baseball.

Henry Barnard School. Boys' Club 4; Tech Club 2; Athletic Association 1, 2; Science Club 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2.

ROBERT T. GAGNON

"Bob"

Go forth, under the open sky, and list to Nature's teachings.
—William Cullen Bryant.

"Bob" is our future surgeon who has already had plenty of experience with cats. But he's a good scout even if he is too fond of overnight hikes and solitude. If he didn't hold himself so aloof, we might hear more of this bright scientist.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Boys' Biology Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary-Treasurer 3, 4, President 4; Graduation Speaker. Trinity College.

JOHN E. GALLIVAN

"Jack"

It is by presence of mind in untried emergencies that the native metal of a man is tested.

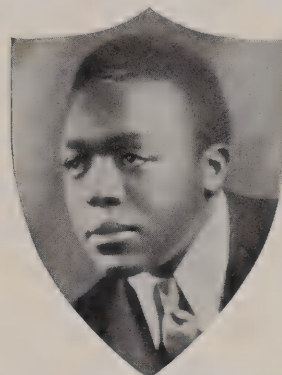

—James Russell Lowell.

We take our hats off to "Jack". He has held the captaincy of both the football and baseball teams. Whether in school or on the field he attracts the attention of all, especially of the fairer sex. Besides being an all-around athlete, he proved at the Football Rally that he could hold his own in speech making.

Immaculate Conception School. Boys' Club 2; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4, President 4; School Baseball Team 2, 3, 4; School Football Team 2, 3, 4, Captain 4; received an "H" in Baseball and Football 2, 3, 4; Chairman Class Night Program; Pin and Ring Committee.

A GOULDING 328

1932 B CLASS BOOK

THOMAS P. GEOGHEGAN

"Tommy"

Fortune was his guard and lover.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

"Tommy" likes to stroll along the corridors at recess with members of the opposite sex. He must be used to them by now. It seems that he was the only boy in one of the Shorthand classes, yet he passed the subject.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Athletic Association 1; Boys' Biology Club 3, 4, Publicity Manager 4; National Honor Society 4; "Owlet" Editorial Board 3; Junior Usher; Class Testator.

JOHN A. GILL

"Johnnie"

Hitch your wagon to a star.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

John is a "long drink of water." We doubt if he is as reserved out of school as he is in school. Although he moves about quietly, he seems to accomplish much more than some of the livelier members of the class. His complexion is the envy of all the girls in Room 30. Does he use Palmolive?

Richard J. Kinsella School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 3; Boys' Biology Club 3, 4, Secretary-Treasurer 4, President 4; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board. Never late, never absent.

MARTIN A. GILMAN

"Gil"

Still achieving, still pursuing.

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

Beneath Martin's studious exterior is a vein of humor which often bursts, creating pools of fun and merriment. He's a great scientist, and his ability as a leader was clearly shown in his peppy management of the Science Club. Then, too, he's a printer and musician, a sort of Jack-of-all-trades, and he's good at all of them.

New Park Avenue School. Boys' Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Athletic Association 4; Science Club 3, 4, Junior Member of Executive Committee 3, President 4, Vice-President 4; Student Council 1; National Honor Society 3, 4, Secretary 4; Three First Scholarship Prizes 3, 4; Three Faculty Book Prizes 3; Harvard Book Prize 3; Head Junior Usher and Marshal; Junior Reception Usher; Pin and Ring Committee; Class Book Editorial Board; Valedictorian. Never late, never absent, no demerits.

Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

FRANCES A. GINEO

"Ginger"

The longer I live the more my mind dwells upon the beauty and the wonder of the world.—John Burroughs.

This girl is able to juggle tennis balls as well as figures. The books of some lucky company will always be accurate when she takes up that work after graduation. We hope she doesn't get her tennis nets mixed with her net profits.

Brown School. Girls' League 3, 4; Athletic Association 1.

MAURICE GINSBERG

"Ginsey"

Our hearts, our hopes, are all with thee.

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

This young man, although rather short in stature, doesn't allow many to walk over him when it comes to debating. Maurice also has a knack for making friends, especially when he hasn't done his Latin.

Northeast School. Hopkins Debating Club 4.

New York University.

GEORGE J. GIRAITIS

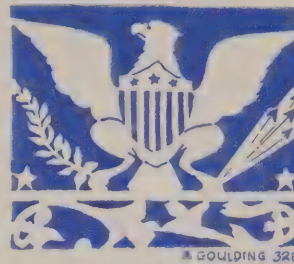

"Stretch"

Don't foul and don't shirk, but hit the line hard.

—Theodore Roosevelt.

George is one of Hartford High's best basketball men and can he play! You see, he is so tall that he just reaches up and puts the ball through the hoop. That is probably why they made him the center and captain of our quintet. Since he seldom knows what he is doing, we suspect him of being in love.

Northwest School. Athletic Association 1, 2; Student Council 1; School Basketball Team 1, 2, 3, 4, Captain 4; received an "H" in Basketball 2, 3, 4. Never late.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

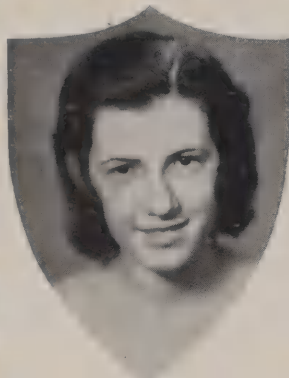

EVELYN A. GLANZ

"Tillie"

Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm.
—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

"Tillie" is one of the well known Glanz twins. We hope her "high" ambition of being an aviatrix will culminate in a successful trip across the Atlantic. She is always bubbling over with mirth, which often results tragically because she is greatly misunderstood by the members of the faculty.

West Middle School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4. Never late.
Syracuse University.

ROSALYN P. GLANZ

"Roz"

Art is power.—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

Here's the other of that gay little set of twins. Her ambition to become an artist may lead to a career of painting scenes observed from her sister's plane high above the earth. Although not quite so talkative as "Tillie", Rosalyn has her moments, especially when she and her double get together.

West Middle School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4. Never late.
Syracuse University.

CONSTANCE GLAZIER

"Connie"

Be courteous to all, but intimate with few.
—George Washington.

Constance came to Hartford High from Winsted in her lower senior semester. If her pleasant personality is characteristic of everyone in her former school, we should like to have that whole school in our enrollment. Constance has studied interior decorating and would like to follow this work after graduation.

Gilbert School, Winsted. Girls' League 4. No demerits.
Smith.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

LEATRICE GLAZIER

"Lee"

Only by giving can you gain the more!

—Corinne Roosevelt Robinson.

Leatrice says that she wants to become a bookkeeper. If she does become one, we hope that she will have short hours so that she can often play her favorite game of tennis. From present reports, we expect some day to read that she has beaten Helen Wills.

Arsenal School. Girls' League 2, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2; Vesta Club 4; Girls' Basketball Team 2; Girls' Tennis Team 2. Never late.

HENRY J. GODLEWSKI

"Pop"

The law: It has honored us; may we honor it.

—Daniel Webster.

"Pop" must have had a great deal of money if he went to the "movies" every day he was absent from school. He tried out for the football team one year, but it was too much work for him. He is an ardent admirer of the opposite sex.

Chauncey Harris School. Boys' Commercial Club 4; Tech Club 4; Athletic Association 4; received Carter Penmanship Prize.

RICHARD X. GOGGIN

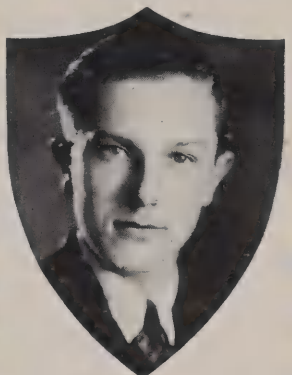

"Dick"

The pen is the tongue of the hand; a silent utterer of words for the eye.—Henry Ward Beecher.

Bang! Crash! Yes, it's "Dick." Where there's noise there's Goggin, and where there's Goggin there's fun. Poet laureate of H. P. H. S. and actor par excellence of the Dramatic Club; what more could one expect of this modern representative of flaming youth? Yet there is a great deal more. Now and then "Dick" finds time to squeeze in a little homework.

Boston Latin School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4, Business Manager of "Baa, Baa Black Sheep" 3; Greek Club 2; Chess Club 4; "Chronicle" Editorial Board 3, 4, Associate Editor 3; Lower Senior Night Program; Class Book Feature Writer; Class Prophet; Class Poet.

Harvard.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

C. SELMA GORENBERG

"Chinky"

Go, sacrifice to Fame.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Whenever bookkeeping is mentioned, Selma's eyes sparkle and she becomes all ears. Her teachers encourage her to take this work up when she leaves high school. We know she will make a success of it, since she has never received lower than an "A" in bookkeeping.

Arsenal School. Girls' League 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board 3. Never late.

ALICE E. GOULDING

"Deedy"

With malice towards none, with charity for all.

—Abraham Lincoln.

Alice is a versatile girl, for she does good work in her studies as well as in art and the drawing of posters. On committees she is one of the most dependable girls we have. She also demonstrated her ability in Lower Senior Night as one of the prize-winning football stars.

South High School, Worcester, Massachusetts. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; K. B. L. S. 3, 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; National Honor Society 4; Girls' Baseball Team 3; Girls' Basketball Team 2, 3, 4; received Sweater in Basketball 4; received an "H" in Baseball 4; received an "H" in Basketball 2, 3; Lower Senior Night Program; Art Committee of Class Book. Never late, no demerits.

Katherine Gibbs Secretarial School.

THOMAS D. GRADY

"Tom"

Wealth is largely a result of habit.—John Jacob Astor.

"My ambition is to make a half a million. Ambition killed Caesar, so I am trying for half of what I want." This quotation, by none other than "Tom" Grady himself, is certainly the right spirit and we hope, when it comes true, that he'll remember the class of '32B.

Northwest School. Boys' Club 2, 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board 2, 3.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

LESTER R. GRAVEL

"Les"

I'd rather be dead than sober.—Daniel Webster.

"Les" seems to be the greatest authority in our class on modern slang. In fact, as a Junior he wrote an excellent theme on the subject. From all appearances "Les" seems to think the curfew rings at 8.30 a. m.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Boys' Club 2; Boys' Commercial Club 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Glee Club. Never late.

Pennsylvania State University.

GRACE C. GRAVERSEN

Right upward on the road of fame.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Grace is a girl who always has a ready smile for everyone. Since she is going to become a teacher we envy the pupils who will be in her classes. Some of us may even be tempted to go back to school again.

Lawrence Street School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; German Club 2, 3, 4. Never late.

Normal School.

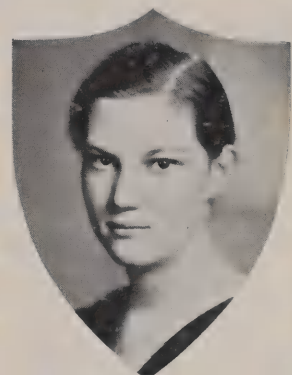

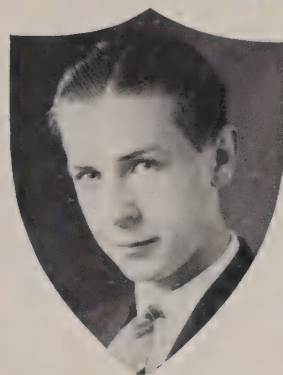

THOMAS A. GRIFFIN

"Tom"

A work of real merit finds favor at last.—A. Bronson Alcott.

"Tom" possesses a wealth of that red hair that is admired so much, and it's curly! We wonder what he thinks about when he ambles down the hall with that preoccupied air. He is not always serious, however, for we well recall many of his humorous outbursts.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 3; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; Sketch Club 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 4, Treasurer 4; Art Committee of Class Book.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

EDNA G. HALL

"Teddy"

Earth's noblest thing, a Woman perfected.

—James Russell Lowell.

Edna is a good sport, for she is always willing to try anything once. Judging from her marks she must have tried studying. For the sake of that friendship with a certain lower classman it's too bad Edna's marks warrant a June graduation.

Noah Webster School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Greek Club 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Freshman Glee Club. Never late.

Colby College.

REGINA E. HALLISSEY

"Winnie"

To thine own self be true.—Holliday.

Girls will always covet curls. Regina plans to be a hairdresser, so Hartford High girls will know where to go in the future for beautification. We won't always find her in the beauty parlor, though, for her favorite sport is golf.

Saint Peter's School. Vesta Club 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3.

FRANCIS M. HANNIFIN

"Fran"

Let our object be our country, our whole country, and nothing but our country.—Daniel Webster.

"Fran" is lots of fun at a party. He can always get a laugh out of the simplest joke. His unfailing good humor and pleasing grin have won him many friends. The girls like him especially, because he is a "divine dancer."

Saint Thomas Seminary. Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

FLORENCE M. HANNON

"Flo"

Our manner betrays our personality.—Charles R. Gow.

"Flo" is a typical Irish Colleen, for who can miss that mischievous twinkle in her blue eyes? She has a giggle which is contagious, especially in a classroom. We hope that her future boss will have a sense of humor, because if he has he will, without a doubt, derive some pleasure even during a strenuous day matching his wit with hers.

Immaculate Conception School. Girls' League 2, 3; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4.

JOHN E. HAYES

He is about as reserved and silent as Niagara.

—Corinne Roosevelt Robinson.

This young "Beau Brummel" hates teachers, likes girls, and even whistles in class. As for chewing gum, he has the record, and the strange part is that he rarely gets caught. We hope the tremendous clatter he makes with his feet will not be imitated by the lower classmen.

St. Joseph's Cathedral School. Boys' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Class Motto Committee. Never late.

ALICE V. HENSON

"Al"

The impossible shall yet be done.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Alice said that her greatest trouble in high school was bumping into people, and a little later said that her favorite hobby was skating. We would suggest that she wear skates while passing down the halls. Her willingness to help others is one of her outstanding attributes.

Immaculate Conception School. Athena 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

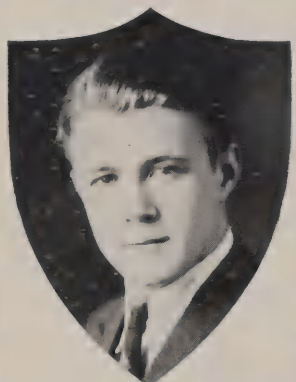

FRANK L. HERTEL

He was not a man to be thwarted.—Washington Irving.

We should not be surprised to see Frank taking over the reins from the hands of some great radio expert or scientist in the near future. Frank will never forget the day when a certain teacher made him stand and recite for a full period. But, we all have embarrassing moments, don't we "Pal"?

Lawrence Street School. Hopkins Debating Club 4; Science Club 4.
Brown.

B. FRANCIS HIGGINS

"Hig"

The whole tenor of his life was quiet and inoffensive.
—Washington Irving.

"Hig" is always a gentleman. He seems rather bashful when the girls are around, but he really isn't. In his classes he is far from bashful. He can get up and give a faultless recitation in almost any subject.

Saint Patrick's School. Boys' Club 2; Athletic Association 1, 2, 4; Freshman Glee Club; Class Basketball Team 1; Class Track Team 1. Never late.

Pennsylvania State University.

RUTH V. HJALMEIER

"Tory"

Though Love be deeper, Friendship is more wide.
—Corinne Roosevelt Robinson.

What do you think of a girl who falls down the stairs and lands on a teacher? This is just what Ruth did, but fortunately the pedagogue was a good-natured one. On Lower Senior Night she proved that she is adept at singing and playing the piano.

Lawrence Street School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Vesta Club 3, 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2; Lower Senior Night Program.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

EDITH A. HOLT

"Edie"

Literature is a noble calling.—Horace Greeley.

Here is a genuine "sun-kissed" beauty, for Edith hails from sunny California. In her three years here she has become a very popular young lady. The success of the "Chronicle" this year is largely due to her clever articles and her great executive ability.

Monrovia High School, Monrovia, California. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; K. B. L. S. 3, 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Science Club 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3; Girls' Biology Club 3; National Honor Society 3, 4; "Chronicle" Editorial Board 3, 4, Editor-in-Chief 4; Class Book Business Board; Class Essayist.

MILDRED A. HOOPER

"Mil"

Blessed are they who have the gift of making friends.
—Thomas Hughes.

Since skating appeals to Mildred, we suppose that she must have enjoyed that winter sport while traveling in the Northern States. She wants to be a stenographer, and we wonder if it is because of the resemblance between the click of the keys and the clinking of the skates.

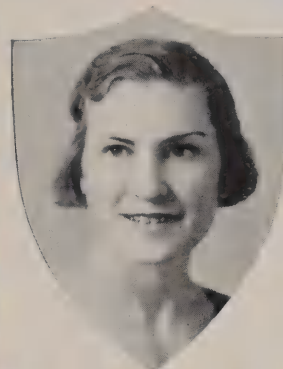

Henry Barnard School. Girls' League 2, 3; Girls' Commercial Club 3; Vesta Club 3, 4. Never late.

WINIFRED M. HOYE

You have confidence in yourself, which is a valuable quality.—Abraham Lincoln.

"Winnie" is a quiet but very jolly girl. She has won many friends not only among the students but among the faculty, and we all envy her in this respect. No doubt, her personality has something to do with her popularity.

Northeast School. Girls' League 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 4; Mosaic Club 3, 4; Vesta Club 4.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

JAMES J. J. HUGHES

"Jimmy"

He was such a merry fellow
As he sang his roundelay.

—Corinne Roosevelt Robinson.

"Jimmie" is one of our promising "Rudys" according to reports from the Glee Club and the A Cappella Choir. He also loves to adorn himself with those little "puppy blankets" that all big business men wear. His knowledge of Spanish phrases often comes in quite handy much to the delight of others.

Saint Patrick's School. Boys' Club 2; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 3. No demerits.

College.

JACOB C. HUREWITZ

"Jack"

The possession of great powers no doubt carries with it a contempt for mere external show.—James Garfield.

"Jack" is the handsome "sheik" of Room 31 with the curly hair and Pepsodent smile. In addition, he drives a car and makes the Honor Roll, but he is not entirely happy because recently his best girl moved to the Weaver district.

Arsenal School. Hopkins Debating Club 3, 4, Chairman of Executive Committee 4, President 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; Science Club 4; National Honor Society 4; "Owlet" Editorial Board 2; School Swimming Team 4; Junior Usher; Class Color Committee; Graduation Speaker.

Harvard.

ANNA M. JASINSKAS

"Gertie"

She doeth little kindnesses
Which most leave undone.

—James Russell Lowell.

"Ann" never fails a friend. When anyone asks her for help, she is ready and willing and goes about it in her capable and unassuming manner. Her scholastic standing is the result of unflinching application to her studies.

Holy Trinity School. Girls' League 3, 4; National Honor Society 3, 4. No demerits.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

RUTH S. JENNE

"Rufus"

Grace, Beauty and Caprice
Build this golden portal.
—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Ruth is one of the best sports in school. On the dance floor and in the gymnasium, she stands out because of her alertness and gracefulness. Her spontaneous laugh has won many friends for her.

Northwest School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 3; K. B. L. S. 3, 4, Junior Member of Executive Committee 3, Vice-President 4; French Club 3, 4, Junior Member of Executive Committee 3; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4, Vice-President 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 3, 4; Girls' Baseball Team 1, 2; Class Track Team 2; Lower Senior Night Program. Never late.

ARTHUR C. JENSEN

"Art"

Sir, I would rather be right than be President.—Henry Clay.

Seamanship seems to be "Art's" hobby. We have an idea that he would be a very sea-sick seaman if he went out beyond the Connecticut River and Long Island Sound. He intends to enter the insurance business.

Arsenal School. Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4, Chairman of Executive Committee 4, President 4. Never late, never absent, no demerits.

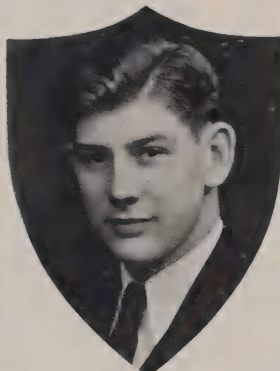

THOMAS I. JENSEN

"Tommy"

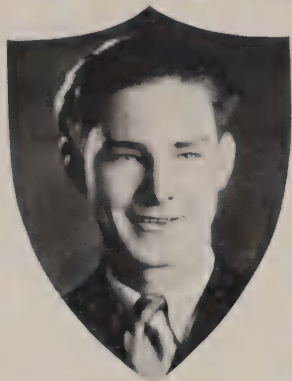

I loaf and invite my soul.—Walt Whitman.

"Tom" is such a calm, easy-going fellow that one would never think he could liven up enough to become one of our best and most popular dancers. Of course dramatics is his forte. Whether it's a monocol Englishman or just an endman in a minstrel it's all the same to him, although he is partial to Englishmen.

Northeast School. Boys' Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4, Member of Executive Committee 4, President 4; Sketch Club 2, 3, 4, Business Manager 3, Vice-President 3, Secretary 4; Freshman Glee Club; Class Historian.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

CLARENCE E. JOHNSON

"Swede"

There is nothing so powerful as truth.—Daniel Webster.

Clarence aspires to be an engineer. Some of us have heard him say that he would like to join the navy and see the world through a port-hole. He likes to bluff through the greater part of his recitations. But then, who doesn't, if he can do it successfully?

Chauncey Harris School. Boys' Club 3, 4; Tech Club 4, Secretary-Treasurer 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Science Club 3, 4.

WALTER C. JOHNSON

"Wally"

The Great Man is he who in the midst of the crowd keeps with perfect sweetness the independence of solitude.
—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

In school, "Wally" is very serious and attentive. He is a good baseball pitcher and also tries his hand at ice-skating. We are sorry we cannot say that he is always skating on his feet, as he has been seen using other parts of his anatomy for that purpose.

Lawrence Street School. Boys' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4. Never late, no demerits.

Rensselaer.

GERTRUDE S. JONES

"Gert"

How wonderful is the human voice!
—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

It is a pleasure to hear "Gert's" sweet, soft voice, and her disposition goes hand in hand with her voice. She is always able to see another's good qualities so she is a friend worth cultivating.

Northeast School. Girls' League 1, 4; Athletic Association 1, 4.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

WANDA H. JUSKIEWICZ

"Wandie"

Thou dost mock at fate and care.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Wanda's curly, blonde hair is very becoming, especially when she wears such appropriate clothes to set it off. She is never "flustrated", but is always calm and collected, even before taking an examination.

Richard J. Kinsella School. Girls' League 2, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1. Never late.

DONALD K. KAMM

"Don"

Let us then be up and doing, and doing to a purpose.
—Benjamin Franklin.

This thoroughly reliable boy is one of our clean-cut fellows who does well in his studies even if he isn't on the Honor Roll. "Don" can put up some good arguments whenever he is called upon to debate, so beware if you don't want to be convinced that you are wrong.

Chauncey Harris School. Hopkins Debating Club 4; Boys' Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 4; Greek Club 2; German Club 4; Science Club 4; National Honor Society 4. No demerits.

Missouri State University.

MAURICE A. KAPLAN

"Kap"

He shrugged his shoulders, shook his head, cast up his eyes, but said nothing.—Washington Irving.

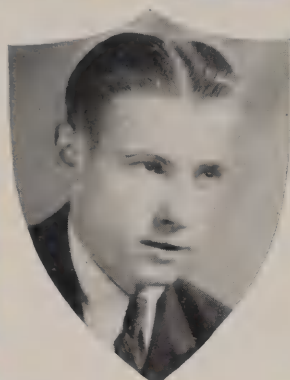

We wonder who Maurice found canvassing for the "Owlet" so unusual. It is noised about that he is a collector of antiques and old stamps. We know that his executive experience as President of the Hopkins Debating Club will help him when he becomes manager of some big corporation.

Northeast School. Hopkins Debating Club 3, 4, President 4; Boys' Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board 3, 4. No demerits.

West Virginia University.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

FREDERICK J. KARDYS

The world's great men have not commonly been great scholars, nor its great scholars great men.
—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Fred took a shot at basketball and he was such a good shot that much of the success of our team can be attributed to him. Then too, Fred is a baseball player of no mean ability and we're sure he bats 900 in the game of Friendship.

Chauncey Harris School. Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; School Baseball Team 2, 3, 4; School Basketball Team 2, 3, 4; Class Basketball Team 1, 2; Class Football Team 1, 2; Class Track Team 1, 2; received an "H" in Baseball and Basketball 4.

Connecticut Agricultural College.

RICHARD H. KAROTKIN

"Dick"

Nonsense makes the heart grow fonder.—Carolyn Wells.

"Dick's" laugh is most peculiar. It starts in high C and ends up in A flat. But a laugh's a laugh the world around and who doesn't appreciate something original once in a while? He ought to be an accomplished dancer after that special course he took at Soby's.

Chauncey Harris School. Hopkins Debating Club 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Boys' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4. Never late.

Connecticut College of Pharmacy.

GEORGE KATZ

"Shorty"

Early to bed and early to rise
Makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise.
—Benjamin Franklin.

George has a knack for putting old cars together but his mind functions best when laboring over "Lizzies." He also has a knack of getting into trouble with his pedagogues who promise him all sorts of entertainment during the seventh period. Just the same he is liked by all his classmates.

Northwest School. Hopkins Debating Club 3, 4, Secretary-Treasurer 4, Student Council Representative 4; Boys' Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2; Student Council 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 3, 4.

University of Alabama.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

PAULINE M. KATZ

"Polly"

There we stand fixed in sunshine forever.

—Nathaniel Hawthorne.

Pauline is never too busy to do a favor for some one. She has been a member of the Senior Orchestra for two years and is one of its most expert violinists. Her nimble fingers can also play quite a tune on the typewriter.

Northeast School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; Vesta Club 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2; Freshman Glee Club; Junior Orchestra 1, Assistant Concertmaster 1; H. P. H. S. Orchestra 2, 3; Class Book Typist. Never late.

WILLIAM KATZ

"Bill"

Write me as one who loves his fellow-men.—Leigh Hunt.

"If at first you don't succeed, try, try again." Poor "Bill" has been having a terrible time with his violin, but we know he won't give up until he has mastered those four strings. "Bill's" perseverance will win out in the end. But then, how about the neighbors?

West Middle School. Hopkins Debating Club 2; Athletic Association 2; Freshman Glee Club; School Football Team 1; Class Football Team 1.

Connecticut Agricultural College.

ROSE M. KAUFMAN

There are no Gains without Pains.—Benjamin Franklin.

Rose always looks as though she stepped from a band-box, never is there even a hair out of place. She might be classed as "What the well dressed woman is wearing." Ask her some day how she liked Astronomy—but first be sure to be at a safe distance.

Northeast School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 2.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

SYLVIA J. KAUFMAN

Society we must have.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Here's a girl who is in the A Cappella Choir. We admire anyone who has the ability to gain admittance to that society. It is understood that Sylvia intends to become a nurse; we envy her patients greatly. Since we hear it rumored that she goes with a "certain somebody" she may yet change her plans.

Northeast School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; K. B. L. S. 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Vesta Club 4; A Cappella Choir 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 4; Junior Orchestra 1.

ELEANOR M. KEENAN

"E"

When looks were fond and words were few.

—Allan Cunningham.

Eleanor is our sophisticated brunette who doesn't seem to think much of the school boys at H. P. H. S. Even if she is discriminating in some things, she puts her feelings aside and is very jovial and pleasant at our social gatherings.

Northwest School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Mosaic Club 3, 4; Vesta Club 4. Never late.

BARNABY C. KEENEY

Mind is the great leveler of all things.—Daniel Webster.

Without a doubt "Barney" is the most versatile member of our class, for in addition to winning scholarship prizes, he has taken important roles in the Dramatic Club productions, and is captain of our fast moving track aggregation. In his "tux" on Lower Senior Night, he looked as if he had just stepped out of a Hart, Schaffner and Marx advertisement.

Crosby High School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 3, 4, Vice-President 3, President 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4, President 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; Greek Club 2; Student Council 1, 4, President 4; National Honor Society 3, 4, President 4; School Track Team 2, 3, 4, Captain 4; Class Track Team 2, 3, Captain 3; received an "H" in Track and Cross Country 3, 4; tied for Second Scholarship Prize 1; Emma O. Warner Latin Prize 1; Junior Usher; Lower Senior Night Master of Ceremonies; Cross Country Captain 4; Graduation Speaker.

U. of N. Carolina.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

GENEVIEVE C. KELLIHER

And listened, while a pleased surprise
Looked from her long-lashed hazel eyes.
—John Greenleaf Whittier.

"If we only had more people like Genevieve in Hartford High," sigh the ticket sellers. You can always count on her buying a ticket, and she never fails to find something enjoyable in the performance. Her infectious giggle makes her a welcome member in any group which is lacking in mirth.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4;
Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4;
Vesta Club 3. Never late, no demerits.

Saint Francis Hospital Training School.

ANDREW J. KELLY

"Andy"

It is not best to swap horses while crossing the river.
—Abraham Lincoln.

"Andy" has curly red hair which enables us to recognize him at a distance. He is a debater of some ability, even if he isn't always on the winning side. We should like to know how he manages to act so nonchalant when he is told to report a cipher.

Saint Patrick's School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 2, 3;
Boys' Club 2, 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys'
Biology Club 2; School Tennis Team 2, 3; Class Basketball Team 2. Never absent.

HUBERT J. KENNY

"Hugh"

Serene, I fold my hands and wait.—John Burroughs.

This gentleman is rather shy, although pleasant around school, but on the gridiron he livens up quite a bit. Hubert is another one of those students who "excels" in German. Incidentally, we might mention that he also likes to help teachers pass their driving examinations.

Saint Patrick's School. Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; German Club 3, 4.

Trinity.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

TERESA M. KENNY

"Terry"

The best of life is conversation.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Here is another athlete from the famous Kenny family. Teresa is very active in all the girls' sports. She is full of fun, of which fact many members of the faculty are well aware. She meets her "ups and downs" in "Trig"—her one and only worry.

Saint Patrick's School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4, Treasurer 3, Secretary 4, President 4; Vesta Club 3.

MARY E. KERRIGAN

"Kerry"

Honor lies in honest toil.—Grover Cleveland.

Mary has just confessed that she likes winter best because of ice skating. One of her reasons is that she can stay out late nights when she goes skating. We admire her for her honesty. When she was a freshman, her most embarrassing moment came when some superior seniors sent her to the wrong classes.

Immaculate Conception School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4. Never late.

MARGARET E. KERSHAW

"Peggy"

All things come around to him who will but wait.
—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

"Peg" has found that it is much more pleasant to spend the day down at the Allyn Theatre than in a stuffy old classroom, but we know that her conscience has severely suffered for it. "Peg's" best study is Home Economics. No doubt she will be a fine helpmate for the fortunate man.

New Park Avenue School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Vesta Club 4; Class Track Team 3.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

ALICE KEVORKIAN

"Ollie"

I bought it, read it over and over, and was much delighted with it.—Benjamin Franklin.

Alice is quite adept at drawing sketches, especially bathing beauties. Maybe some day she will be drawing for the comic sheets. When she was a freshman, some superior senior told her the third floor was in the basement. She knows better now.

Lawrence Street School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 4; Sketch Club 3, 4; Mosaic Club 3, 4; 'Owlet' Editorial Board 3; Class Book Art Committee. Never late. New York Art School.

ELLA L. KIBBE

Beauty is never a delusion.—Nathaniel Hawthorne.

Ella not only sees "Red" a great many times in the corridors, but she attends all of the football, basketball, and baseball games. You can probably guess the reason for this display of school spirit. Ella has becoming clothes which she knows how to wear.

Northeast School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2. Never late. Morse Business College.

ANNA F. KING

"Ann"

I don't believe in principle,
But I du in interest.

—James Russell Lowell.

Anna's outstanding talent is art. While in high school she was a member of the Sketch Club and helped to make some of the designs in our Class Book. She once went into the library by mistake while the teachers were correcting examinations, and she walked out faster than she walked in.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Sketch Club 3, 4, Secretary 4; Class Book Art Committee.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

MARY E. KIVNEY

"Maisie"

Give me of thy fullness, Life!—Florence Coates.

Mary should plan to go to a school of Physical Education, for sports appeal to her much more than academic subjects. In the summer time she spends her spare moments on the tennis court or in the water where she is almost as much at home as one of the fishes.

Immaculate Conception School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 4. Never absent.

GENEVIEVE T. KLOPOTOWSKA

"Gen"

Glad that I live am I.—Lizette Woodworth Reese.

"Shorty's" nicely finger-waved hair is never out of place. She may be at the end of the line in the "gym" class, but in the classroom she stands well up near the front rank.

Saints Cyril and Methodius School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4. Never late.

ELEANOR C. KOENIG

Diligence is the Mother of Good-luck.—Benjamin Franklin.

To see Eleanor dashing to school would give one the impression that the time is very near eight-thirty, but she hurries wherever she goes and in whatever she does. Perhaps this accounts for her being able to carry a heavy course and at the same time obtain high marks.

Chauncey Harris School. French Club 4; National Honor Society 4; First Scholarship Prize 2. No demerits.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

IRENE A. KONICKI

"Ikey"

Subtle, sincere, illumining, illusive.

—Corinne Roosevelt Robinson.

Sometime you must get Irene to tell you of her travels in Poland, Germany, and England. We hope she kept an account of her experiences, because she likes to write outlines. Her favorite study is stenography. She is interested in nursing and plans to follow that vocation.

Terryville High School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3. Never late.

Hartford Hospital Training School.

MILDRED B. KOSCHER

"Millie"

When she had passed, it seemed like the passing of exquisite music.—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

"Millie" is one of the most popular girls in her session room. She has gained this position not only through her numerous activities but also by her charming personality. Because of her good sportsmanship, she has won recognition in several activities.

Noah Webster School. Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4, President 4; Girls' Biology Club 3, 4; Lower Senior Night Program.

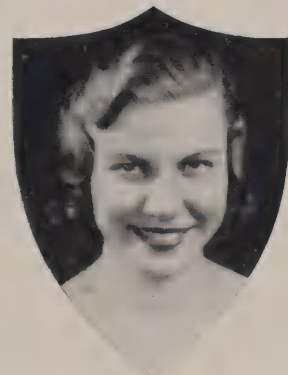

ANNA KOZLOWSKA

"Ann"

The happiest person is the person who thinks the most interesting thoughts.—Timothy Dwight.

"Ann" is always the center of a busy group of gossipers. Her good humor and warm disposition make her the central figure of any gathering. She goes in for dancing, and nothing makes her happier than good music and a good floor.

Richard J. Kinsella School. Girls' League 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 3, 4. Never late, never absent.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

WOLKA LASKEVICH

"Blondie"

There are certain half-dreaming moods of mind in which we naturally steal away from noise and glare and seek some quiet haunt.—Washington Irving.

Wolka likes to collect poems. We should like to have her collect some of the poetry books we have in school. There is no homework in typing so we can easily see why she likes that subject.

Meriden High School. Girls' League 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 4; History-Civics Club 4; "Chronicle" Typist 3, 4. Never late, no demerits.

H. ETHEL LASS

"Eth"

Activity is contagious.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Ethel's frequent and humorous outbursts have often kept a class bubbling over with giggles. We hear that she has a great desire to attend the University of Alabama. Here's hoping that her ambition is fulfilled.

New Park Avenue School. Athena 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 4; Girls' Baseball Team 3, 4; Class Basketball Team 3, 4; Class Track Team 2, 3, 4; received an "H" for Baseball 3; received Sweater in Basketball 4.

V. PAULINE LAVOIE

"Paul"

Go forth under the open sky
And list to Nature's teachings.

—William Cullen Bryant.

Pauline's cheery smile is always ready to greet one. She is never grouchy, even on Mondays. Whereas the rest of us have forsaken our sharps and flats, Pauline has practised consistently and is now an accomplished musician, and she gives piano lessons.

Mount Saint Joseph Academy. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Lower Senior Night Program. Never late, no demerits.

Saint Francis Hospital Training School.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

ALICE I. LEAHY

"Billie"

Liberty exists in proportion to wholesome restraint.
—Daniel Webster.

What an undignified experience! Alice's seat once broke and she landed right on the floor during class. She used to attend the Inter-High Orchestra rehearsals, but we have a suspicion that it was not only to hear the music.

Saint Joseph's Cathedral School. Girls' League 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1; Vesta Club 4. Never late.

LILLIAN L. LEBESHEVSKY

"Lil"

Little strokes fell great oaks.—Benjamin Franklin.

Lillian is a very conscientious young lady. For such a little person she has a great capacity for work. One can never find her unoccupied after school hours. Although she is always doing something for somebody, she still finds time to be active in many clubs.

Arsenal School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Girls' Biology Club 3, 4, Secretary 3, President 4; National Honor Society 4; Junior Orchestra 1, 2. Never late, no demerits.

Columbia University.

GOLDIE LECHOWETSKY

"Goldilocks"

Happiness is not the end of life: character is.
—Henry Ward Beecher.

Goldie ought to get a handwriting expert to discover who the authors of her anonymous letters are. She has a vivid imagination and she increases it by her tireless reading.

Henry Barnard School. Girls' League 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

MARIE A. LEFEBVRE

"Ree"

Plough deep while sluggards sleep.—Benjamin Franklin.

"Ree" is a "whiz" at French and if you don't believe it ask her to conjugate any French verb. When it comes to speech-making, however, she finds the task a little more disagreeable, but such a thing does not daunt her for she does it in her quiet and capable way as usual.

Northeast School. Girls' League 4; National Honor Society 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 3; French Club 4; Lower Senior Night Committee; Class Treasurer.

SEBASTIAN LOMBARDO

"Sally"

Eventually he went into motion pictures.—Heywood Broun.

Sebastian is old-fashioned in some ways because he likes the old barn-dances. He aspires to become a "gentleman of the press" and "scoop" all his fellow reporters in the field of Journalism. We hope he won't pick on us when he is out searching for scandals.

Northwest School. Boys' Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; Treasurer 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 3, 4; Freshman Glee Club; School Track Team 2; Class Track Team 2, 3. Never late.

JOSEPHINE M. LUCCA

"Josie"

How feeble words seem here!—Wendell Phillips.

"Josie" is another of the lucky girls who won one of the coveted sweaters for being on the winning team in basketball. No one will dispute that she earned it, for she is a good athlete. She may have her difficulties in stenography, but when it comes to bookkeeping she outshines most of us.

Brown School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; "Chronicle" Typist 4; Class Basketball Team 1, 2, 3, 4; received an "H" in Basketball 1, 3; received Sweater in Basketball 4. Never late.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

ISABELLA C. MACHINSKAS

"Izzy"

All kin' o' smily round the lips
An' teary round the lashes.

—James Russell Lowell.

"Izzy" is thorough in everything, even falling down stairs, for she starts at the very top and goes to the bottom. Her ambition is to be a nurse. We can't decide whether she went to Boston to see the historic places or a certain reserved Bostonian.

Holy Trinity School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3. Never late, no demerits.

Saint Francis Hospital Training School.

ANNA T. MACK

"Ann"

There is no blemish in that rounded and beautiful character.
—Mark Twain.

"Ann" is Mr. Adler's efficient little "stenog." We expect some day to find her the private secretary to the President. Her many friends and numerous "dates" testify to the fact that she is one of the cleverest and most popular girls in the class.

Arsenal School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 4; K. B. L. S. 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2; Girls' Biology Club 3, 4; Student Council 1, 2, 4; National Honor Society 3, 4; "Owlet" Editorial Board 3, News Editor 3; Class Book Editorial Board; Chairman Lower Senior Night Committee; Senior Reception Committee. Never late, no demerits.

SEMA S. MAGID

"Mimi"

It is a situation which confronts us.—Grover Cleveland.

Sema has a mania for collecting poetry. She is also somewhat of a "fish" for she surely likes the water, and can swim with ease and great speed. Although stenography presents some difficulties for her, she seems to get along fairly well with it.

Northeast School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 2, 3; Science Club 3; Vesta Club 2, 4. No demerits.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

DOROTHY M. MANNIX

"Dot"

The love of learning, the sequestered nooks,
And all the sweet serenity of books.
—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

"Dot" has finally grown up. We remember her as a little shy freshman, but what a change! She doesn't say much, but when she does speak we all listen for she usually has something worth-while to say.

Saint Joseph's Cathedral School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4;
Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4. No demerits.

TERESA A. MARANDINO

"Tree"

All seems beautiful to me.—Walt Whitman.

Teresa has a hard time dividing her time between the library, stenography, homework and her favorite hobby, dancing. Judging from the results she's a pretty good mathematician.

New Park Avenue School. Girls' League 2, 3. Never late.

SABINA M. MAROTTO

"Sib"

Ah, that thou couldst know thy joy!
—John Greenleaf Whittier.

We have never been able to capture all of Sabina's interest in Hartford High. A good portion of it seems to be attracted to Bulkeley as if by a magnet. It is too bad that she didn't go out for some of our teams for she possesses zest, vigor, and a fine athletic build.

Saint Peter's School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4. Never late.

Saint Francis Hospital Training School.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

LORRAINE MARTINEAU

A form more fair, a face more sweet,
Ne'er hath it been my lot to meet.

—John Greenleaf Whittier.

Lorraine is a dainty little miss whom everyone loves. She is the most accomplished violinist that we have ever had at H. P. H. S. The world must seem a rather small place for her because she has traveled extensively and has lived in all parts of the United States and also in Canada.

The Roosevelt Grammar School, Spokane, Washington. Girls' League 2, 3, 4, Junior Member of Executive Committee 3, Senior Member of Executive Committee 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4, Secretary 3, President 4; National Honor Society 3, 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 4; Junior Orchestra 1; H. P. H. S. Orchestra 2, 3, 4, Concertmaster 4; Inter-High Orchestra 2, 3, 4, Member of Executive Committee 4, Assistant Concertmaster 4; Reception Usher 3; Lower Senior Night Program; Class Book Editorial Board; Soloist for Glee Club 3; A Cappella Choir Soloist 4; Senior Orchestra Concert Soloist 4; Alternate Graduation Speaker.

GODFREY P. MARZANO

"Fred"

Clothes do not make the man.—Robert Holliday.

"Fred" has always wanted to be a doctor. We just can't visualize him sitting in an office giving advice at a dollar a minute. Have you ever noticed a dent in one of the trees in the yard? That's where he hit his head while playing football.

Saint Joseph's Cathedral School. Boys' Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2; School Tennis Team 3, 4. Never late, never absent.

Trinity.

DANFORD W. MATHER

"Dan"

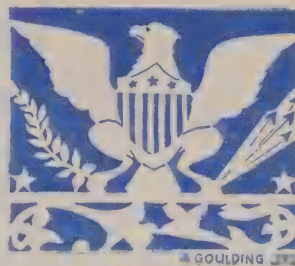

Fortune followed him faster than he ran away from her.

—James K. Paulding.

"Danny" likes to give us the impression that he is just a "man-about-town". One of his favorite diversions is to see how many times he can be absent from "gym" before he receives a slip. As a lower senior he wore an H. P. H. S. ring which he stoutly maintained was his sister's. We had our doubts.

West Middle School. Boys' Club 1, 2, 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 4; A Cappella Choir 4, Treasurer 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Freshman Glee Club; Boys' Glee Club 4, Assistant Librarian 4; Class Track Team 2; Class Swimming Team 2, 3. Never late.

Trinity.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

BERNICE M. MATULIS

"Bernie"

Let us have peace!—Ulysses S. Grant.

"Bernie" certainly ought to be sought after by some prominent business man who is looking for an efficient secretary. Her ability to get high marks in commercial subjects is more than ordinary. She is just a wee bit selfish in keeping her boy friend in the dark, but then, that's her own business.

Lawrence Street School. Girls' League 4. Never late.

ELIZABETH B. McCLURE

"Betty"

How few, how few are those gifted for real talk!

—Christopher Morley.

It's a pleasure to sit three in a seat if slender "Betty" is the third person. Remember after Lower Senior Night? "Betty", we understand, is a shark in American Democracy, but is still more proficient in upsetting the said class without obtaining so much as a harsh look from her teacher.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Vesta Club 3, 4.

ANTOINETTE M. McINTOSH

"Anne"

A wise scepticism is the first attribute of a good critic.

—James Russell Lowell.

"Anne's" limpid gracefulness and "little finger technique" have frequently gained our attention. We have also been attracted by her stylish clothes and bright smile. Don't all of these qualities seem to belong to a dancer? Yes, and she is a dancer of first rank.

Chauncey Harris School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; "Owlet" Editorial Board 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Book Typist.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

GENEVIEVE M. McLAUGHLIN

"Gen"

Labor is the superior of capital.—Abraham Lincoln.

Actions speak louder than words. Such is the case with "Gen". She is never idle and is always willing to lend a helping hand to a less fortunate classmate. Her name is seen on the honor list almost every time it is announced.

Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; National Honor Society 3, 4. Never late, no demerits.

HELEN C. McLAUGHLIN

"Mc"

What delightful hosts are they—
Life and Love!

—James Whitcomb Riley.

But for her charming ways and unique sense of humor, we could hardly forgive Helen for living in New Britain. We certainly agree that she has lots of good sense in coming to H. P. H. S. rather than joining our down-state rivals. Studies never seem to bother her very much as every one knows who has been delightfully entertained by her in class.

Academy Holy Family School, Baltic. Girls' League 2, 3; Athletic Association 1, 2.

Long Island City Hospital Training School.

LAURENCE J. McTIERNAN

"Mac"

I knew not the first letter of the alphabet.

—Henry David Thoreau.

Our Mount Vesuvius! He is always erupting and making a great deal of noise, especially in the mechanical drawing class. He likes assemblies because they give him an opportunity to use his stored-up energy. We wonder how many points he scored while playing basketball with the "Nutmegs."

Saint Patrick's School, Boys' Club 3; Tech Club 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; Mosaic Club 3; School Baseball Team 3. Never late.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

M. LOUISE MEAGHER

"Lou"

She is so gay, so very gay,
And not by fits and starts.

—Tom Masson.

Louise says she wants to go to Storrs to study Home Economics. Of course, that may be true, but we know that Storrs is a "co-ed" college and has many nice young men. Naturally nothing like that would appeal to Louise.

Wilson Street School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Vesta Club 2, 3, 4.

New Rochelle College.

OLIVER C. MELLEN

"Ollie"

Knowledge, in truth, is the great sun in the firmament.

—Daniel Webster.

Our Boy Scout who hails from Rocky Hill has been gunning for high marks, and his catch is enviable. "Ollie" burns plenty of the well-known midnight oil, but we can't see any rings under his eyes. Some think he is girl-shy, but a few of us have our own ideas about this.

Middletown High School. Boys' Club 3, 4, Vice-President 3; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; French Club 3, 4, Secretary 3, President 4; Science Club 4; National Honor Society 3, 4; Second Scholarship Prize 3; Junior Usher; Class Motto Committee; Salutatorian.

Wesleyan.

ROSE MELNICK

"Rosy"

To the illuminated mind the whole world burns and sparkles with light.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

The things this little girl can't do with a big piano aren't worth mentioning. Rose has done a great deal for H. P. H. S. with her unusual musical talent. We shall always remember her enthusiastic work in the Glee Club and Orchestra and also her skill as an accompanist, nor shall we forget the ability she has displayed in her studies.

West Middle School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; German Club 1, 2, 3; National Honor Society 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; H. P. H. S. Orchestra 3, 4; Inter-High Orchestra Accompanist 3; Freshman Choir Accompanist 2; Glee Club Accompanist 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 3, President 4; First Scholarship Prize 2; Second Scholarship Prize 1, 2; Thomas Snell Weaver English Prize 1; Class Night Program. Never late, no demerits.

Julius Hartt School of Music.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

WALTER E. MENZEL, JR.

A mixture of innocence and wisdom makes him ever seriously cheerful.—Benjamin Franklin.

Walter is our great "Owlet" reporter and interviewer who thinks nothing of approaching the Prince of Wales or General Smedley Butler, although he is a little shy in the presence of some people. As a collector, he's the "ne plus ultra."

New Park Avenue School. Boys' Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 4; German Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; "Owlet" Editorial Board 4, News Editor 4. Never late.

ARON L. MIRSKY

Books are the ever-burning lamps of accumulated wisdom.
—George William Curtis.

Aron is one of our honor students, who, although partial to mathematics and science, doesn't allow the grass to grow under his feet in any other subject. Physics engages his attention and he's constantly searching for first hand information regarding the various branches of this science.

Arsenal School. Hopkins Debating Club 4, Chairman of Executive Committee 4; German Club 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Science Club 4; National Honor Society 3, 4; Second Scholarship Prize 3, 4; Junior Usher 3; Fourth Prize in 1929 Fire Prevention Essay Contest.

College.

JAMES MOIR, JR.

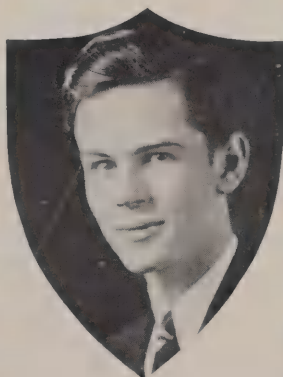

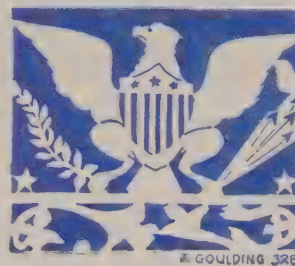

"Jimmy"

Not much talk—a great, sweet silence.—Henry James, Jr.

Three cheers for "Jimmie" who is always up to his neck in school activities. His dry humor has put pep into the Editorial Board meetings despite all our troubles. At these meetings we discovered his little address book. No doubt it is quite full, although we haven't had a peep at it yet.

Lawrence Street School. Boys' Club 3; Tech Club 2, 3, 4, Chairman Entertainment Committee 2, Member of Executive Committee 3, Vice-President 3, Chairman of Executive Committee 4, President 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club 3, 4, Member of Executive Committee 3, Vice-President 4; Student Council 1, 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 4; School Soccer Team 1; National Honor Society 4; Junior Usher; Lower Senior Night Committee; Class Ring and Pin Committee; Class Book Editorial Board; Senior Reception Committee; Class Color Committee.

Worcester Polytechnic Institute.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

HELEN R. MOKRZYCKA

"Shrimp"

What a plucky girl she was!—Harold McGrath.

We wonder if Helen can be dreaming about her screen heroes when she walks into the wrong rooms so often. If she uses the wiles of the heroines when she becomes a private secretary, imagine the effect on her employer.

Lawrence Street School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Vesta Club 3, 4. Never late, never absent.

ANNA M. MONTANA

"Monty"

Observe the maiden, innocently sweet.—Benjamin Franklin.

"Monty" is a relief from the talkative young ladies of our class. When one is tired of hearing a lot of chattering, "Monty" is the best doctor. Her sensible sayings go a long way, making acquaintance with her a pleasure.

Northwest School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 4. Never late, no demerits.

LOUISE G. MONTGOMERY

"Lou"

Life is an ecstasy.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

"Lou" has been unusually patient and agreeable in teaching many of our H. P. H. S. girls to dance, and we all know that she is the best dancer "this side of the Rockies". This pretty Miss, with her Harvard accent and winning ways, is much admired by the college boys.

South Side School, Bristol, Connecticut. Girls' League 3, 4; Athletic Association 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 3, 4; Reception Usher 3; Class Color Committee.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

RUSSELL G. MOORE

"Russ"

Coöperation, and not Competition, is the life of trade.
—William C. Fitch.

"Russ" is naturally rather quiet, but he has a very infectious laugh and when he bursts out with it, we either have to laugh with him or at him. We sincerely hope that his voice will not crack when he hits some high notes while singing over the radio.

Arsenal School. Hopkins Debating Club 4; Electrician, Dramatic Club 4; Sketch Club 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Class Book Business Board. Never absent, no demerits.

Pratt Institute.

WILLARD R. MORRON

"Bob"

The hack is a better roadster than the Arab barb.
—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

"Will" seems to have grown until he is all legs. He uses them, though, for work on the track team. He makes a very good attempt at thumping the "ivories" and is an amateur photographer. Perhaps these activities take up the time that he should spend in doing homework.

Lawrence Street School. Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; "Owlet" Editorial Board 2; School Track Team 3, 4; Class Track Team 1, 2, 3, Captain Sophomore Track Team 2; Lower Senior Night Program; received an "H" in Track 3, 4; Class Marshal. Never late.

Aeronautical School.

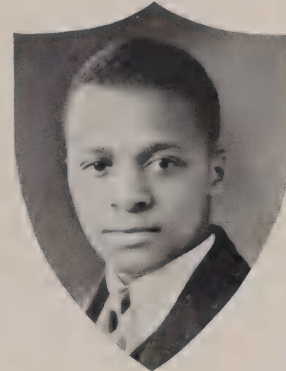

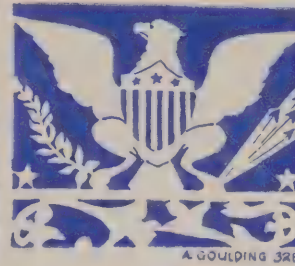

WILLIAM F. MOYLAN

"Bill"

Sweet hour, what a dream!—Conrad Aiken.

Whenever we see a bright orange sweat-shirt in the corridors, we know that "Bill" is inside of it. He used to go to Bulkeley High, but we're glad he realized his mistake in plenty of time to change to our high school.

Bulkeley High School. Boys' Commercial Club 3; Tech Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 3; History-Civics Club 4; Mosaic Club 3, 4; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board 3; School Football Team 3. Never late.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

MARY H. MULCAHY

"Lou"

One step up the mountain widens the horizon in all directions.—Edward Howard Griggs.

Mary is another devotee of that all around sport, swimming. Of course, we wish that she would do as well in "Chem" as she does in French. The mischievous twinkle in her eyes proclaims her a great tease. We feel sorry for her younger sister.

Saint Peter's School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; K. B. L. S. 4; Athletic Association 1; French Club 4.
Smith.

DAISY F. MUNFRADO

"Day"

How brilliant and mirthful the light of her eye.
—John Greenleaf Whittier.

How does Daisy keep that beautiful schoolgirl complexion of hers? She would make a good "ad" for Palmolive Soap. Daisy is as sincere and as pleasing a person as one could ever hope to meet. Daisy's ideal is tall, dark and handsome.

Arsenal School. Girls' League 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; German Club 3, 4; National Honor Society 4; First Scholarship Prize 1. Never late.

EDWARD A. MYERS

"Indiana"

Public opinion can do what it has a mind to do in this country.—George William Curtis.

As soon as "Ed" appeared on the scene, he worked his way to the front with his pleasant smile and playful antics. Although he hasn't our New England twang he's always game for anything we propose. We remember, the day we dared him to take the saltcellars into class.

Cross Road School, Number 5, Johnson County, Indiana.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

MARIE E. NAGLE

"Re"

Life is not so short but that there is always time for courtesy.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Marie thinks that she would like to become a teacher, but she may change her mind and become a great artist. Again, since she is popular with the boys, we shouldn't be surprised if she did something quite different.

Saint Joseph's School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Vesta Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4. Never late.

PETER E. NAKTENIS

"Lefty"

Baseball is truly an American game.—William Lyon Phelps.

With "Lefty" in the box it's just 1, 2, 3, and out. Seldom does "Johnny" Newell have a pitcher who can deliver the goods as "Lefty" can. And that's not all. This unassuming athlete knocks the "exams" for home runs. Some day we will be cheering for Naktensis of the Big League.

Lawrence Street School. Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Science Club 3; National Honor Society 4; School Baseball Team 1, 2, 3, 4; School Basketball Team 4; Class Track Team 2, 3; received an "H" in Baseball 3, 4; Junior Usher. Never late.

ANITA L. NARKWICH

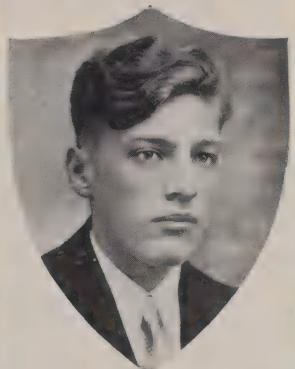

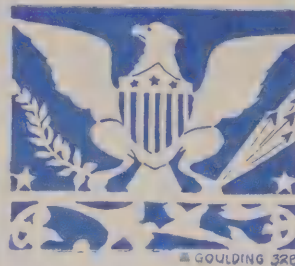

Nature wishes that woman should attract man.

—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Some day we may see Anita's name emblazoned in the bright lights of Broadway. Her chief ambition is to become a dancer on the stage, but we fear she may be hit by one of Cupid's darts, before this dream is realized.

Holy Trinity School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Lower Senior Night Program.

Saint Francis Hospital Training School.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

HINDA NEIDITZ

"Hindie"

Where judgment has wit to express it, there is the best orator.—William Penn.

Hinda is the possessor of many beautiful frocks, decidedly a la mode, which we have admired so much at school. She has been a prominent member of the Athena Club and a good worker in the Dramatic Club, although she did get her tongue twisted in trying to rattle off that Irish brogue in "The New Poor".

Arsenal School. Athena 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; National Honor Society 4; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board 2. Never late.

New Britain Normal School.

M. LOUISE NELSON

"Lou"

Pleasant enough it is to hear the world speak of your virtues.—John Hay.

Louise is one of our budding actresses who has made a good showing in the Dramatic Club in the short time she has been a member. She is afraid of the dark when she is alone, but is she ever alone when she goes walking?

West Middle School. Athena 3, Junior Member Executive Committee 3; Athletic Association 1; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4, Librarian 3; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4, Treasurer 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Freshman Glee Club. Never late.

Hartford Hospital Training School.

WILLIAM M. NELSON

"Bill"

There are whole worlds of fact waiting to be discovered by inference.—Woodrow Wilson.

"Bill" is what might be called a literary genius for, as one of the "Chronicle" staff, he has contributed to that periodical quite often. And under the appellation of Joe Blutz he even attempted to help the former "P. G. Panic". "Abo" is also quite a musician and plays the 'cello in the Inter-High Orchestra.

Noah Webster School. Boys' Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2; French Club 4; National Honor Society 4; Junior Orchestra 1; H. P. H. S. Orchestra 2, 3, 4; Inter-High Orchestra 2, 3, 4; "Chronicle" Editorial Board 4; Class Night Program; Alternate Graduation Speaker.

Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

DANIEL D. NEWHOUSE

"Danny"

The thing needed is not plans, but men.—Arthur T. Hadley.

Dynamite comes in small sticks. If you don't believe it take a look at "Dan". However, don't look at him when he's driving that ramshackle old Ford of his, for he's likely to run you down, due to some mechanical difficulty.

Northeast School. Boys' Club 2, 3; Tech Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; Boys' Biology Club 3, 4; School Football Team 4.

Michigan University.

NORMA A. NICKSE

"Nickey"

The sower scatters broad his seed.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

If you don't like the teachers on your schedule, blame Norma. Her activities in club work have endeared her to her friends and her cheery smile has made a lasting impression on her classmates. Rumor has it that she intends to be a medical missionary.

Chauncey Harris School. Athena 4, President 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; K. B. L. S. 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 2, President 2; German Club 3; History-Civics Club 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4, Secretary 4; Girls' Biology Club 2; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; "Owlet" Editorial Board 4; Girls' Baseball Team 1, 2, 3; Class Basketball Team 2, 3; received an "H" in Basketball 4; received a Sweater in Baseball 1.

New Britain Normal School.

EMMA W. NIXON

"Em"

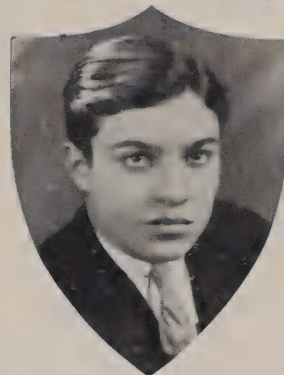

Through it all I did not lose my coolness.

--Charles Battell Loomis.

Emma is always at her best when she is in the art room. Watch out, everybody! She's a souvenir hunter, so keep your treasures to yourself. She thinks that one initiation into any club in this school is sufficient.

Henry Barnard School. Girls' League 4; Sketch Club 4. Never absent.

Art School.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

DANA G. NOBLE

Every great man is unique.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Dana shouldn't be classed as lazy, but just as "happy-go-lucky". He is a newcomer to the school, but has already made himself heard, and has a natural talent for being put out of classes. At home, he murders music (and his family) with a "sax". Our own Rudy!

Choate Preparatory School. Athletic Association 4; French Club 4; Sketch Club 4; Boys' Biology Club 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 4; "Chronicle" Editorial Board 4; School Golf Team 4. Never late.

Wesleyan.

LYDIA B. NOBLE

"Lyddy"

A painter is a companion for kings and emperors.

—Benjamin West.

Lydia represents the height of style. There is no doubt about that, for during her four years here, she has held the undisputed title of being the tallest girl in H. P. H. S. She also has won fame as an artist and her ability along this line is in direct proportion to her height.

Noah Webster School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Sketch Club 2, 3, 4; Student Council Representative 4; Secretary 4; President 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 4; Assistant Librarian 4; Girls' Swimming Team 3, 4; Winner of Swimming Meet 3, 4; Lower Senior Night Program; Chairman of Class Book Art Committee.

Skidmore College.

EDWARD W. NORRIS

"Ed"

The boldest and the strongest still was I.

—Charles G. Leland.

"Ed" never had a chance to show his great prowess at the game of football during the season, but at parties he plays a great game of rugby. He knows how to pump gas, too.

Chauncey Harris School. Tech Club 2, 3, 4; Executive Committee 2; Secretary-Treasurer 3; President 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board 3; School Football Team 4.

University of Alabama.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

SIDNEY J. NUSINOFF

"Sid"

The spirit should not grow old.—James Garfield.

If there is one thing which Sidney "likes" it's German, believe it or not. But you will have to admit he does enjoy experimenting with electricity and chemicals. It's too bad he hasn't given up the freshman habit of "bumming" rides.

Noah Webster School. Boys' Club 4; Athletic Association 1; German Club 2, 3; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Freshman Glee Club; Boys' Glee Club 3. Never late.

A. GOULDING 328

HOWARD T. O'CONNELL

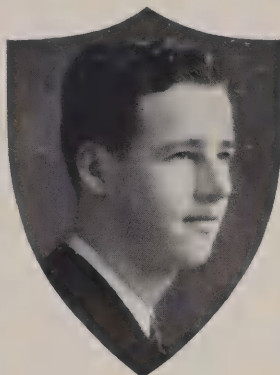

"Morton Downey"

A cloud of dust filled the air.—Conrad Aiken.

Who can ever forget this lad who looked so swell behind the footlights on Lower Senior Night? How he can pluck a banjo, but then it takes pluck to get anywhere nowadays. Do you play golf? No! Consult "Howie," he's a real professional.

Saint Joseph's School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1; H. P. H. S. Choir 3, 4; School Baseball Team 4; School Track Team 4; School Golf Team 2, 3, 4, Manager 4; Class Football Team 4; Class Track Team 4; Lower Senior Night Program; Runner-up in State Junior Golf Championship 2.

Trinity.

MARY F. E. O'CONNELL

I don't think much of a man who is not wiser today than he was yesterday.—Abraham Lincoln.

To Mary may be given the honorable title of being one of the smartest girls in the class. She always stands high above most people in her marks. Something surely would be amiss if we did not see her name on the Honor Roll. She must have a very fearless nature since she says that not even "Frankenstein" fazed her.

Immaculate Conception School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; K. B. L. S. 4; National Honor Society 4; Athletic Association 1; French Club 3, 4; German Club 3; Science Club 4.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

JOHN J. O'LEARY "Raj"

We are always a little late.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

To see him saunter into school at 8.29½ almost every morning, one would never expect to witness him dashing about a gridiron. John has already climbed high on the ladder of success and as an athlete, social luminary, and dramatist he has shown that he can deliver the goods.

Northwest School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 3, 4, Secretary 4, President 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary-Treasurer 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Greek Club 2, 3, Secretary 3; Student Council 1, 2, 3, 4, Secretary 3, President 4; National Honor Society 4, Vice-President 4; Chess Club 4, Vice-President 4; School Football Team 2, 3, 4; School Track Team 4; Class Football Team 1; received an "H" in Football 4; Member of Batterson Debating Team 4; Lower Senior Night Committee; Lower Senior Night Program; Class Book Business Board; Reception Committee. Dartmouth.

MARY C. O'NEIL

I believe long habits of virtue have a sensible effect on the countenance.—Benjamin Franklin.

Mary is a member of that family of O'Neils which has been so popular in school during past years. Her pleasing personality and bubbling humor have won her hosts of friends, and her frequent spurts of devilry have made her the subject of a great deal of conversation.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4. Saint Francis Hospital Training School.

THERESA S. ORGENTO "Trixie"

The thing looks simple enough to me.—J. T. Trowbridge.

It is said that Theresa is very fond of tennis. Perhaps she will challenge Helen Wills some day. Since she is also good in French she may even try her skill against one of those French champions. Then, too, she may play a love set and chances are, she'll be the winner.

Brown School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; K. B. L. S. 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4. Never late.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

WANDA OSTROWSKI

"Pat"

For she was jes' the quiet kind.—James Russell Lowell.

Although Wanda is no poet, she likes to collect poems. Perhaps she's thinking of editing a book. If so, we wish her luck in that as well as in Algebra. Of course, we needn't wish her any in Stenography for she seems to have it already.

Memorial Junior High School, Framingham, Massachusetts. Never absent, never late, no demerits.

STANLEY J. PAWLINA

"Stan"

With all his reflective habits, he never made up his mind on a subject.—Washington Irving.

"Stan" would like to work for the government. No, not at Atlanta; he isn't so bad as all that, but in the Civil Service Department. His weakness is baseball, and although his "homers" are few and far between, he's a clever player.

Saints Cyril and Methodius School. Athletic Association 1, 2.

HOWARD A. PHELON

"Blondy"

All things come round to him who will but wait.

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

"Howie" thinks that his former "Trig" class was one of the best in the school. Perhaps it was because he used to sit next to his inspiration, a certain little blonde. Its queer, but he is one of the few boys who use their free periods to do homework.

Northeast School. Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Lower Senior Night Program.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

HAROLD N. PIERSON

"Dill"

It seems to me that talk should be,
Like water, sprinkled sparingly.—John Paul.

In Harold, Dame Nature has followed one of her choice recipes. A base of wisdom and seriousness, a liberal portion of fun and joviality, and a heaping measure of wit, well shaken together, give us good, old, likable K. G. Guy.

Arsenal School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; Science Club 3, 4, President 4; National Honor Society 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3; Freshman Glee Club: "Owlet" Editorial Board 4; Lower Senior Night Program; Junior Usher; Chess Club 4, Treasurer 4.

Worcester Polytechnic Institute.

DAVID PINSKY

In his council he presided with great state and solemnity.
—Washington Irving.

Good old fun-loving, blundering David! Whether he is an austere butler for the Dramatic Club or a dashing "gridster" fighting for the Blue and White, we feel gratified to know that he is carrying the numerals of '32B.

West Middle School. Hopkins Debating Club 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4, Business Manager of "It Won't Be Long Now" 4; Basketball Team 2, 3, 4; School Football Team 2, 3, 4; Class Basketball Team 1; received an "H" in Football 4; Lower Senior Night Program.

Connecticut Agricultural College.

ITRIA PIZZO

Little I ask; my wants are few.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Although Itria enjoys baseball very much, we fear that she would never make a sports' reporter since she dislikes shorthand. However, since she intends to be a secretary, we hope her boss will give her enough time off to witness a few games.

Brown School. Girls' League 3, 4. Never late, no demerits.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

ROSE R. PLASSINO

"Buddie"

It's her picture tickles her most.—May McHenry.

Rose's ambition is to be a social worker, and from her regular attendance at the movies she must get many and varied ideas. Rose can be quite a "cut up." Often she barely misses being put out of French class.

Chauncey Harris School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Vesta Club 3, 4. Never late.

MARY S. POGORZELSKA

"Pudge"

Thus, from the first of time, hast thou been found
On virtue's side.—William Cullen Bryant.

Most of the upper seniors know Mary as a quiet, reserved lower senior who is making a double promotion. Those who are attracted by her pleasant, amiable personality soon realize that under her quiet manner is real sincerity and true friendship.

Saints Cyril and Methodius School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 2; Vesta Club 3.

HILDA PRINDIVILLE

"Babe"

Happy and long are the lives brightened by glory and love.
—John Hay.

Hilda has such lovely hair that it has been envied by more than one of her classmates. Her pleasant personality, that southern drawl which is disappearing bit by bit, and her enthusiasm in school activities have won her many friends and admirers.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4, Secretary 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4, Publicity Committee 3; Dramatic Club Prize 4; Vesta Club 4.

Boston University.

A. GOULDING 328

1932 B CLASS BOOK

MAE E. PRIORE

"Mazie"

Care is but a broken bubble.—Clinton Scollard.

Mae would like to be a private secretary, but the only drawback is that terrible subject, shorthand. She is an active girl and enjoys skating, especially with the boys. We're told that bridge, too, has its thrills for Mae.

Northeast School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 4.

VIVIAN E. PRIVITERA

"Viv"

Life is always measured in terms of its quality by the standards of the soul.—Edward Howard Griggs.

"Viv" is quite a tennis fan, according to the latest reports. However, she is also interested in a business life, or a business man, we don't know which. She loves Geometry and will go out of her way to solve a hard problem.

Saint Patrick's School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; K. B. L. S. 2, 3. Never late. Kathryn Gibbs' School.

SHIRLEY B. PULVER

"Shirl"

I only ask that Fortune send
A little more than I shall spend.

—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Shirley seems to be a very quiet girl but you know appearances are often deceiving. She is one of the jolliest persons imaginable at times, and is known as a real sport. She was greatly interested in the football team last fall, or was it in a certain individual?

Noah Webster School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4. Never late. Columbia University.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

JULIA V. QUINN

"Julie"

Every action is measured by the depth of the sentiment from which it proceeds.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

"Have a life-saver!" Yes, it's Julia Quinn speaking. "Julie" is her pet name. Her pleasant smile and sunny disposition have won her the distinction of being one of the most popular girls in her class. From the looks of her report card she seems to abhor low marks.

Northeast School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; K. B. L. S. 3, 4, Treasurer 3, President 4, Vice-President 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4, Junior Member of Executive Committee 3; Girls' Biology Club 3, 4, Secretary 3, Chairman of Executive Committee 4; Student Council 2, 3; National Honor Society 3, 4; Class Book Business Board; Class Historian.

Business College.

JAMES P. RADIGAN

"Jimmie"

If a victory is to be gained, I'll gain it.

—Oliver Hazard Perry.

This is the young man who comes to history "unprepared" and then amazes us by rattling off dates with machine gun rapidity. "Jimmie" really is no laggard in his studies, and he's mighty fast in picking up new friends.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 3, 4, Secretary 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; School Tennis Team 3.

Holy Cross.

WILLIAM E. RADIGAN

"Bill"

I fear no power a woman wields.—Ernest McGaffey.

"Bill" doesn't know one rock from another, as his geology teacher will readily testify. He plans to be a big business man. As long as his office doesn't have three gilt balls hanging outside of the door, everything will be O. K.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Boys' Club 4; Boys' Commercial Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Glee Club.

Business College.

A GOULDING 328

1932 B CLASS BOOK

ESTELLE L. RAMISK

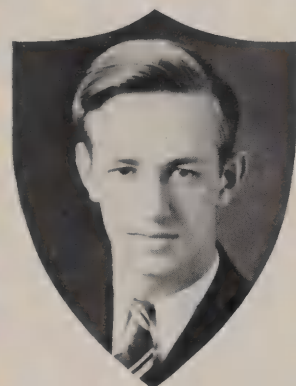

"Sunshine"

Courtesy always pays.—Charles R. Gow.

Stella is very much interested in writing. She would like to take a trip around the world and then write about it. As long as she didn't have to walk, that would be all right. Sh! Listen! She has a secret passion which we are not permitted to divulge.

Holy Trinity School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Girls' Biology Club 4; Lower Senior Night Program. Never late.

Hartford Hospital Training School.

G. PHILIP REISEL

"Phil"

So he buckled right in with the trace of a grin
On his face.—Edgar A. Guest.

"Phil" is one of our star trackmen. He is quiet in school but not outside, especially when a certain young lady is with him. What happened in Bloomfield last year, "Phil"? As a high class floorwalker in F. W. W.'s store, he can advise on anything from toothpicks to golf clubs.

Arsenal School. Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; School Track Team 1, 2, 3, 4; received an "H" in Track 2, 3, 4; Class Track Team 1, 2, 3, 4.

ISRAEL J. RICHMAN

"Izzie"

All we ask is to be let alone.—Jefferson Davis.

"Izzie" is one of our high-pressure store clerks who, no doubt, handles millions of dollars daily in his enormous business of selling paper-clips. Of course his smile and pleasant manners help him a great deal in all his occupations.

New Park Avenue School. Boys' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

IRENE S. RIVKIN

"Curly"

I'm hugely amused.—Henry Harland.

Irene puts the rest of us to shame when it comes to French. She can rattle off French idioms almost as well as she can rattle the keys of a typewriter. It's too bad we didn't have a posture drive this semester so Irene could carry off more honors.

Northeast School. Girls' League 2, 3; French Club 3, 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Freshman Glee Club; Eighty-word Gregg Speed Test 4; Class Book Typist.

CECILIA E. ROACH

"Ceil"

Life only avails, not the having lived.

—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Celia's deep-blue Irish eyes are always smiling and serene. Her easy-going manner and unruffled temper are a joy to behold on cold, rainy Mondays when the rest of us are grouchy and ill-tempered.

Saint Joseph's School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Vesta Club 4. Never late.

MARY E. ROBERTS

"Maizie"

You've taken me up wrong.—Lloyd Osbourne.

Who was your devoted swain, Mary, on Lower Senior Night? It isn't fair to keep secrets from your classmates. All who know Mary find her a true pal and loyal friend.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Girls' League 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3; Athletic Association 2, 3; Mosaic Club 3, 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 4. Never late.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

MARY E. ROBINSON

"Tony"

True love of country is not mere blind partisanship.

—Elihu Root.

Mary's hobby is collecting green jewelry. Around St. Patrick's Day she might do well to establish a lending jewel-box. During her lower senior semester, she transferred to Weaver from H. P. H. S., but she soon realized her mistake and showed up at H. P. H. S. next day.

Alfred E. Burr School.

New York University.

EMORY F. ROBOTHAM

"Em"

Blessed be agriculture!—if one does not have too much of it.

—Charles Dudley Warner.

"Whotta figure, whotta build!" We all look up to "Farmer." His big frame is filled with cheerfulness and comradeship. To his teachers, "Em" may be the light that almost failed, but he will always burn bright in our memories of H. P. H. S.

Noah Webster School. Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Chess Club 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3; Lower Senior Night Program.

Norwich University.

LEWIS C. ROCHE

"Lew"

I have always given a friendly welcome to new ideas.

—Peter Cooper.

"Lew" is an enthusiastic "mashie swinger" during the golfing season, but in the winter he puts his pep into the "Owlet." He leads the field in interviewing noted men and in this line he has brought fame to himself. "Lew's" ambition is to "cover" Mayor "Jimmie" Walker or Will Rogers.

Northeast School. Hopkins Debating Club 4; Boys' Club 4; Athletic Association 3, 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 4; Freshman Glee Club; Boys' Glee Club 4; "Owlet" Editorial Board 3, 4, Managing Editor 4, Delegate to Columbia Scholastic Press Association Convention in New York 4.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

ROBERT A. ROLFE

"Bob"

His neighbors he did not abuse,
Was sociable and gay.—Albert G. Greene.

"Bobby's" weakness, like many another's, lies in toys that squeak when squeezed. He was once reveling in this pastime when a teacher came along. One can easily imagine his embarrassment. When you meet him in the corridors, his unfailing grin sends you happily on your way.

Northwest School. Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 2, 3, 4. Never late.

LIBBYE S. ROME

"Bibye"

We see not, know not; all our way
Is night.—John Greenleaf Whittier.

We all like, admire, and enjoy "Lib." She is an unusual girl; not only is she good in her studies, but she also has an admirable sense of humor, which is quite evident to those who are in her classes and to the teachers.

Northeast School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 2; Vesta Club 3, 4, President 4; Girls' Swimming Team 2, 3; Class Basketball Team 1, 2. Never late.

Comptometer School.

BURTON B. ROSENFELD

"Rosey"

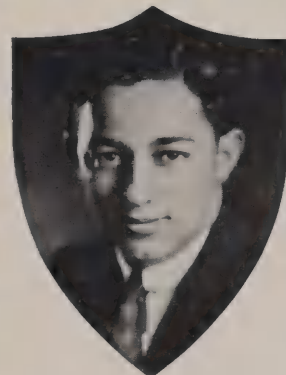

Work with a stout heart and resolute will!

—Frances S. Osgood.

"Rosie" is one of the boys who does a task thoroughly and well, so if you want anything done, consult him and he will solve your problem. As for blowing up balloons, he is a genius; and of course we mustn't forget his brilliant career as a football player at Elizabeth Park.

Noah Webster School. Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board 1, 2; Class Basketball Team 1; Class Football Team 1; Class Track Team 1; Lower Senior Night Committee.

Boston University.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

ELEANOR A. ROURICK

"El"

Time hath his work to do and we have ours.

—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Eleanor likes to read good books. So do we, only "good" books seem rather scarce at present. But all fooling aside, we should like to know why English gives her so much trouble. Is it the teacher?

Chauncey Harris School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 2.

ARLINE F. RUMLEY

"Arle"

I want to hang a smile in front of me.—Wallace Irwin.

This little girl has suffered all the trials and tribulations of letting hair grow. She has had a hard time keeping it up, especially after a "gym" class. However, she has lived through it without having either her jolly disposition or her high rank in studies affected.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; K. B. L. S. 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 3, 4. Never late, never absent, no demerits.

Saint Francis Hospital Training School.

ANTOINETTE T. SALVATORE

No person will have occasion to complain of the want of time who never loses any.—Thomas Jefferson.

We all like Antoinette and especially admire her intellectual ability because she outshines most of us in our studies. We hear that she intends to become a teacher. Of course we can't expect her pupils to have the record she has in deportment.

Richard J. Kinsella School. Girls' League 3, 4; French Club 4. No demerits.

New Britain Normal School.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

PAUL T. SAYERS

"Salty"

Being a sincere man, he was modest.—J. Brooks Atkinson.

Few can hold a candle to Paul in the scholastic line. In the field of athletics, he is an example of that enviable spirit of "win or lose, but be a good sport". We give this lad a demerit for his bashfulness and call him a mighty fine classmate.

Saint Peter's School. French Club 4; National Honor Society 3, 4; School Track Team 2, 3, 4; Second Scholarship Prize 1; First Scholarship Prize 2; Book Prize 2; Head Junior Usher and Marshal. Never late.

Villanova College.

FREDERICK L. SCHUMM

The more he made, the more he spent.—Washington Irving.

"Freddy" was the efficient business associate for the "Owlet." As is true with all good business men, there is a social side of his life. His girl friends will tell you that he is one of the best dancers in the class. The next time you see him, note his dimples, they're enviable.

Noah Webster School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 3, 4, Senior Member of Executive Committee 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Science Club 4, Treasurer 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 3, 4; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board 2, 3, 4, Assistant Business Manager 4; School Golf Team 3, 4.

Fordham College.

PAULINE B. SILVERMAN

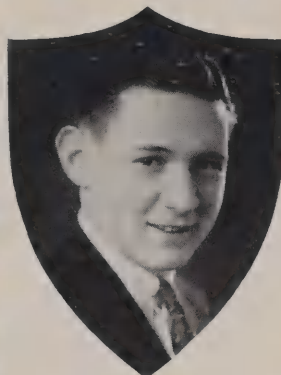

"Sunny"

She was a wonder, and nothing less!

—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

If everybody could smile all the time as Pauline does, this old world would be a pleasant place in which to live. We admire her intellect since she has accomplished that admirable feat of completing her course in three and one-half years.

Chauncey Harris School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; History-Civics Club 4. Never late, no demerits.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

BERNICE B. SIMONS

"Bernie"

Nothing can bring you peace but the triumph of principles.
—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Here's a girl who likes to collect pennies. Well, that's all right; only collecting dollars is much better and worth a great deal more. We wonder if she remembers the time she got a sick pass and then didn't know what to do with it.

Northeast School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2; Vesta Club 4; School Baseball Team 4. Never late.

Maryland College for Women.

EVELYN P. SINGER

"Ev"

It is for us to express love in terms of human helpfulness.
—David Starr Jordan.

It is said that "the early bird catches the worm". If this is true, Evelyn must have enough bait to be a first class angler for she rarely gets to school after 8 a. m. Her very thorough way of doing her work has always brought her good grades in her studies.

Northeast School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Mosaic Club 3, 4; Girls' Biology Club 4. Never late.

Hartford Hospital Training School.

RICHARD P. SMITH

"Dick"

Fate tried to conceal him by naming him Smith.
—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

When it comes to manners, this well-dressed young man could teach us all a few tricks. There are few boys' clubs in which "Dick" hasn't been prominent. His business-like way of running dances is something to be wondered at. A Ford can't beat a Chevrolet, can it, "Dick"?

Nathan Hale, Jr., High School, New Britain. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; National Honor Society 3, 4; Batterson Debate Team 4, Captain 4; Junior Usher; Senior Class Orator. Never late, no demerits.

Northwestern University.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

MICHAEL F. SOCHA

"Mickey"

Always be ready for that which you do not expect.

—E. W. Howe.

"Mickey" has had so much experience in the wood-working department that he could make money by teaching classes. He tells us all the news in the morning when we ask him, because he gets the "Courant" for a certain teacher on his way to school.

Saints Cyril and Methodius School. Boys' Club 2; Tech Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Science Club 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2; Freshman Glee Club.

Georgetown University.

MAURICE J. SPONZO

"Moe"

I am content.—John Q. Adams.

If cleverness were measured by stature, Morris would certainly be greatly misjudged, for, although he is rather small, he has a greater brain capacity than some of the tallest of people. Strange as it may seem, he can handle a team of horses, and you've missed something if you've never seen him in this capacity.

Northeast School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 4; Greek Club 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 3, Vice-President 4; National Honor Society 4; Junior Usher. Never late, no demerits.

Holy Cross.

LAURA J. STEVENSON

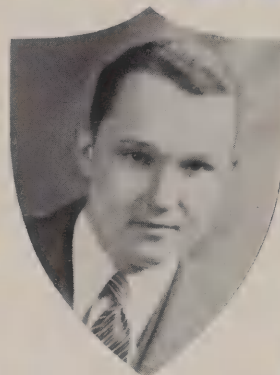

Diligence is the mother of good luck.—Benjamin Franklin.

Neatness is next to cleanliness and "cleanliness is next to Godliness." When one sees Laura's papers, which are so neat, and incidentally correct, he immediately resolves to be neater and more careful himself. She has gained the admiration of her teachers and classmates because of her industrious and careful habits.

New Park Avenue School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 2, 3. No demerits.

A GOULDING 328

1932 B CLASS BOOK

FLORENCE H. B. STRAHL

"Floss"

The world's for all of us.—James Whitcomb Riley.

"Floss" can look quite sophisticated when she wants to, but we like her best as she appears in class. She seems shy, but when one knows her, she is quite interesting and lots of fun. She delights in star gazing.

West Middle School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 2. Never late, never absent.

FLORENCE E. E. STRASKA

"Floss"

I dropped away in dreamful sleep.—Clinton Scollard.

Florence loves to play baseball and she has shown us her proficiency in that sport by winning her sweater for playing on the winning team. Her widely varied hobbies are playing the piano and reading mystery stories.

Saint Joseph's Cathedral School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 4; A Cappella Choir 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 4; Girls' Baseball Team 1, 2, 3, 4; received an "H" in Baseball. Never late, never absent, no demerits.

MARY J. SULLIVAN

They laced her up, they starved her down,
To make her light and small.

—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

We can say this much for Mary; she excels in two things. She won a pen for her shorthand ability and she can skip a class and get away with it, a thing most of us can't accomplish. Perhaps she can give us the secret of her success.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Vesta Club 4. Never late.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

MATTHEW F. SULLIVAN

"Mattie"

When manhood comes, much comes with it.—John Burroughs.

"Mattie" isn't afraid to wear his spatterdashes ("spats" for short) to school. Many of us noticed on Lower Senior Night that he knows how to select his dancing partners. But he didn't take her home and we are wondering why?

Saint Patrick's School. Boys' Club 2; Boys' Commercial Club 2, 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 4; Freshman Glee Club; Boys' Glee Club 4, Vice-President 4; School Tennis Team 2; School Track Team 3; Class Football Team 1. Never late.

Boston University.

FLORENCE C. SURRI

"Flo"

Of simple tastes and mind content!—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

"Flo" is the cleverest girl we know at dressmaking and we have admired her many chic blouses, which goes to show that her ambition to become a designer will surely be fulfilled. She likes to play tennis and she and her "uke" are always popular at gatherings.

Brown School. Girls' League 1, 2; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1.

GURLI E. SVENSON

I love my fellow-men.—John Greenleaf Whittier.

Gurli is of the preferred type. On Lower Senior Night, we all enjoyed her lovely singing. She asks questions and doesn't give up until she is satisfied with the explanation. We hope the habit will continue until the inevitable question is settled.

Wilson Street School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 4; Science Club 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2; Freshman Glee Club; Girls' Baseball Team 4; Class Basketball Team 3; received an "H" in Basketball 3.

Hospital Training School.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

GLICKA R. TAYLOR

"Dick"

One today is worth two tomorrows.—Benjamin Franklin.

Glicka is always hurrying around in a daze. She is never idle and is active in the Greek and Senior Dramatic Clubs. Because she is very modest, you probably do not know that she is a clever toe-dancer. Her pet subject is Physics.

Arsenal School. Athena 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; Greek Club 2, 3, 4, President 4; Science Club 3, 4; Reception Usher 3.

College.

THOMAS M. TIERNEY

"Tom"

The greatest good a man can do is to cultivate himself.
—Marshall Field.

Although studying is not one of "Tommy's" strong points, it does not seem to bother him very much. He goes in for swimming, and the swimming team is thankful for his pluck and endurance, two things he seems to have in abundance.

Saint Patrick's School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Science Club 3, 4; School Swimming Team 4; School Track Team 3, 4.

Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

THEODORE TOBIAS

"Zeke"

You are uneasy; you never sailed with me before, I see.
—Andrew Jackson.

"Teddy's" Waterloo is American History. His victory comes, however, when he leads us in our cheers against New Britain. He likes to fool around with outboard motor boats and surf-boards. "Teddy" owns a racing boat which is named "The Silver Fox."

Northwest School. Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; German Club 1, 2; School Cheerleader 3; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4. Never late.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

PHILIP TOMARES

"Speed"

I am afraid I did the greater part of the talking.

—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

"Phil" has the idea he has a brilliant business head, and consequently thinks he ought to be a Wall Street broker. He has begun at the bottom of the ladder of success by practicing salesmanship on his fellow students.

Arsenal School. Hopkins Debating Club 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Chess Club 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board 4; Class Basketball Team 1, 2; Class Football Team 1; Class Track Team 1; Assistant Basketball Manager 2.

University of West Virginia.

FLORENCE E. TRAMONTE

"Flo"

One would rather live a year than vegetate for a century.

—Edward Howard Griggs.

The fact that "Flo" has skipped two-thirds of her "gym" lessons and escaped with only a few ciphers and a mark of fifty has caused much wonder and bewilderment among her classmates. It is said that the girls envy her because she possesses a portrait of our football captain.

Arsenal School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Vesta Club 3, 4; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board 1, 2, 3, 4, Business Associate 4.

Culver-Smith Kindergarten Training School.

SALVATORE J. TRANTOLO

"Duke"

Drive thy Business, let not that drive thee.

—Benjamin Franklin.

Who would have recognized Salvatore as the very "dusky" witness of "The Divorce Court" on Lower Senior Night? His peculiar strut across the stage amused us all. We understand that he studies a great deal, but we know that he also has his moments for pleasure.

Northeast School. Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2; H. P. H. S. Choir 2; Lower Senior Night Program. Trinity.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

IDA J. URCIUOLI

"Ditty"

Thoughts came quick and fast.—May McHenry.

Ida enjoys a sport that few of the modern girls do, and that is hiking. She will never forget the day when she was just about to slap a teacher on the back, thinking her one of her girl friends.

Brown School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1. Never late.
Maryland College for Women.

LUCY C. VERNILE

"Lee"

Great minds have purposes.—Washington Irving.

Lucy is active when it comes to such activity as dancing and skating, even if she seems reserved in school. Her ambition is, without a doubt, to become the private secretary of some bank president.

Saint Joseph's Cathedral School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 4; History-Civics Club 4; Class Book Typist. Never late, no demerits.

JOSEPHINE M. VOGEL

"Jo"

A word in the hand is worth two in the ear.

—Carolyn Wells.

We all appreciate "Jo's" remarkable wit, since her humorous remarks have made many dull classes most interesting to those about her. Her appropriate, ultra-smart frocks are certainly admired by the upper seniors.

Noah Webster School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4. Never late.
College.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

WILLIAM F. VUJS "Wooley"

As he proceeded and warmed up to his subject, a wondrous change came over him.—William Wirt Henry.

"Wooley" with his marvelous physique and athletic aspirations ought to be able to land a job like "Johnny" Newell's. As a future track coach we can see "his boys" running away with the bacon."

Richard J. Kinsella School. Boys' Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; German Club 2, 3; School Track Team 3, 4.

American College of Physical Education.

FULVIA M. WASHBURNE "Ful"

Beauty seen is never lost.—John Greenleaf Whittier.

Fulvia's exotic charm and personality have caused many a manly heart to beat wildly. This girl has been an incentive to many of us because of her unfailing neatness and gracious manners which, without doubt, have much to do with her ever increasing popularity.

Noah Webster School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; K. B. L. S. 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Mosaic Club 3, 4; Student Council 1; H. P. H. S. Choir 3, 4; Freshman Glee Club; School Tennis Team 2, 3; Class Tennis Team 2, 3; Pin and Ring Committee.

Miss Marchant's Secretarial School.

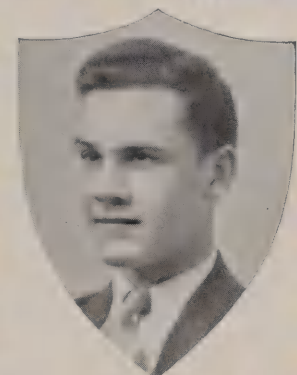

KATHERINE R. WATERS "Kay"

Why will she train that winter curl
In such a spring-like way?

—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Rain or shine, Katherine's hair is always wavy. Her curly, raven locks would make a good advertisement for some permanent waving concern. She likes nothing better than to get a good novel or an exciting book of adventure and read, undisturbed, until the book is finished.

West Middle School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 2, 3; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4. Never late, no demerits.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

MARY S. WATSON

"May"

Then I grabbed that dictionary and I sped its pages through.
—Tom Masson.

Here is a girl whom everybody likes because she is always so willing to do whatever she is asked. "May" openly admits that she detests "gym". Her worries will soon be over when she becomes a secretary since her only exercise then will be pounding the keys.

Roger Wolcott School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; History-Civics Club 3, 4, Treasurer 3, Secretary 4; School Tennis Team 2, 3; Class Tennis Team 2, 3.

JOHN H. WELCH, JR.

"Jack"

I profess not to know how women's hearts are wooed and won.—Washington Irving.

"Gentlemen prefer blondes," and we know "Jack" is a gentleman. However, this hero on the football field is admired by all. But who wouldn't admire such an illustrious halfback? He is also an actor of no mean ability, but one would never think to see him on the stage that some day he may be a bluejacket in the Navy.

West Middle School. Boys' Club 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4, Stage Manager 3, 4, Member of Executive Committee 3, 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; School Football Team 2, 3, 4; received an "H" in Football 2, 3, 4; School Swimming Team 1, 2, 3, 4; received an "H" in Swimming 3, 4; School Track Team 3; Class Football Team 1; Class Track Team 2; Reception Usher 3; Chairman of Reception Committee.

LENA WERINKOFF

"Lee"

Oh, slow to smite and swift to spare.

—William Cullen Bryant.

Lena seems to be somewhat of a business lady. At least she has quite an aptitude for bookkeeping and business. It's fortunate that business people don't need history for if they did she would be out of luck.

Henry Barnard School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 4; Vesta Club 3, 4; "Chronicle-Owlet" Business Board 4. Never late.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

ANNA H. WEST

"Ann"

I do not remember that in my whole life I ever wilfully misrepresented anything to anybody at any time.

—J. Pierpont Morgan.

"Ann" ought to be a diplomat. She can tell us all about our government in Washington. But just now she seems to prefer being an assistant librarian to Miss Bates. She is always accommodating when one is looking for a book in a hurry.

West Middle School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 2, 4; History-Civics Club 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 3, 4. Never late, no demerits.

FRANK D. WHALEN

I went to the dances.—Edgar Lee Masters.

We can't make up our minds whether he's a "Bing" Crosby, Jr., or an Eddie Cantor, but anyway this "song and uke" man sang his way into many a heart on Lower Senior Night. Someday perhaps this versatile young man will be singing behind the "mike". Who can tell?

Northeast School. Athletic Association 1, 2; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Freshman Glee Club; Lower Senior Night Program. Never late.

Annapolis.

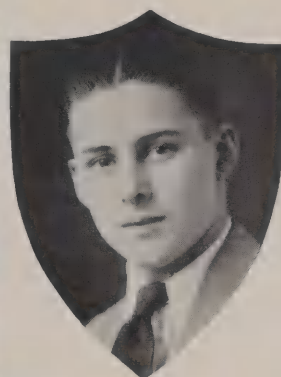

WILLIAM A. WHITE

"Whity"

How the boy enjoys his food, his sleep, his sports, his companions, his truant days!—John Burroughs.

"Whity" cannot be compared with any of our radio crooners who play saxophones, pianos, and like instruments. He spends some of his spare time trying to break the strings of his violin and merely succeeds in getting the worst possible sounds out of it.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Athletic Association 1, 2; Science Club 3, 4.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

GLADYS E. WHITEHEAD

"Laddie"

All mankind loves a lover.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

If there were a prize given for the greatest vamp of the class, Gladys would certainly receive it, for many a youth has fallen for her blue eyes and her golden locks. Doubtless that was why she was chosen to be the "cruel" wife in the "Divorce Trial." She also possesses a sweet soprano voice as members of the A Cappella Choir have discovered.

Alfred E. Burr School. Athena 2; Girls' League 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4; German Club 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Freshman Glee Club; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Lower Senior Night Program.

ABRAHAM A. WILLEN

"Abe"

A mixture of innocence and wisdom makes him ever seriously cheerful.—Benjamin Franklin.

Here's a toast to "Abe", our erstwhile sports editor, French student, debater, judge, and "what have you?" The school has done much for "Abe" and he has done his share for the school. His enthusiastic support of our teams in his sports columns was undoubtedly reflected in our 1931 athletic successes.

Henry Barnard School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 3, 4, Chairman of Executive Committee 4, Treasurer 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 2; Science Club 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2; Junior Orchestra 2; "Owlet" Editorial Board 2, 4, Sports Editor 4; Lower Senior Night Program. Never late.

CORNELIA M. WINIALSKI

"Connie"

'Tis type of all the artist tribe.—Kenyon Cox.

"Connie" is a prominent member and staunch supporter of the Mosaic and Sketch clubs. She goes about everything in an enthusiastic and forceful way and so accomplishes more than the average individual.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3; Sketch Club 3, 4; Mosaic Club 3, 4, Secretary-Treasurer 3, President 4; Class Book Art Committee. Never late.

1932 B CLASS BOOK

JEANNETTE E. WOOLLEY

"Jean"

The ripest peach is highest on the tree.

—James Whitcomb Riley.

"Jean" was an attractive and capable waitress at the Boys' Club suppers and she didn't spill the soup or drop the buns. Incidentally, "Jean" plans to study dietetics when she leaves school. We are curious to know where she found the attentive young man on Lower Senior Night.

West Middle School. Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Commercial Club 3, 4; Vesta Club 4; Junior Orchestra 3, 4.

A GOULDING 3RB

WESLEY G. WRIGHT

"Wes"

Justice, sir, is the great interest of man on earth.

—Daniel Webster.

"Wes" is a stamp collector. That might not seem strange but the funny part is that he collects unused ones. He claims he wants to be an accountant because he likes figures. We don't know what kind of figures he likes, but such a thing shouldn't enter into the question at all.

Washington Street School. Boys' Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; School Baseball Team 4; School Track Team 4. Never late.

ARTHUR G. YATES

"Art"

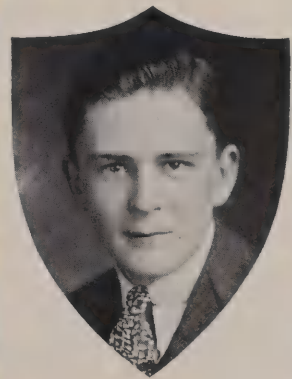

With the sure sagacity of a leader of men.

—George W. Curtis.

A peach of a chap! Unassuming, steady going, and thorough, "Art" has already found a warm spot in the hearts of his friends and classmates. The only trouble with Yates is that he works in the bookroom.

New Park Avenue School. Boys' Club 3, 4, President 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; Science Club 4; National Honor Society 4; School Track Team 4; Class Track Team 3, 4. Never late, never absent.

Wesleyan.

CLASS BOOK

HENRY APPELBAUM

I am young and unknown to many of you.

—Abraham Lincoln.

Henry came to Hartford High from New Britain just in time to get familiar with our football team before that renowned victory over the Red and Gold. Since he has been here such a short time, we do not know a great deal about him, but we're glad to welcome him to the ranks of '32B.

New Britain Senior High School. Never late.

PATRICK J. BATTAGLER

"Pat"

It hain't no use to grumble and complain.

—James Whitcomb Riley.

We certainly admire the way "Pat" signs his report card. But this is just another way in which he shows his individuality. His strong point is mathematics, a subject in which he shines.

Henry Barnard School.

ANTONIO J. BERUBE

"Tonie"

I always kept them guessing.—Corinne Roosevelt Robinson.

If it weren't for his size, "Tonie" would probably be on our school football team. He excels in mathematics and French. He must have a lot of tricks up his sleeve for he's an amateur magician. If he ever gets as far as stage performances, his ability to dodge will come in very handy.

Saint Ann's School. Tech Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4.

JOHN CARTELLI

"Johnny"

To take things as they be—

That's my philosophy.

—John Kendrick Bangs.

As long as "Johnny" arrives before 8.45 he considers himself on time. If we take the number of call slips he receives as evidence, John must be the most popular boy in Hartford High with certain members of the faculty.

Henry Barnard School.

J. ROGER CLARK

"Jim"

The heart of man is written upon his countenance.

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

If you ever see a speed boat clipping the waves at a stupendous speed, you will not go far wrong in guessing that it is Roger. He also has a hobby of collecting stamps, which we suppose he engages in when the weather is unfavorable for outboard motoring.

Noah Webster School. Mosaic Club 4, Publicity Manager 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2; Mosaic Club Poster Contest Prize 3; Fire Prevention Essay Contest.

CLASS BOOK

CARROLL R. CLEWLEY

"Props"

Saddle-leather is in some respects even preferable to sole-leather.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Hats off to our able and efficient stage manager. "Props" and the Broad Street stage seem inseparable in our minds. Some day he will be a "big man" behind the scenes of a theatrical show and his success will be well deserved.

Technical High School, Springfield, Massachusetts. Stage Manager 4; Lower Senior Night Stage Manager.

Yale School of Fine Arts.

EDWARD F. CZERNICKI

"Ed"

His nature is stern, simple, and enduring.

—Washington Irving.

"Ed" tries to toot out some music on his "sax" once in a while, and we hope he has better luck with that than he has with his English. Although he isn't in many sports, he says he gets quite a "kick" out of skating.

Saints Cyril and Methodius School. Athletic Association 1, 4; Boys' Biology Club. Never late.

DAVID GOTHOLD

"Dave"

My country is the world;
My countrymen are mankind.

—William Lloyd Garrison.

"Dave" is always on the go, it seems, for he's either busy with his many club activities or the track team occupies his time. He expects to go into the government service, but not as a politician for you see he's too honest for that.

Arsenal School. Boys' Club 4; Boys' Commercial Club 4; Science Club 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 3, 4; "Owlet" Editorial Board 3; School Track Team 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Basketball Team 1, 2; Class Football Team 1, 2; Class Track Team 1, 2, 3.

MATTHEW J. HINES

"Matt"

The world is his tool-chest.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

"Matt" will always remember the day, when as a candidate for the football team, he was stepped on by the one and only Joe Coffey. He is a radio enthusiast and has filled his house with old sets and parts until one can hardly move without doing some damage.

Saint Patrick's School. Tech Club 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Science Club 3, 4. Never late.

CLASS BOOK

FOLMER E. JENSEN

When a fair lady asks his pardon!

—Corinne Roosevelt Robinson.

Folmer is the tall, dignified chap in Room 31. He hails from the wild and woolly West, from the big open spaces where a man's a man and mighty glad of it. This is probably the reason why he enjoys his own company and doesn't care much for the ladies.

East High School, Des Moines, Iowa. Never absent.

RICHARD P. KOCHER

"Dick"

Never leave that till tomorrow which you can do today.

—Benjamin Franklin.

"Dick" is reserved, but he produces some very fine artistic work. We can never forget the day when a certain teacher told him to report his first demerit. He couldn't think up any good reason to get out of reporting it and we don't think he has thought of one yet.

Northeast School. Sketch Club 3, 4, Business Manager 4; School Soccer Team 3, 4. Never late.

ARTHUR T. LEVINSON

"Art"

I'll try, sir.—Captain James Lawrence.

Where would the swimming team be without "Art"? His consistent winning has brought much credit to the school. We remember that memorable Batterson debate in which he argued vehemently for capital punishment and made amusing references to the apple vendors. But a fig for the apple vendors, "Art's" all right.

Henry Barnard School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 3, 4, Chairman of Executive Committee 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; "Owl" Editorial Board 3, 4, Sports Editor 4; School Swimming Team 1, 2, 3, 4, Manager 4; Class Swimming Team 1, 2, 3, 4; received an "H" in Swimming 3, 4; Batterson Prize Debate 3, 4.

Yale.

RAYMOND C. LOWERY

Whatso'er my fate, I shall not care!—William Winter.

When "Ray's" radio club fell through, H. P. H. S. was the loser, for this fellow is a state-wide figure in radio circles. His amateur radio station has put Hartford on the map. "Ray's" knowledge has brought many friends to him and because of his personality he has kept them. After school hours he "takes the air."

Saint Joseph's School.

CLASS BOOK

FRANCIS J. McLAUGHLIN

"Mac"

The youth enjoys what the man tries to understand.

—John Burroughs.

"Frank" has seen many years pass by in this great high school of ours. We wonder if his sister curls his hair for him, or is it a permanent? He seems to hide when the girls get near him; maybe he is only pretending that he is bashful.

Immaculate Conception School. Athletic Association 1, 2, 3. Never late.

DON C. MOLLOY

"Don"

Don is a very talented fiddler and his original compositions in harmony class deserve a great deal of credit. It wasn't until a few weeks ago that he decided to graduate in June, but we are glad to welcome him into our class.

Windsor High School. Athletic Association 4; H. P. H. S. Orchestra 3, 4; Inter-High Orchestra 4.

THEODORE J. PAPRZYCA

"Teddy"

You don't have to preach honesty to men with a creative purpose.—Walter Lippmann.

"Teddy" is a hard working fellow who spends his time in a bakery and he says that if he gets money enough he will probably go into the business since there's plenty of "dough" in it. At grammar school he was quite a student and even entered the Spelling Bee.

New Park Avenue School. Boys' Club 4; Boys' Commercial Club 4; Athletic Association 1, 2.

ALBERT A. PATERNOSTRO

"Pat"

Each and every man ought to interest himself in public affairs.—Marshall Field.

"Pat" is one of our high-pressure salesmen, and people in the neighborhood of Sigourney Street are glad he knows his "onions." He probably figures his sales by a process of Geometry, Physics, brains, and personality. He has bowled his way successfully through the ranks of his former comrades, the P. G.'s.

Saint Patrick's School. Boys' Club 1, 2; Athletic Association 1, 2.

Trinity.

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

ALICE L. PLUMB

Fly Pleasures, and they'll follow you.—Benjamin Franklin.

Although she has been with us for only two years, she has made a place for herself in our school. She is active in many clubs and is especially adept at horseback riding. Alice hails from the wild and woolly West, where men are men and women know how to ride.

Wyandotte High School, Kansas City, Kansas. Girls' League 3, 4; K. B. L. S. 3, 4, Secretary 4; French Club 4; National Honor Society 4; Graduation Speaker. Never absent, never late, no demerits.

MARY V. RAINEY

And I shall triumph, or be lost in endless sleep.

—William Winter.

As a business woman, Mary is not at all bad, but as a physiology student, well, you know how it is. Even though she is frolicsome and sociable at times, she likes to be alone to read detective stories.

Our Lady of Sorrows School. Never late.

ARTHUR E. ROGERS

"The Great One"

Must a man afford himself no leisure?—Benjamin Franklin.

This is the tall young man who dreams away the hours in the French classes and then surprises every one by getting up and reeling off long lines of flawless composition. We hear that "Art" is quite a banjo player and he certainly is a convincing debater.

Northwest School. H. P. H. S. Debating Club 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; H. P. H. S. Choir 3; School Baseball Team 3; School Football Team 1; School Golf Team 1, 2, 3, 4, Captain 3; Class Football Team 1.

University of Southern California.

MAX ROSENBERG

He is a little chimney and heated hot in a moment.

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

Max is queer in some ways, for although he used to spend almost as much time in the office as Mr. Allen, he seems to have acquired a dislike for the office lately. There's no doubt that after bell-hopping for important personages, he looks down on us commoners.

Northeast School. Athletic Association 1, 2.

LOIS T. TILLMAN

Time is but the stream I go a-fishing in.

—Henry David Thoreau.

Lois used to have the "gym" teacher guessing. Every other week she and her sister would take turns staying out until the instructor asked them if they had only one suit between them. The next week both came with suits on.

Northeast School. Girls' League 1, 2.

CLASS BOOK

CLASS NIGHT PROGRAM

June 17, 1932

ADDRESS OF WELCOME.....	John Edward Gallivan
ORATION—"Choosing a Vocation".....	Richard Parker Smith
VIOLIN SOLOS.....	Grace Lorraine Martineau
ESSAY—"Steps to Popularity".....	Edith Augusta Holt
POEM—"Vision".....	Richard Xavier Goggin
SONG.....	The Class
Words and Music by Beatrice Ruth Cohen
HISTORY.....	Julia Virginia Quinn and Thomas Irving Jensen, Jr.
SONG.....	The Class
Words by Richard Xavier Goggin Music by Grace Lorraine Martineau
PROPHECY.....	Margaret Elizabeth Burke and Richard Xavier Goggin
TRIO....	Grace Lorraine Martineau, William Marshall Nelson, Rose Melnick
THE CLASS WILL.....	Jane Gray Alton and Thomas Patrick Geoghegan
SCHOOL SONG.....	The Class

GRADUATION PROGRAM

June 27, 1932

Prelude, by Hadley—The Orchestra

SALUTATORY.....	Oliver Chapman Mellen
THE GOLDEN THREAD IN MY WEB OF LIFE.....	Jennie Margaret Bogdan
STONE WALLS.....	Robert Townsend Gagnon
THE VICTORIAN.....	Alice Louise Plumb
Extase, by Ganne—The Orchestra
HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF.....	Jacob Coleman Hurewitz
THE REVELATION OF A COUNTRY VILLAGE.....	Clara Esther Cohen
A PLACE FOR THE DREAMER.....	Barnaby Conrad Keeney
VALEDICTORY.....	Martin Albert Gilman

Whims, by Schumann—The Orchestra

PRESENTATION OF DIPLOMAS

AWARDING OF PRIZES

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

Address of Welcome

JOHN EDWARD GALLIVAN

PARENTS, TEACHERS, AND CLASSMATES:

Antony once said, "The evil that men do lives after them; the good is oft interred with their bones." However, we, the Class of 1932B, will disprove this statement. Hartford Public High School will for some time benefit by our work here as we have benefited by her teachings.

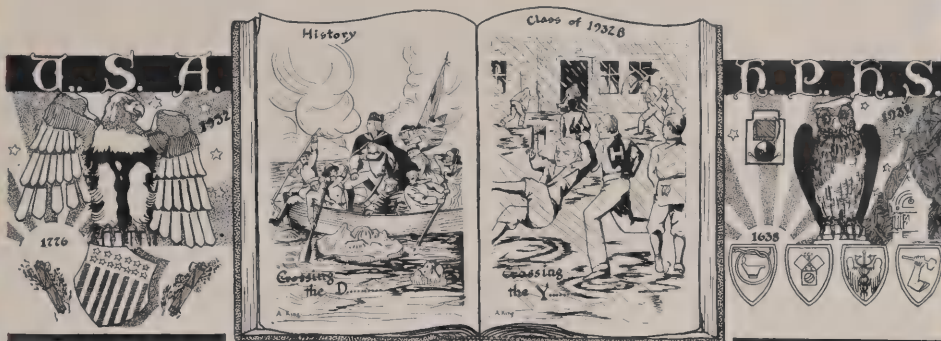

For four years we have listened to the classes before us praise themselves and what they have done. We, however, are content in the knowledge that we have spent our years wisely. We do not spend our time singing our own praises, but let others do it for us. This is indeed a true indication of greatness.

We have in a short measure tasted of life—its joys and sorrows, its victories and defeats. We have been joyful when we earned our A's and B's as we have been doleful when we earned our E's and F's. We have tasted of defeat and of victory; the taste of victory leaves a desire for more. In a short time we shall be out among you in business and in pleasure. It is our aim to continue the good work we have begun here and to do our bit to make this country a bigger, better, and happier place in which to live.

Tonight we have taken the platform for the purpose of discussing, in a light-hearted and humorous manner, the Class of 1932B. Everything will be in the spirit of fun. It is our aim to make this occasion one of the happier memories we shall look back upon.

It is indeed with great pleasure that I welcome you in behalf of the Class of 1932B to this, our Class Night.

1932B

Oration

RICHARD P. SMITH

CHOOSING A VOCATION

HERE comes a time, in the life of every man when he must make the supreme decision of his life-work. Choosing one's career is always a serious problem. Success is at stake. Helping the world take a step up in the ladder of civilization is the goal. It all rests on one decision made early in life.

A vocation which will make a satisfactory life-work cannot and must not be chosen in a moment. It should be selected only after the most extensive and intensive observation and thought; and unless one has a decided bent for some particular line of endeavor, he should defer his decision until his horizon has been widened. It is to the interest of the individual and of the country as a whole that each person enter that field of business to which he belongs.

Some are more fortunate than others in securing higher forms of education; but almost everybody is able to have at least a high school education. When entering high school, one should take great care in selecting his studies. As far as possible subjects should be chosen which have a more or less direct bearing on the occupation in which the student plans to engage. If planning to enter college, there are certain subjects one must take; but if planning to follow one of the "trades", there are other courses which are much more beneficial. Everybody should study in high school with the purpose of laying a foundation for his future plans, whether they call for a more extensive education or for an immediate entrance into his life-work.

When one is fortunate enough to have the opportunity to take a college course or obtain a specialized education, the vocation to be chosen should run along professional or technical lines. There are indeed many possibilities for the man who has the advantage of an extensive education. Today one has to be careful not to choose an over-crowded profession; but as the openings in the scientific world are unlimited, wonderful opportunities are afforded every man.

A vital factor which should be carefully considered in choosing one's career is the matter of personal desires and impressions. Every man should seek enjoyment in his work just as he does in his play. The man who hates his job never makes a success of it, no matter how rapidly material wealth may accumulate from it.

It is a very prevalent idea that each person is adapted for one particular vocation, and one alone; and if that person does not choose that vocation, he will be an utter failure. This is not true. It is not the choosing of one's life's work which makes success, but what the individual puts into it. The average person probably would be able to succeed equally well in two or three different vocations in which he is interested.

The most important question one should ask himself before choosing a career is, "With my aptitudes, in what line of endeavor shall I render the greatest service to the world?" After all, material wealth is only secondary. One should try to discover the great needs of the race, and prepare to serve those needs. A great many people think that the only purpose of an education is to make money. All they think of is, "How much shall I profit from what I learn?" They do not stop to think that the chief object in acquiring an education is not what one gets personally, but what one can give to make the life of his fellow-men happier and more prosperous. It has been this greed for money and personal betterment that has brought on the terrible state of affairs which is now present. Therefore, each one of us should do everything possible to prevent such a calamity's recurring in the future. The prosperity and advancement of the world rests on the shoulders of each one of us.

CLASS BOOK

Essay

EDITH A. HOLT

STEPS TO POPULARITY

POPULARITY might seem to be a rare virtue bestowed by nature on a chosen few, but that does not mean that we who have not been so gifted must necessarily sit back unnoticed; for I believe that valuable asset can be acquired. Some of our great men and women have been admired for certain particular qualities they have possessed, such as those of a good general, or statesman, or lecturer, while others have gained their renown through a field in which they have been successful, such as literature, science, or athletics. But all widely esteemed people, to keep their popularity and to be remembered for any length of time, must have a certain personal charm about them.

Before starting along the road of popularity, there are, in my opinion, only six essentials you should have packed ready to take with you. Each one of these is equally valuable, so I am not placing them in any order of their importance. Some of these qualities, I think, we need not worry about, for most of us are gifted with them, either very noticeably, or in a manner that they must be discovered through some special duty peculiar to each individual. With others we need to show a little more care. The first is unselfishness, a willingness to forget self in the interests of others.

1932B

Nobody has any use for the egotist who translates everything in terms of himself, telling how he would act under certain circumstances, and what he would have said. Children are naturally selfish and must be trained not to put themselves in the foreground, but to regard the concerns of others first. This they generally learn easily, and the quality becomes more apparent out of necessity as they grow older, for they come to see a certain interdependence between themselves and their friends, which fosters unselfishness.

Closely related to this attribute is that of an unassuming manner, not boasting about what you are or have or can do. For instance some mothers are very much wrapped up in their children. I once heard of a woman who made herself a bore by everlastingly bragging about how well-mannered her little daughter was, how clever she was in school, and how she was never allowed to play in the dirt. In reality the child was very priggish. Then there are men who know everything, about everything and are always on hand to offer advice. They tell, usually more than once, of the time they gave the boss a piece of their mind, or how they very cleverly got out of a difficult situation. We can be thankful that there are not many of this type of person. It's really refreshing after that to know someone with a natural, unassuming air who is willing to listen sympathetically, and is not always talking about "me." For it is a trait of human nature not to want to hear the other person's tale, but to tell one's own. This may give the impression that it is hard to know what to do—but I think it can be managed with little difficulty by using tact.

Another essential is a controlled tongue that refrains from gossip and needless criticism, and speaks in kindness. Gossip is generally attributed to women, but I think it can also be applied elsewhere with justification. It is easy to acquire the habit of making a disparaging remark about everyone, but it is just as easy to form a habit of criticising favorably, noticing a redeeming feature instead of a fault.

It is not enough to be friendly only with those of one's own age, but one must have sincere friendliness toward people of all ages. I'll admit that usually a very old person is not quite so interesting as a younger one, but it is well to remember that we shall all be there ourselves some day, and shall expect deference and consideration from those inferior in years. This friendliness cannot be superficial, but must go so deep as to be really felt, for its sincerity can usually be detected.

For persons of a shy nature, the ability to be at ease under various conditions at all times may be found difficult. Yet this is essential, for people who are uneasy in certain company give the appearance of being rather stiff and bored, when in reality they are probably trying their best to make or to take part in the conversation, and to appear perfectly cool. This attitude can be attained only by experience and a conscientious effort to overcome the trouble.

The last requisite is trustworthiness, so that others will know you will keep confidences, and that your word is as good as your bond. This is of great importance, for once let a friend know you have broken your word, and it is not likely you will be trusted again. One of the best ways of complimenting a person is to confide in him, and I'm sure no one would want to lose the respect of a friend by betraying his confidence.

So, if on our journey we have a goodly supply of these six things and distribute portions of them here and there, we can be almost sure of reaching our destination—Popularity.

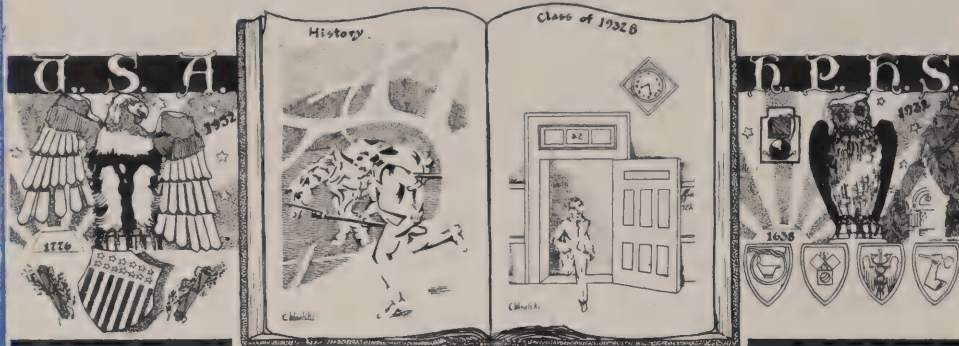

Song

Words and Music by Beatrice G. Cohen

A Coast! A Coast! A Coast for Hart-ford High, For the school that we love so well, For the place where we spent four hap-py years, And to whom we must now say "Farewell," May she live! May she thrive! May she always carry high, The name she has borne so well,
For the name of "Hart-ford High" will never, never, die, Tho' we say "Hart-ford High, Fare-well"

CLASS BOOK

Poem

RICHARD XAVIER GOGGIN

VISION

I longed to mount the summit of a rocky, heaven-climbing wall,
 But was afraid,
 For never had anything seemed so great and I so small;
 Then I prayed
 For courage to climb those jutting, jagged, overhanging rocks.
 It seemed to me
 That friendship gained from pleasant, understanding tasks
 Appeared quietly.
 And love and honor, won from daily, most prosaic deeds,
 Each took my hand,
 Along with thorough tolerance of all religious creeds,
 And waited for my command.
 And so with these beside me, I started my ascent.
 The way was long and rough;
 Yet gaining each new height, I never could repent

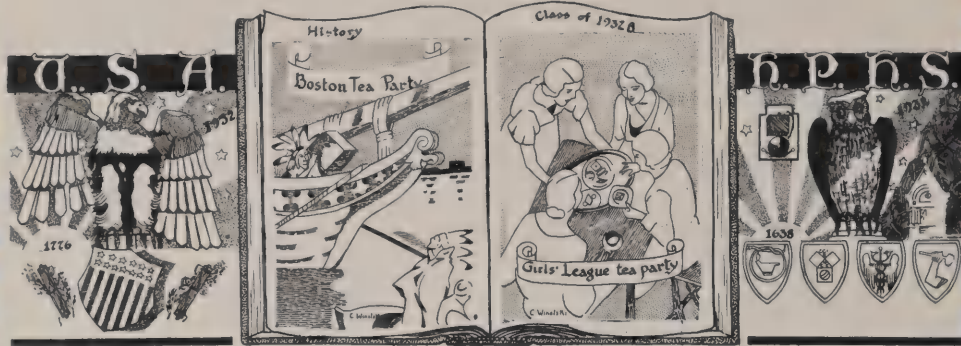

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

One hard-earned bluff.
And as I rose, my mind was filled with ever-burning fire
To reach the sought-for height;
The footholds, trust and justice, helped me in my desire.
I gloried in the fight.
But then on one perilous, misty, slippery ledge
A yielding rock fell,
The rock of one unhonored, wilfully-forgotten pledge,
With the sound of a deathly knell.
Then, like a stricken eagle, I fell through startled air,
And all my lusty hope was gone,
Until Atonement, chance-placed tree, sustained me, O underserved fate, but fair,
Till rested, I continued on.
And finally I'd reached the sought-for peak,
The cherished, tempting prize,
And the summit left me gasping, unbelieving, weak.
My thoughts belied my eyes.
But there erect, upon that hard-earned glory-height
By perseverance bought
Was one who pointed through the shades of coming night
And cried aloud, "Wait not;
Ambition dies in waiting; there's more yet to be gained,
Always a greater battle to be made."
And then I saw in mist a higher summit yet to be attained,
And so pushed on, alone but unafraid.

CLASS BOOK

History

THOMAS I. JENSEN, JR.

JULIA V. QUINN

HE curtain parts, revealing the stage in darkness flooded with blue moonlight. A bench is placed center left. Enter historians, hand in hand. They look at the moon.

Julia—"Pretty, isn't it? Somehow it reminds me of our High School years."

Tom—"How, Julia?"

Julia—"Well, you know, the moon rises, gets brighter and brighter—like us entering high school."

Tom—"Oh, I see. It grows brighter as we did, and that represents our second year."

Julia—"Surely. We got to be Juniors—"

Tom—"And then Seniors—"

Julia—"And the moon was full."

Tom—"And now it sinks and we leave."

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

Julia—"Do you remember how we stayed away from all the dances in our freshman year?"

Tom—"But when the Girls' League started matinee dances, every one turned out."

Julia—"Our first two years were uneventful, weren't they? But the last two—what a difference."

Tom—"That's when we came to life. Our athletes, our actors, our debaters, our artists, our writers, and our musicians—all burst into the limelight."

Julia—"About that time we began to know our teachers better."

Tom—"And got demerits."

Julia—"Remember stunt night? That was a clever idea."

Tom—"There was a Valentine supper by the Boys' Club and Girls' League."

Julia—"The football rallies!"

Tom—"How about the games? Three years in a row beaten by New Britain."

Julia—"But the 1932 game made up for all the others."

Tom—"And most of the boys on that team were from our class—Gallivan, Welch, Foley, O'Leary, and Coffey."

Julia—"Our basketball team and baseball teams were also great. George Giraitis and 'Lefty' Naktenis were our stars there."

Tom—"Oh, and Keeney, Morron, and Sayers were active members of the track team. Keeney was so active that he injured his toe, which necessitated his wearing sneaks which were in keeping with the depression."

Tom—"And don't forget our actresses and actors—'Dick' Goggin and Louise Montgomery."

Julia—"That was a splendid cast which supported them in the spring play. Didn't our demure Lorraine Martineau surprise us in the role of the lipping flapper?"

Tom—"How about our scholars? Martin Gilman, and Oliver Mellen shone in that line."

Julia—"Hilda Prindiville won the Dramatic Club prize with that play that she wrote."

Tom—"We also had a couple of good newspaper men in Boutelle and Entenberg."

CLASS BOOK

Tom—"Yes, and all the skits for Lower Senior Night were written by members of our class."

Julia—"Didn't we have a couple of artists? Those tickets Dana Noble and Tom Griffin designed for the Sketch Club entertainment were good."

Tom—"Didn't 'Jack' Hurewitz and 'Dick' Smith do well in the Batterson Debate?"

Julia—"Yes, they could almost convince you that black is white."

Tom—"One of the greatest achievements of the Musical Department was the formation of the A Cappella Choir."

Julia—"Many members of our class belonged to it."

Tom—"There are many song birds in our class whose natural ability is not appreciated—namely, 'Kay' Britt and 'Jimmy' Hughes."

Julia—"The girls of our class who are members of the Girls' League did much to have the voting machine installed for future elections."

Tom—"I suppose people will say that that's bringing politics into the schools."

Julia—"Our humorists were 'sumpin' too. Such wit and half-wit!"

Tom—"But they added joy to those days of depression—low marks, demerits—"

Julia—"Look! The moon is going under a cloud."

Tom—"Just as graduation brings an end to our years of high school life."

THE CHARTER OAK TREE

Song

Words
Richard X. Goppin

Music
Lorraine Martineau

Oh, Youth has Laughed The hours down through each Light

Foot - ed Year AND Faces gone will be re - call ed though per - sons dis - Ap - pear

Next year Winds of - Des - tin ies will scat - ter us A way Days of Work will fill The hours that once we spent in play

Oth - er Yours with our i - deals will start to do or die AND though this be for ev er

We will cher - ish HART FORD HIGH

MARGARET E. BURKE

RICHARD X. GOGGIN

Delivered by Margaret E. Burke and John H. Welch, Jr.

Scene—A modern office on the sixteenth floor of a skyscraper.

Place—Any large city.

Time—1950.

DOOR at left opens and young man enters breezily.

Young Man (addressing young girl who is working speedily on a typewriter)—“Well, well, well, so this is the palatial office of Stooponyr Keewholes. May I see the boss, fair maiden?”

Fair Maiden (putting gum under desk)—“Not so fast, not so fast. Have you an appointment?”

Y. M.—“I’m Goggin of the Bugle. Mr. Keewholes is expecting me.”

F. M.—“Goggin? Where have I heard that name before? Why, I know—”

Y. M.—“Well, I’ll be—Margaret Burke! What are you doing here?”

CLASS BOOK

F. M.—"What do I look like I'm doing? I'm Mr. Keewhole's private secretary. (Telephone rings.) Hello—who? Oh yes—just a minute. Hello—yes—yes—yes. Is this right? Just a minute. Hello? Mr. Harold N. Pierson inhaled his first cigar last night and is in a critical condition at the Helpful Hospital. Yes. O. K. Goodbye."

D. G.—"Who was that, Margaret?"

M. B.—"One of our assistants. He covers the East Side for dirt, and believe me, there's plenty there."

D. G.—"Say, you must know what's happened to plenty of our class. It certainly was right there when it came to snooping round."

M. B.—"Well, what class wasn't? But, of course in this kind of work, you do get lots of information that you wouldn't know otherwise."

D. G.—"Think you don't? Well, I get quite a lot myself on the Bugle. Here's a choice bit on one of the members of our class that I just got the other day. Mr. Welch, Welch & Welch announces the opening of a new barber shop catering to those only who want the best in beards."

M. B.—"Speaking of barbers, etc., Mary O'Connell and Elinor Koenig have just opened a hair-dressing parlor. Fulvia Washburne will do the manicuring and Arbo Nelson will be janitor."

D. G. (drawing up a chair)—"A classy outfit. N'est-ce pas? (going over to window) "Say that's some sign that's over on that wall. Whom does it belong to?"

M. B.—"Oh, that's an advertisement for Dunky Wunky cigarettes. Louise Montgomery posed for it."

D. G.—"I'll say she posed for it. Did you hear what happened to Boutelle?"

M. B.—"I certainly did. He's the head of the institution at Middletown, isn't he? The inhabitants all call him 'Goofy'. Among the best known attendants there is Carroll Clewley. Anne Cacase is the head nurse."

D. G.—"Boutelle attended a dance in town last week. The feature was an adagio dance by 'Jack' Gallivan and Lydia Noble."

M. B.—"Her brother, Dana Noble, is in the movies. He is a double for some Western hero's horse."

D. G.—" 'Flo' Tramonte and 'Chickie' Folette opened a pool-room recently. 'Flo' racks the balls and 'Chickie' is cashier. Shortell is a frequent visitor."

M. B.—"Did you hear about 'Joe' Coffey dropping dead last week?"

D. G.—"No; what happened?"

M. B.—"They made him a sergeant in the National Guards."

CLASS BOOK

D. G. (picks up newspaper)—"Professor Aron L. Mirsky confounds Albert Einstein in a mammoth battle of wits. 'Dick' Karotkin and Katz served the ice water. Alice Plumb provided an Indian dance during the intermission."

M. B. (Looking out of window and seeing billboard which is an advertisement for a theater)—"Edith Holt, Shirley Pulver, and Edna Hall are all appearing in the coming Broadway play, 'They had to Fight Hard for a Man, but They Got One'."

D. G.—" 'Jack' Hurewitz is posing for Arrow Collar Advertisements. He is making quite a success at it."

M. B.—"I went to a musical comedy last week. It was written by Hilda Prindiville. In the chorus I noticed Mary Cosgrove and Harriet Clinton."

D. G.—" 'Dick' Smith is the buyer of ladies' underwear at Fox's. He specializes in purple. His pal, Fred Schumm, recently nicknamed himself, Caveman Schumm. The name is particularly appropriate."

M. B.—"Theresa Kenny and Ethel Lass are barn-storming around the country. They hold contests in each town in weights and hogs and husband-calling."

D. G.—"I saw in last week's paper where Radigan, Sayers, Morron, Callahan, and Sponzo are putting a petition into Congress through the aid of Congressman Lester C. Gravel in which it stipulates that five may marry the same girl. Immediate results are expected. The girl is Lorraine Martineau."

M. B.—"John O'Leary has a standing challenge that he can break more pieces of furniture in a given time than any other man in the world. No competition has been offered."

D. G.—"Representative Norris C. Drummond is still trying to get a four per cent. beer bill past Congress."

M. B.—"Giraitis and Kardys won the doubles last week in a ping-pong tournament. Kardys fell asleep three times during the match, but Giraitis was asleep all the time."

D. G.—"You remember Hinda Neiditz?"

M. B.—"Yes, she was the girl who grew kind of plump the last two years. Wasn't she?"

D. G.—"Yes, she now holds the place in the hearts of America's millions that formerly belonged to Walter Winchell."

M. B.—"Colonel Joseph R. Dully recently organized a group of Rough Riders and is touring America. In the troop are Emory Robotham and 'Kay' Britt, who is one of America's foremost bareback riders."

CLASS BOOK

D. G.—“Ann Mack and Julia Quinn have written their epitaph already, in order to leave no doubt in the minds of anyone. This is it:

*“Here is Ann Mack and Julia Quinn.
For men they held no terrors.
They lived good girls and died good girls—
No hits, no runs, no errors.”*

M. B.—“Mary Sullivan and ‘Peg’ Kershaw are trying hard to teach their children not to play hookey when spring fever assails them.”

D. G.—“Victor Bonander almost lost his life the other day. Oscar, the giant in Colonel Dully’s Rough Riders, thought he was a banana and tried to peel him.”

M. B.—“Beatrice Cohen is canvassing New York and vicinity for the coming elections. You know James Moir, Jr., is up for mayor of New York.”

D. G.—“Oliver Mellen is a bouncer at a night club.”

M. B.—“Do you remember the Modern Daughters?”

D. G.—“Oh, yes; what has become of it?”

M. B.—“It is still flourishing, but it goes under a different name. It is now the Modern Old Maids. Mary Cooney is president.”

D. G.—“Whatever became of all those Curtins that we had in our class?”

M. B.—“Oh, they’re hanging up in the State Prison.”

D. G.—“Strange things have certainly happened to the members of our class.”

M. B.—“Yes! Who would ever think that ‘Tommy’ Geoghegan would become the national golf champion!”

D. G.—“Dame Fortune certainly has favored him.”

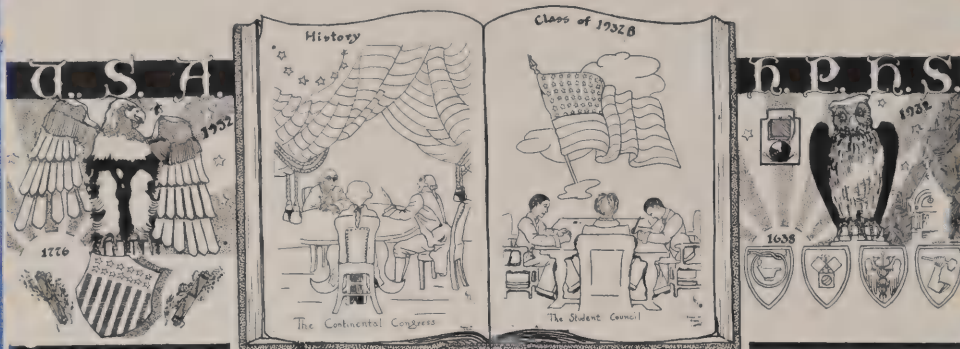

M. B.—“How is the world treating Barnaby Keeney these days?”

D. G.—“Oh, he’s an accomplished dancing master. He has invented a new dance step. It is called the “Keeney Sway.”

M. B.—“Well, it seems to me that Mr. Keewholes might be anxious to have me get back to work, and I can’t afford to lose my job at the crisis of this depression.”

D. G. (going to the door of Mr. Keewholes’ office)—“It seems as if I ought to be getting on with my work, too. I’ll go in and see if Mr. Keewholes has any news for the Bugle.

M. B.—“I hope we can see all of our class at the next reunion.”

Will

CENE—The ruins of a house that had burned down about a week ago. Dick and Ruth are passing by.

Dick—"Must have been a pretty bad fire. Three alarms were turned in. (Poking over the ruins.) Look! What's that square thing in there?"

Ruth—"I don't know. Let's go in and find out. It seems to be the only thing that isn't entirely destroyed."

Dick—"Here it is. It looks to me like a small security box. You try to open it. Maybe there's something valuable in it."

Ruth (Trying to open it)—"There, now it's open. Look! There are some papers in it. I'll bet it's somebody's will."

Dick—"Hurry up and open it."

Ruth—"Why, they are a part of the Will of the Class of 1932B (Reads).

We, the Class of 1932B, of this fair City of Hartford and State of Connecticut, being of rather sound and very disposing mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of this life, do make, publish, and declare this to be our LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, hereby revoking all other wills by us made.

Ruth—"Oh! Oh! Where's the other part of the will? There must be some more. Look in the box, and see if you can find it."

Dick (Looking for it)—"Oh yes! Here it is in the bottom of the box."

Teresa Kenny bequeaths her speedy recitations to Mary Powers.

"Jackie" Welch leaves his success in football to "Jimmy" Blake.

Barnaby Keeney leaves his voice to any downcast hog-caller.

Lester Gravel leaves the cork off the bottle.

"Cliff" Boutelle leaves his journalistic ability to "Dick" Flaherty.

CLASS BOOK

"Matt" Sullivan leaves his frequent blushes to the lower sophomores.
"Bob" Rolfe leaves his ways with women to "Tommy" Vaughn.
Ella Kibbe leaves "Red" Whinnem reluctantly.
George Giraitis leaves a pair of his old pants to "Dan" Scott.
Beatrice Cohen bequeaths her efficiency to Ruth Felth.
"Joe" Coffey leaves some of his beef to the Hartford Market.
"Kay" Britt leaves her personality to Arline Dean.
"Mike" Dropiak leaves his physique to Earl Liederman.
Winifred Hoyer bequeaths her noisy ways to Room 30.
John O'Leary leaves his curly hair to Philip Zlochiver.
Rosalyn Glanz leaves her round shoulders to Fanny Lassoff.
Dana Noble leaves his manly interests in the Hi-Y to "Tom" Fanning.
Clara Cohen leaves her talkativeness to "Bill" Gabb.
"Flo" Tramonte leaves her Packard around the corner waiting for "Jack" Gallivan.
"Jimmie" Moir leaves his pocketbook closed.
Marie Lefebvre leaves her bewitching eyes to Anne DeMauro.
"Jimmy" Radigan bequeaths his timid ways to Paul Bliss.
Margaret Burke leaves her baby voice to Florence Lee.
Walter Menzel leaves his name on the Oulet room wall.
Gurli Svenson leaves her crooning ability to "Bing" Crosby.
"Dick" Goggin leaves his "chisel" to the carpenters.
Martin Gilman bequeaths his scholastic record to Melvin Katz.
Lester Egan leaves the hockey team without any ice.
Antoinette McIntosh leaves her typing ability to Julia Turner.
John Gill leaves his attendance record to "Jim" Darby.
"Dace" Devine leaves his dancing ability to Stepin Fetchit.
Mary Cosgrove leaves her quietness to Helen Coughlin.
"Red" Clewly leaves his paint to the school.
"Dick" Karotkin leaves the grease on his hair to the cafeteria.
Howard O'Connell leaves his banjo eyes to "Dick" Tripp.
George Katz bequeaths his big nose to the Home Economics Department to be used in smelling burnt beans.
John Bauer leaves me counting votes.
Graduation leaves us all out of a job.
"Connie" Winialski leaves her sophistication to the Lower Seniors.
Arline Rumley leaves her high-heeled shoes off.
Louise Montgomery leaves her looks to Lucille Vogel.
Harold Pierson and "Cliff" Boutelle leave the print shop in the care of "Teddy" Musgrave.
Lennart Bloomquist leaves his ready smile to the Pepsodent Company.

CLASS BOOK

Richard Kocher leaves his drawing ability to the furnaces.
Fulvia Washburne leaves her popularity to Cynthia Sage.
"Dan" Mather leaves all the girls guessing.
Lydia Noble leaves her singing voice to Emily Bilecka.
Philip Tomares leaves his wise-cracks to the Juniors.
Glicka Taylor leaves all her nephews and nieces to their families.
Oliver Mellen leaves his boy scout suit to William Boyce.
Catherine Waters leaves her kinky hair to Grace Edwards.
"Bill" Nelson leaves his conceit to anybody who wants it.
Claire Chapman leaves her sister, Rita, to finish her work.
The Class of 1932B leaves all the J's to James J. J. Hughes.
Anna Mack leaves her job in Mr. Adler's room to the best typist.
"Jack" Gallivan leaves his success as the Captain of the Football Team to "Tommy" Shortell.
Julia Quinn leaves her gym suit to some little Freshman.
"Tom" Jensen bequeaths his acting ability to Arnold Cosgrove.
Daisy Munfrado leaves her playfulness to the in-coming Freshmen.
"Dick" Smith leaves his ability to debate to David Weinstein.
Ruth Jenne leaves her Girls' Leaders gym suit to the Lower Sophomores.
Frank Whalen leaves his voice to "Howie" Carlson.
Beatrice Bogin leaves her brother a wonderful example.
Aron Mirsky leaves his good looks to "Fluffy" Maxwell.
Shirley Pulver bequeaths her French accent to Elizabeth Calverley.
Mary O'Connell leaves her brains to Mary Powers.
"Billy" Brazel leaves her politeness to Lois Pountney.
"Joe" Vogel leaves her loud voice to June Van Ry.
Patrick Battagler leaves his laziness to John Taintor.
"Chick" Folette leaves her smile behind.
Fred Schumm leaves his moods.
Hinda Neiditz leaves all her gossip in the dressing room.
"Scotty" Drummond leaves at 1.30 p. m. every day.
Rose Melnick leaves her ability to play the piano to "Harpo" Marx.
Edith Holt bequeaths the editorial page of the Chronicle to Eleanor Crost.
"Pudding" Moylan leaves some of his artistic drawings to Ballyhoo.
The Class of 1932B leaves its good record and joys of high school days behind.

In Witness Whereof, we have hereunto signed our names and transfixed our seal, this seventeenth day of June, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two.

(Signed) JANE G. ALTON.

THOMAS P. GEOGHEGAN.

1932B

CLASS BOOK

A BRIEF HISTORY OF HARTFORD HIGH

Early records show that a classical school existed in Hartford as early as 1638. It was supported by town appropriations, tuition fees, and by various bequests made in 1655, 1659, 1664, 1673, and 1680.

In 1798 the Hartford Grammar School was incorporated. It was a sort of college preparatory school where Latin and Greek grammar and mathematics were taught. It was free, being supported by grants and bequests. The school flourished as a single institution until 1817. However, it continued jointly with the new High School until 1865.

In 1847 the first Public High School was organized and built. It was a three-story, brick structure about seventy feet long and forty feet wide. That is, it was about one-half the size of our present boys' gymnasium. It was erected on the corner of Ann and Asylum Streets. The first principal, Joshua Giddings, was quickly succeeded by Thomas Beecher. Then came McLauren Cook and

FIRST PUBLIC HIGH SCHOOL 1847-1870

Cephas Leach, who each served for only one term. In 1851 Thomas W. T. Curtis came and remained for ten years. He was followed by Hiram Pratt, who stayed for three and one-half years.

After an interval of four months, Samuel Capron took charge of the school for eight and a half years, during which time, in 1869, a new building was erected on the present high school grounds. It was one hundred feet long and eighty feet wide. The school's next principal was Joseph Hall, who came in 1874. Soon after he came, in 1877, the building was enlarged. However, the complete structure

FIRST HOPKINS STREET BUILDING 1869-1882 was destroyed by fire in 1882. School sessions, nevertheless, continued in Batterson's Block, which is now the Garde Hotel. A new building was built in 1882-3 and was opened in 1884. This is the present section of the Hopkins Street Building that extends south from the main entrance. Mr. Hall continued as principal until 1893, when he was made principal emeritus. He died in 1896. Charles Henry Douglas succeeded him and remained until he resigned in 1895.

CLASS BOOK

He was followed by Edward H. Smiley, who had been vice-principal since 1890. Then, in 1897, the building was enlarged so as to comprise the present Hopkins Street and Manual Training Buildings. Mr. Smiley held his office as principal until 1911. He was then made principal emeritus. He died in 1928 after a long career. His successor is our present Principal, Clement C. Hyde.

In 1914 the Broad Street Building, constructed in sections, was begun and in 1915 the center and south sections were finished. The north section was completed in 1918. It now seemed as if ample room was at hand for high school purposes, but nevertheless more money was appropriated in 1915, 1920, 1922, 1923, and 1924 for additional sites and buildings. The next high school, the Thomas Snell Weaver High School, was ready for occupancy in 1924, and the Morgan G. Bulkeley High School soon followed in 1926.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING—ERECTED 1882-3

It is also a matter of great note to see how the Hartford Public High School, with its rather old foundations, has been always in the front, in a great many respects. At the time of the World War, for instance, over a 1000 of our graduates and students left their books and studies and went to France to fight. Forty-four of these fine fellows never came back alive; they included one from each of the classes of 1875, 1899, 1903, 1904, 1905, 1907, 1911, and two of the class of 1910, in addition to four from 1912; six from 1913, six from 1914, three from 1915, six from 1916, six from 1917, and three from the class of 1918. Thus we see that Hartford High was well represented by members of almost twenty different classes. Beside these, there were a great many others who left school to work on farms, or in factories, so that other men might enlist. The pupils also sold Liberty Bonds and did sewing, knitting, and other useful work. Again, Hartford High claims distinction in that a great many of its alumni, such as William Lyon Phelps, Edward T. Lee, and Clarence A. Barbour, are prominent men and women, in their own field, and are well known as great leaders. Hartford High also has the great honor of having one of the finest faculties in the country. This fact, of course, contributes greatly to the success of the school as well as its students and graduates. This probably is the reason why the Hartford Public High School ranks second, compared with all the private and public preparatory and high schools in New England. All these facts go to show that those of us who have studied at Hartford High should be proud that we have had the privilege of attending a school with such a fine record.

CLASS BOOK

CENTER AND SOUTH SECTIONS, BROAD STREET--ERECTED 1915

In supplementing this sketch of Hartford High's genealogy, we might state that eleven thousand seven hundred forty-eight graduates have passed through its portals. From this group there are representatives living in forty-six of the United States, while others are distributed among twenty-two foreign countries as well as the Canal Zone, Guam, Porto Rico, Hawaii, and the Virgin Islands.

CLASS BOOK

HARTFORD HIGH COURTMEN SMEAR
WALS FROM HARDWARE CITY 24-16

H. P. H. S. Swimmers
Register First Win of Seas

TRIUMPH OVER MERIDEN RECORD AGAIN

HARTFORD HIGH
RELAY MEN IN PENN CARNIVAL

Compete for National in Class A School

Boutelle Splashes to Victory

Hartford High Boxman Holds
Schoolboy Rivals to One Hit

Hartford High Snaps Prep Team's Victory Streak

Hilltoppers Crush
East Hartford

GALLIVAN ON BENCH
elch Goes Over Goal Twice and Parzick Also Score

H. P. H. S. Wins 13-6
AS GALLIVAN STARS

HILLTOPPERS TROUNCE
BULKELEY TEAM 31-4

NEWELLMEN
Strong Blue and White Track Team Entered in State Title Meet

Hartford High will be represented by a strong track team at the Yale interscholastics Saturday. Although the comparatively small number of eventeen men will compete the pick of the squad the record

TRACKMEN TAKE THIRD IN MEET

Good Season in View as Team Makes Fine Showing
Only Prob

H. P. H. S. TRACKMEN
Captain Keeney Stars

CAPTURE STATE TITLE

Callahan Hits Heights in Setting New Record

WHITE TRACKMEN PLACE FOURTH IN ANNUAL CONNECTICUT INTERSCHOLASTIC MEET

Over Eleven to Place

Shatter Record; to Place

Inter-Class Swimming
Tomorrow at Y. M.

SENIORS FAVORED
NUMBER OF VETERANS

Hilltoppers Defeat
Bulkeley Quintet
in Hard Contest

SOUTH-ENDERS UNUSUAL

H. P. H. S. Wins

P. H. S. NETMEN TAKE CITY CHAMPIONSHIP

The brilliant H. P. H. S. tennis team captured its scheduled games against Bulkeley Tuesday. It is the strongest team New Britain
High has ever placed upon the court. I look for a victory for the team.

WHAT COACHES SAY
Coach
"With what I regard as one of the strongest teams New Britain
High has ever placed upon the court. I look for a victory for the team.

Track Team Defeats
Warren Harding of Bridgeport, 58-46

Morrison Wins

The H. P. H. S. track team made it two out of three last Saturday at Trinity Field, with Warren Harding of Bridgeport the victim. The final score was 58 to 46. The running team was led by Morrison who was the runner-up. The team also defeated the team from the runners-up.

Decision Given to Senior Girls in Swimming Meet

Lydia Noble Scores Most Points

Hilltoppers Defeat
Bulkeley Quintet
in Hard Contest

SOUTH-ENDERS DISPLAY
UNUSUAL RESISTANCE

The Hartford High basketball team defeated the city champions last night by a score of 21 to 14. The team was led by the runners-up.

O'Leary Outstanding

Giraitis and Lead High Scoring

BLUE AND WHITE TRAIL
24-225 IN TEAM PLAY

Newellmen, Led by George
Giraitis, Avenge Overtime Defeat at New Britain

RED AND GOLD LIMITED TO TWO FIELDS

Hartford Loses Only Four of Sixteen Contests

BLUE AND WHITE ROLLS
UP 471 POINTS

The H. P. H. S. basketball quintet closed the 1932-33 season with the record. The team, captain by Giraitis, garnered the record.

Levinson Only Hartford High
Man to Reach Finals

The four described were suffered and the runners-up, New Britain and Hilltoppers.

State weakness backward sent Goold, who was the runner-up.

Scoring.

39
25
24
23

CLASS BOOK

Athletic Achievements

DURING our senior year we have seen the Blue and White teams in the winning column time after time. The teams which we have seen in action during the past season represent the best Hartford High has turned out in many a year. Our class has had its share of good athletes. Captains in six sports have come from the ranks of 1932B, and we are justly proud of them.

The glare of the sports spotlight first falls on our 1931 Football Team, which started the season without the usual newspaper predictions of success. In fact, before the opening game with Manchester our gridiron hopes were not the brightest. Our eyes were opened when Captain "Jack" Gallivan and his teammates brought home the "bacon" time after time. Stockbridge, Bulkeley, Worcester Classical, Worcester Commercial, East Hartford, and Manchester all proved helpless once the touchdown-making machine of the Hilltoppers was set in motion. We dropped two closely contested games to Weaver and New Haven, but we gave NEW BRITAIN the worst drubbing in the long-standing rivalry between the two schools. The Red and Gold "took it on the nose", 37 to 0.

Soon our Cross-Country runners under Captain Keeney began to show their heels to the best of the schoolboy teams. The runners, led by Morron, Sayers, and Keeney, downed the opposition of Manchester, Hillhouse, and Weaver. Second place in the state meet put the finishing touches on the 1932 schedule.

About this time Coach Newell began casting about for basketball material, and under skillful coaching and leadership, one of the finest quintets in the state rapidly took shape. Captain George Giraitis lead his team-mates to victory after victory, and kept the score-boys busy counting baskets. The H. P. H. S. team left behind a record that future teams will have to hustle to beat. We won 12 games out of 16 and earned the right to enter the Yale Tournament. Kardys' clever shooting was a factor in many a contest, while Leon Bancavich gathered in his share of baskets. Giraitis proved himself a capable leader for Hartford Highs' hoopmen.

CLASS BOOK

The first of 1932 found the swimming squad working hard under the leadership of "Larry" Amann. Handicapped by the fact that there is no school tank, the mermen kept at their tasks and gave the best swimmers in the state plenty of fast competition. "Art" Levinson broke the school record three times and was unbeaten in dual meet competition. In the state meet at Yale "Art" proved himself the third best breaststroker in Connecticut. "Jackie" Welch splashed his way to a new school record and was one of the best "point-getters" on the team. Boutelle won consistently, and the medley relay team, composed of Boutelle, Levinson, and Welch, was unbeaten in dual competition. Tierney proved an asset in the distance swimming.

The class of 1932 won the inter-class meet and were awarded numerals for their efforts.

For the first time in years "Larry" Amann had a fast and dependable group of tracksters. Kenney led the team and was an outstanding performer in the quarter. With three state champions on the team, the H. P. H. S. runners crossed the tape ahead of the stiffest competition in Connecticut. Callahan won state-wide fame as a pole vaulter. Willard Merron, Paul Sayers, Reisel, Comstock, and Dropiok all helped to make the 1932 track season a banner year. Our relay team was thought to merit a place in the Penn. Relays, so our runners met the pick of the country.

The golfers and tennis players worked hard, and "Jimmie" Radigan, Godfrey Marzano, and Howard O'Connell did their share in boosting H. P. H. S.'s athletic fame. The soccer team, a newcomer to the sports curriculum, drew the attention of many and performed creditably on the field.

In Baseball we could truly say that "We have met the enemy and they are ours." We dropped but one game out of the 19 played, and public attention was focused on the H. P. H. S. bat wielders. No better record was ever hung up than Captain Shortell and his mates set in 1932. "Lefty" Naktenis was the sensation of the season, his pitching drawing crowds to the ballfields, and adding pep and zest to the games. "Jack" Gallivan held down the first base with the cleverness characteristic of this all-round athlete. Splendid teamwork was one of the secrets of our baseball success.

With the Track Team winning meets and the Baseball Team clouting the offerings of the visitors for victory after victory, the athletic season of 1931-1932 ended in a blaze of glory, just as it began.

CLASS BOOK

SENIOR NITE

J. FALOTICO

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

Lower Senior Night — 1932 B

COMMITTEE

JULIA QUINN
MARIE LEFEBVRE

ANN MACK, Chairman
MARGARET BURKE
BURTON ROSENFELD
BARNABY KEENEY

JAMES MOIR, JR.
JOHN O'LEARY

PROGRAM

BARNABY KEENEY, Master of Ceremonies

The H. P. H. S. Football Team, (à la Femme):

MILDRED KOSCHER
RUTH JENNE
EVELYN GLANZ
ANNA BRANDT

ALICE GOULDING
JENNIE BOGDAN
MARY COSGROVE
MARGARET BURKE
MARY COSKER

ROSALYN GLANZ
HARRIET CLINTON
PAULINE LAVOIE
HELEN DOOLEY

The Divorce Court:

LESTER EGAN
JOHN O'LEARY

ABRAHAM WILLEN
ROBERT ENTENBERG
GLADYS WHITEHEAD

HARRY FELDMAN
SALVATORE TRANTOLO

The "Goofy Hunt" by Richard X. Goggin

HAROLD PIERSON
JOHN O'LEARY
VICTOR BONANDER

CLIFTON BOUTELLE
BARNABY KEENEY

LYDIA NOBLE
WILLARD MORRON
JOHN CALLAHAN

Banjo Solo by Howard O'Connell

Violin Solo by Lorraine Martineau
Accompanist, Rose Melnick

Song and "Uke" Number by Frank Whalen

Ballet Dance by Anita Narkwich

Songs by Gurli Svenson and Ruth Hjalmeer

Stage Manager
CARROLL CLEWLEY

Assistant Stage Manager
JOHN WELCH, JR.

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

GIRLS

Ann Mack
 Alice Plumb
 Hilda Prindiville
 Fulvia Washburne
 Margaret Kershaw
 Fulvia Washburne
 Winifred Hoyer
 Ethel Lass
 Cornelia Winialski
 Gladys Whitehead
 Jennie Bogdan
 Louise Montgomery
 Kathryn Britt
 Lorraine Martineau
 Arline Rumley
 Arline Brazel
 Julia Quinn
 Louise Montgomery
 Julia Quinn
 Mary O'Neil
 Antoinette McIntosh
 Lydia Noble
 Rose Melnick
 Ella Kibbe
 Anna West
 Margaret Burke
 Mary O'Connell
 Mary Sullivan
 Mary Watson
 Jane Alton
 Beatrice Cohen
 Elizabeth McClure
 Mary Cosgrove
 Lorraine Martineau
 Florence Tramonte
 Julia Quinn

Most Popular
Most Industrious
Wittiest
Best Looking Best Excuse Maker
Most Sophisticated
Most Bashful
Noisiest
Most High Hat
Greatest Heartbreaker Best Athlete
Best Dancer
Best Sport
Most Clever
Most Dignified
Peppiest
Most Democratic Greatest Flirt
Best All-Around
Most Courteous
Most Individual
Laziest
Most Optimistic
Neatest
Most Loyal
Most Capable Biggest Grind
Gayest
Frankest
Greatest Night Hawk
Greatest Politician
Biggest Bluffer
Most Pessimistic
Best Drag with Faculty
Worst Drag with Faculty
Done Most for H. P. H. S.

BOYS

John O'Leary
 Martin Gilman
 Richard Goggin
 Jacob Hurewitz
 Richard Goggin
 William Nelson
 John Gill
 Lester Gravel
 James Moir, Jr.
 John Welch
 John Gallivan
 Sebastian Lombardo
 John Welch
 Richard Smith
 John Gill
 Lester Gravel
 Oliver Mellen
 Thomas Jensen
 John O'Leary
 Barnaby Keeney
 Dana Noble
 James Moir, Jr.
 Joseph Coffey
 Thomas Geoghegan
 Paul Sayers
 Martin Gilman
 Aron Mirsky
 John Hayes
 James Moir, Jr.
 Norris Drummond
 Clifton Boutelle
 Dana Noble
 Burton Rosenfield
 Martin Gilman
 Richard Goggin
 Barnaby Keeney

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

"IT WON'T BE LONG NOW!"

HORRORS! Zounds! and what not! Little did we Seniors realize the calamity awaiting us, when, on June 17, 1932, at the welcome sound of the bell we made our usual cross-country dash to the cafeteria. In full innocence we chose our fish plate, or hash and pickles, and jello and whipped cream, and after the fatiguing process of digging the last few pennies out of our purses (Friday, you know) and paying the cashier, we drew our stools up to the "board" and began. Didn't you swallow your dinner in about two mouthfuls, and notice rather a peculiar taste—that is, a peculiar taste different from the peculiar taste of usual days? Yes, some of that food was poisoned, and with sulphide trinitrate, the very same thing that Robert Preston, alias "Dick Goggin", was poisoned with in the Dramatic Club play.

"Sulphide trinitrate", says the famous chemist, I. B. Smart, "is a slow poison usually resulting in death within twenty-four hours. No unusual effects are felt, however, and death at the end is instantaneous." What if you received some of the poisoned food? What would you do if you had only twenty-four hours to live? This was the question asked of some of our classmates, who may or may not live to see the dawn of June 18. Most of them consented to be interviewed in the interests of science. Jane Alton did not hesitate; she would dance the hours away. Carroll Clewley would devote his time to fixing artistic lighting effects over his coffin and "Bob" Entenberg would supervise it. Alice Plumb would finish reading Alice in Wonderland which she has been perusing for six years. Mary Mulcahy (at Mr. Adler's suggestion) would fall in love. Louise Montgomery has always been a fair (in both senses) girl. She would divide her time, spending the first twelve hours with her mother, and the second twelve having one grand time dancing and crooning popular songs in that low, sweet voice that so characterizes her. Arline Rumley and "Dick" Smith would take a load of buckshot downtown and break all of the plate-glass windows in Fox's, Sage-Allen's, and Steiger's—just to have enough noise for once. And speaking of noise, "Ed" Folev would pep up his "Hunk-a-junk-four" and convert Farmington Avenue into a speedway. John O'Leary is going to rob a bank and then pay off his debts. "Jimmie" Moir when interviewed stated that he'd hate to tell anyone. Our friend Annie Mack intends to buy a copy of Ballyhoo to amuse herself as she spends her final hours riding on the "Thunderbolt" at Savin Rock. Edna Hall would go to New York and make "Whoopee", while "Arbo" Nelson would worry so much that he would die long before his allotted time. "Jackson" Gallivan is going to climb into his football regalia and to a host of admiring feminine onlookers demonstrate the plays he used in steam-rolling New Britain 37 to 0. Ethel Lass would sit quietly in a comfortable chair and make gum-drop candy dogs for the great mass of unemployed. The question so overpowered George Katz that he took out his geology book and began to study. "Barney" Keeney is so fond of thrilling roller-coasters (the second one, you notice) that he would hire an aeroplane to take him from one to another so that he could decide whether or not the aforementioned "Thunderbolt" really is the worst one in this part of the country.

Evidently, we are not troubled by our impending fates, or if so, we are unanimous in agreeing to satisfy our long-suppressed desire. Just what would you do if you had only twenty-four hours to live?

IF —

If Gilman had been dumber,
And the "Goof" was not Boutelle;
If Welch and "Jackie" Gallivan
Hadn't hit the line so well.

If Keeney had been graceful
And Mellen not so meek;
If certain teachers' vengeance
On Tomares didn't wreak.

If Hinda kept the pounds off
And Mack had gained a few;
If Vincent had told Fulvia
That he and she were through.

If Lorraine, the lovely actress,
Was not loved by Callahan.
Along with Paul T. Sayers
And "Jimmie" Radigan.

Or again, if good old Coffey
Hadn't broken several seats;
If Morron, Willard R. had lost
Instead of won track meets.

If Jensen acted poorly
And Pinsky not at all;
If Kardys and Giraitis
Hadn't starred in basketball.

If Margaret Burke was forward
And O'Leary very shy;
Or again, if Hurwitz, Jacob C.
Hadn't honored Hartford High.

If Katz had written poetry,
Or Naktenis not played ball.
If Gravel, he of A's and B's,
Hadn't shouted in the hall.

Or if Louise Montgomery
Didn't act the role of "Ann",
And look as well as act it,
As only Gertrude can.

If Holt and Hall and Pulver
Hadn't formed the "Musketters".
Had Goggin in his last few months
Been spared—well—certain fears.

CLASS BOOK

If Hadlock hadn't rhapsodized
And Smith did not debate;
Or Schumm for all the women
Had been filled with bitter hate.

Or again if Noble, Lydia,
Didn't have that artist's touch;
And then if Friedman, Joseph,
Didn't like to talk so much.

If Mirsky was a nighthawk
And Quinn told all she heard;
And Pierson could not be himself—
A queer, eccentric bird.

Or again, if Noble, Dana G.,
Hadh't learned to bluff in class;
If those who dropped by way of F's
Had learned to work and pass.

If Britt had been ill-tempered
And Moir, pep and speed—
If ever one young lady,
Had bought one boy a feed.

If Karotkin was a ladies' man
And Clinton liked the boys;
If Geoghegan, Lester Egan,
Didn't have that certain poise.

If Alton had been hated
And Bonander had been tough;
If Entenberg and Clewley
Didn't think they knew their stuff.

If Bauer had been smaller,
Or Melnick played a prank;
If only Margaret Curtin
Hadh't been so very frank.

If Brazel had been moody,
Along with Rumley, too;
If "Rosie" was an honor man—
And Mather's line was new.

If Nelson didn't grind so much
And Reisel couldn't run;
And again, if clever drawings
By Griffin were not done.

If Kaplan did his Latin,
Or Hayes forgot to talk;
If Jenne, Ruth, and Drummond
At homework didn't balk.

If Gagnon used the latest slang,
Had not Fichman played the "sax";
If Dully over Edith Holt
Didn't most excited wax.

If sports were not indulged in
By Lass and T'resa Kenny;
If Nusinoff, a Santa Claus,
Had learned there wasn't any.

If O'Connell starred at dancing
And had been poor at golf;
Or again, if Francis Hannifin
Had hated Robert Rolfe.

If Marzano hit his history
In a manner bright and clever;
If Tramonte and Follette
Were shunned by men forever.

If Gill had not been quiet
And Kibbe went for "Black";
Or if Marie Lefebvre
Had answered teachers back.

If "Tony" Baranawski
Wasn't cherished for her looks;
If Mary F. E. O'Connell
Came to school without her books.

If this and that had not been so
And to everyone, a change.
How queer our high school days had been—
How very drab and strange!

The Would-be Wonders of 1932B

To date there are only Seven Wonders of the World, but this number could be greatly increased

IF—

*"Joe" were a bondman instead of a Friedman.
 Louise Clarke forgot to retort.
 Bernice were Simple instead of Simon.
 John were a fin instead of a Gill.
 Mary Cooney left her gum at home.
 Ethel were a quiet Lass.
 Pat Battagler ever combed his hair.
 Wesley were wrong instead of Wright.
 Rose Plassino lost her vanity.
 Libby were Paris instead of Rome.
 "Clif" Boutelle were not "Goofy".
 Howard kept trout in his Brooks.
 "Bea" Cohen lost her dignity.
 "Scotty" Drummond left the girls alone.
 "Joe" always had Coffey with his dates.
 "Fue" Washburne ever became excited.
 Dana were not quite so Noble.
 "Flo" Tramonte ever worried about a cipher.
 Anne Cacase wasn't enthusiastic.
 Margaret Burke lost her dimples.
 Fred Schumm stopped chasing the girls.
 Gladys Whitehead wasn't kittenish.
 "Abe" wasn't Willen.
 Alice Leahy lost her tongue.*

CLASS BOOK

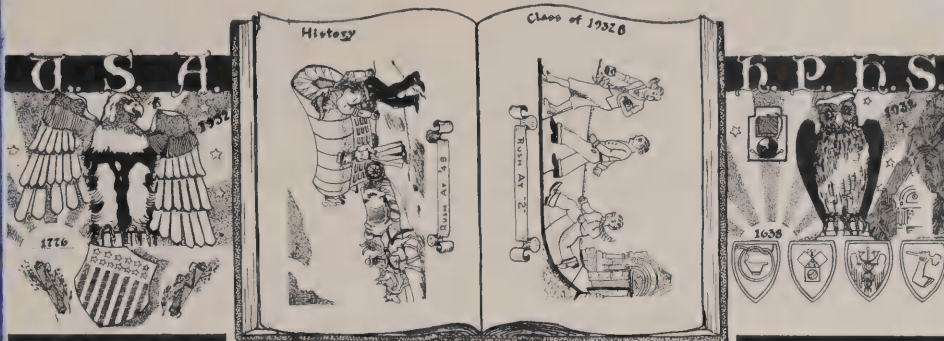

Irene Rivkin's hair was straight.
Wanda Ostrowski lost her calmness.
Evelyn were a crooner instead of a Singer.
Ann Cady gave up her gay life.
"Winnie" Hoye was boisterous.
Bernard Carde failed to blush.
"Dot" Bazilian kept a straight face in English.
John Callahan didn't "go over the top."
"Mae" Watson couldn't argue.
Carroll Clewley stopped blowing fuses.
Louise Montgomery lost her Harvard accent.
Lorraine Martineau wasn't in the spotlight.
John O'Leary ever got to school on time.
Lydia Noble lost her giggle.
"Jack" Hurewitz lost his gentlemanly ways.
Anna Jasinkas didn't know her lessons.
"Dick" Goggin liked more than ten people.
Helen McLaughlin lost her gift of gab".
"Jimmy" Moir ever exerted himself.
Marie Lefebvre ever walked to school.
"Jack" Welch went straight home after a dance.
Alice were a peach instead of a Plumb.
Mary Folette should be an old maid.
"Bobby" Rolfe looked angry.
David stopped "cutting up" and became Devine.
Lester were sand instead of Gravel.
Jeanette preferred Willy instead of Wooley.
Alice Henson were self-conscious.
Constance Glazier had a loud voice.
Russell Moore wasn't conscientious.
Emma Nixon were not so pleasant.
George Giraitis were not a ladies' man.
Edna were a room instead of a Hall.
Daniel had a new car instead of a Newhouse.

CLASS BOOK

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

HOME WORK

CIP HERS

TOO YS

TOO MANY PARTIES

2 D UMB

SICK PASSES

EXAM INATIONS

CAL L SLIPS

POOR SAPS

EDDIE CANTOR

PR ANKS

DAN CES

,

WON' T STUDY

TOO LAZY

ASL EEP

TE ACHERS

TI RED

SPRIN G FEVER

JOHN WELCH

JOHN HAYES

ARTHUR YATES

FLORENCE TRAMONTE

LESTER EGAN

PASQUALINA AIELLO

JOSEPH COFFEY

EDNA HALL

ROBERT ENTENBERG

EMORY ROBOTHAM

MARY SULLIVAN

ANNE CACASE

ALFONSO ANTOINETTI

EDWARD NORRIS

,

THEODORE TOBIAS

PHILIP TOMARES

ALBERT EINSTEIN

JANE ALTON

CLAIRE CHAPMAN

JAMES HUGHES

1932 B

Acknowledgments

We feel that this Class Book would not be complete without acknowledging our indebtedness and gratitude to:

Mr. Clement C. Hyde and the members of the office staff for their aid in correcting and compiling material for this book.

Miss Helen Pritchard for her enthusiastic efforts in behalf of the Editorial Board.

Mr. Thomas C. Bailey for his interest and encouragement as adviser to the Business Board.

Miss Frances A. Bacheler, whose advice and assistance with the Art work have made this book possible.

Miss Ruth Hayden for her helpful criticism on the drawings.

Miss Grace Warfield for her valuable assistance to the Editorial Board.

Alice Goulding, who drew the panel and the book plate.

Thomas Griffin, who drew the background for the Class Book Boards.

Anna King, who drew the character page.

John Falotico, who designed the Senior Night Page.

Richard Kocher, who drew the heading for the Rogues' Gallery.

Dana Noble, who drew the autograph heading.

Lydia Noble, who drew the Prophecy heading and the background for the historical sketches.

Edward Komm, who drew the heading for the panel.

The artists who drew the pictures for the Historical sketches, Anna Brandt, Anna King, Cornelia Winialski, Alice Kevorkian, Thomas Moore, Thomas Griffin, and Emma Nixon.

Richard Goggin for his assistance to the Editorial Board.

Those who did the typewriting of the material for this book, Irene Rivkin, Pauline Katz, Antoinette McIntosh, Helen Dooley, Mary Dubicka, and Lucy Vernile.

CLASS BOOK

D. G. MOSE

autographs

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

AUTOGRAPHS

1932 B

ADVERTISEMENTS

The members of the Class of 1932B are urged to Patronize our Advertisers, who are our friends and well-wishers and whose aid has greatly contributed to the support of this book.

THE BUSINESS BOARD.

LIST OF ADVERTISERS

The Bankers Trust Company
 The Bond Press, Inc.
 The Boys' Club
 The Boys' Commercial Club
 The Boys' Glee Club
 The Brown Studio
 Capitol City Engraving Company
 The Class of 1933A
 The Class of 1933B
 The Class of 1934A
 The Class of 1934B
 The Class of 1935A
 The Class of 1935B
 The Class of 1936A
 The Dramatic Club
 Dunne Studio
 A Friend
 The Girls' Commercial Club
 The Girls' Glee Club
 The Girls' League
 The Hartford School of Music
 The Harvey & Lewis Company
 The Highland Dairy Company
 The History-Civics Club
 The Hopkins Debating Club
 Jensen's
 Le Cercle Francais
 Manning-Armstrong
 Mechanics Savings Bank
 Merelet Salon de Coiffure
 Louis Roushon
 The Sketch Club
 The Vesta Club
 Wyllys Waterman

CLASS BOOK

Compliments of

THE HIGHLAND DAIRY COMPANY

Quality
Dairy Products

Telephone 4-5270

HARTFORD, CONN.

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

For the Best in Hair and Facial Services

MERELET SALON de COIFFURE

Telephone 2-7002

57 PRATT STREET

Mechanics Savings Bank

(Incorporated 1861)

80 PEARL STREET, HARTFORD, CONN.

A Strictly Mutual Savings Bank.

ASSETS OVER $26,000,000

WE HAVE NO STOCKHOLDERS

Deposits made during the First Five Calendar Days of any month will Draw Interest from the First Day of that month.

Interest is Payable Quarterly—January, April, July and October First.

GRADUATES !—WELCOME TO

Jensens

Afternoon Tea

Candy

Luncheon

96 PRATT STREET, HARTFORD

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

The Hartford School of Music

HELEN TIFFANY, Director

Piano Violin Violoncello Voice

The School Invites Inquiries.

Telephone 2-3854

834 ASYLUM AVENUE

A Gigantic Oak Must Start from the Tiny Acorn

The million dollar fortune must start in the cents column.

It's a process of growth.

Thrifty habits aid in its cultivation.

START NOW—TODAY—$1.00 WILL START YOU.

THE BANKERS TRUST COMPANY

FARMINGTON AVENUE AT ASYLUM PLACE

Compliments of

A FRIEND

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

THE BROWN STUDIO
61 PRATT STREET, HARTFORD, CONN.

Special Rates to Students

Telephone 2-8905

Compliments of
The Boys' Glee Club

The eye which truly beholds color sees glory all along the path of life. Rain sets a silver stage. The colors of home are made to spell welcome and peace.

Compliments of the SKETCH CLUB

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

DUNNE STUDIO
Artistic Photographs

104 ASYLUM STREET, HARTFORD, CONN.
Telephone 6-0036

CAPITOL CITY ENGRAVING CO., INC.

Photo-Engravings

Photography
Art for Advertising

1240 MAIN STREET HARTFORD, CONN.
Telephone 2-6978

Compliments of

Le Cercle Francais

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

Compliments of

The Hopkins Debating Club

Compliments of

The Dramatic Club

JOIN

The Boys' Club

TO PROMOTE GOOD CITIZENSHIP

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

Compliments of

The Girls' League

Compliments of Girls' Glee Club

Compliments of

The Girls' Commercial Club

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

Compliments of

The Vesta Club

Compliments of

The Boys' Commercial Club

Compliments of

The Class of 1933 A

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

Compliments of

The Class of 1933 B

Compliments of

The Class of 1934 B

Compliments of

The Class of 1935 A

Compliments of

A FRIEND

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

Congratulations to the Graduating Class
THE HISTORY-CIVICS CLUB

WYLLYS WATERMAN

TEACHER OF PIANO

VOCAL COACH

Phone 2-8829

402 Sigourney St., Hartford, Conn.

Compliments of

THE CLASS OF 1934 A

FOOT - CRAFT SHOES

MANNING - ARMSTRONG

97 PRATT STREET

Compliments of

THE CLASS OF 1935 B

THE HARVEY & LEWIS COMPANY

OPTICIANS

Telephone 2-5291

852 MAIN STREET

Compliments of

THE CLASS OF 1936 A

LOUIS ROUSHON

PORTRAIT PHOTOGRAPHER

Telephone 2-6781

99 PRATT STREET

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

THE BOND PRESS

(Incorporated)

HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT

MAKES A SPECIALTY OF

PUBLICATION WORK

*AND IS UNUSUALLY WELL EQUIPPED TO DO
THE SAME PROMPTLY, AND AT CONSIDERATE COSTS*

LOOK FOR THIS IMPRINT:

THIS CLASS BOOK IS A SPECIMEN OF OUR WORK

1932 B

CLASS BOOK

The Bond Press
Printers
Hartford

1932 B

